FACES

It is the common wonder of all men how, among so many million of faces, there should be none alike.

Sir Thomas Browne

Throughout four years of challenge, struggle, and achievement, York becomes many different things for many different people. It is the battleground for rule makers and breakers, the birth and death place of principles, the focal point of life for four short years. In this length of time, York witnesses the development of innumerable lives, a formation made up of a myriad of experiences: Senior Slop Day, snake dances, first loves, 6—1 lunch, the C-B, Senior Soc, the Beach Boys, an "A" exam, the Basketball Tournament. These experiences are portrayed in an endless series of transient flashes of expression, expression not found in any view of the building, but discovered in the faces of the students of York. The essence of life at York—joy, depression, hope, fulfillment—is mirrored in the faces of students, in the Faces of York.

Every life is many days, day after day. We walk through ourselves, meeting robbers, ghosts, giants, old men, young men, wives, widows, but always meeting ourselves.

—James Joyce

Much study is a weariness of the flesh.
—Ecclesiastes

It is impossible to cheat life. There are no answers to the problems of life in the back of the book.
—Soren Kierkegaard

The primary purpose of a liberal education is to make one's mind a pleasant place in which to spend one's leisure.

—Sydney J. Harris

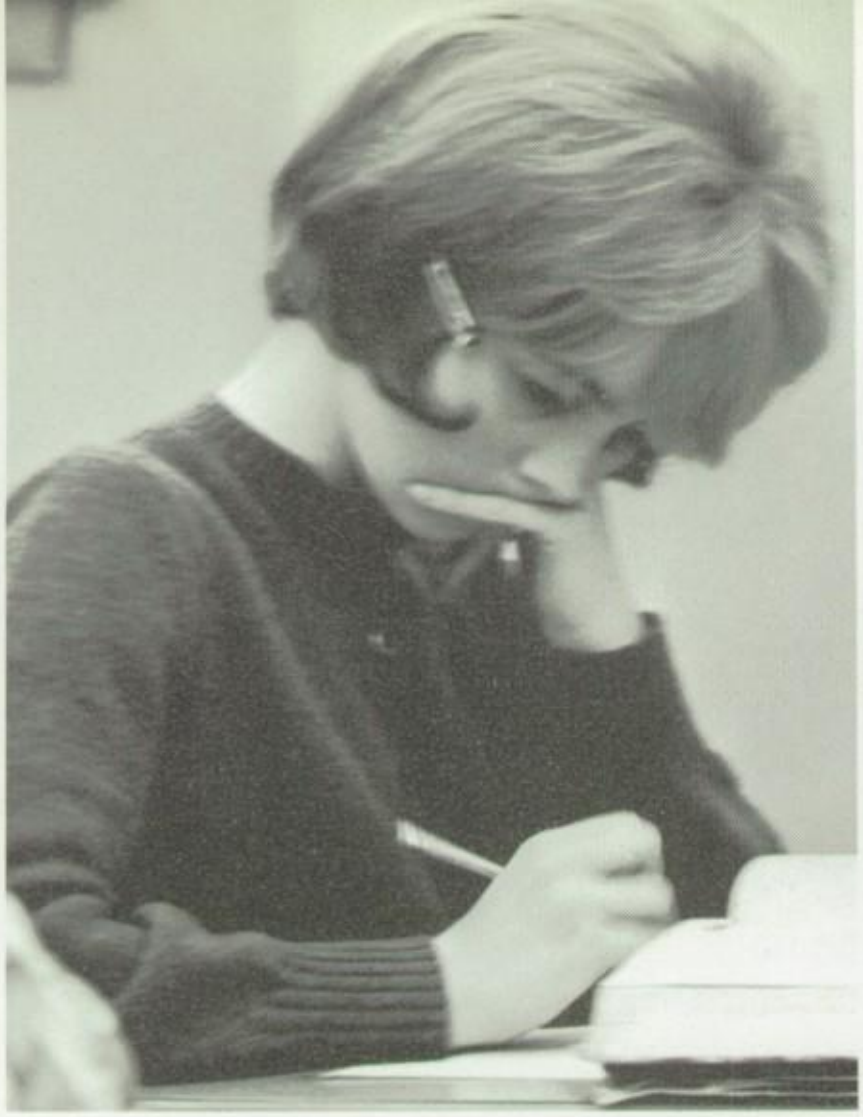
Nobody shoots at Santa Claus.

—Al Smith

The ultimate sin of the mind is the failure to pay enough attention.

—John Ciardi

LEARNING IS A STRUGGLE. The assimilation of knowledge is not a by-product of attendance at school. Knowledge eludes the searching mind in the guise of pre-digested opinions, banality, and busy work, and there it must be sought out. A few can perceive the underlying vitality of learning; others never will. Some, capable of perception, do not even search but surround themselves with a pseudo-intellectualism that shuts out the knowledge that they think they possess.



Soap and education are not as sudden as a massacre, but they are more deadly in the long run.

—Mark Twain

EVERYONE GOES TO SCHOOL for different reasons. There are some who only go when forced. They attend with a spirit of empty rebellion under the banner of detention, suspension, and passes to the deans. Others regard school as a social gathering. For them, a school day is a time for meeting people, interrupted only by class periods. Fortunately, there are students who know why they attend school. They realize that York is an opportunity, a chance to learn and mature and prepare for the onerous task of living.

The terrible burden of having nothing to do . . .
—Nicholas Broileaux-Despreaux

The art of teaching is the art of aiding discovery.
—Mark Van Doren

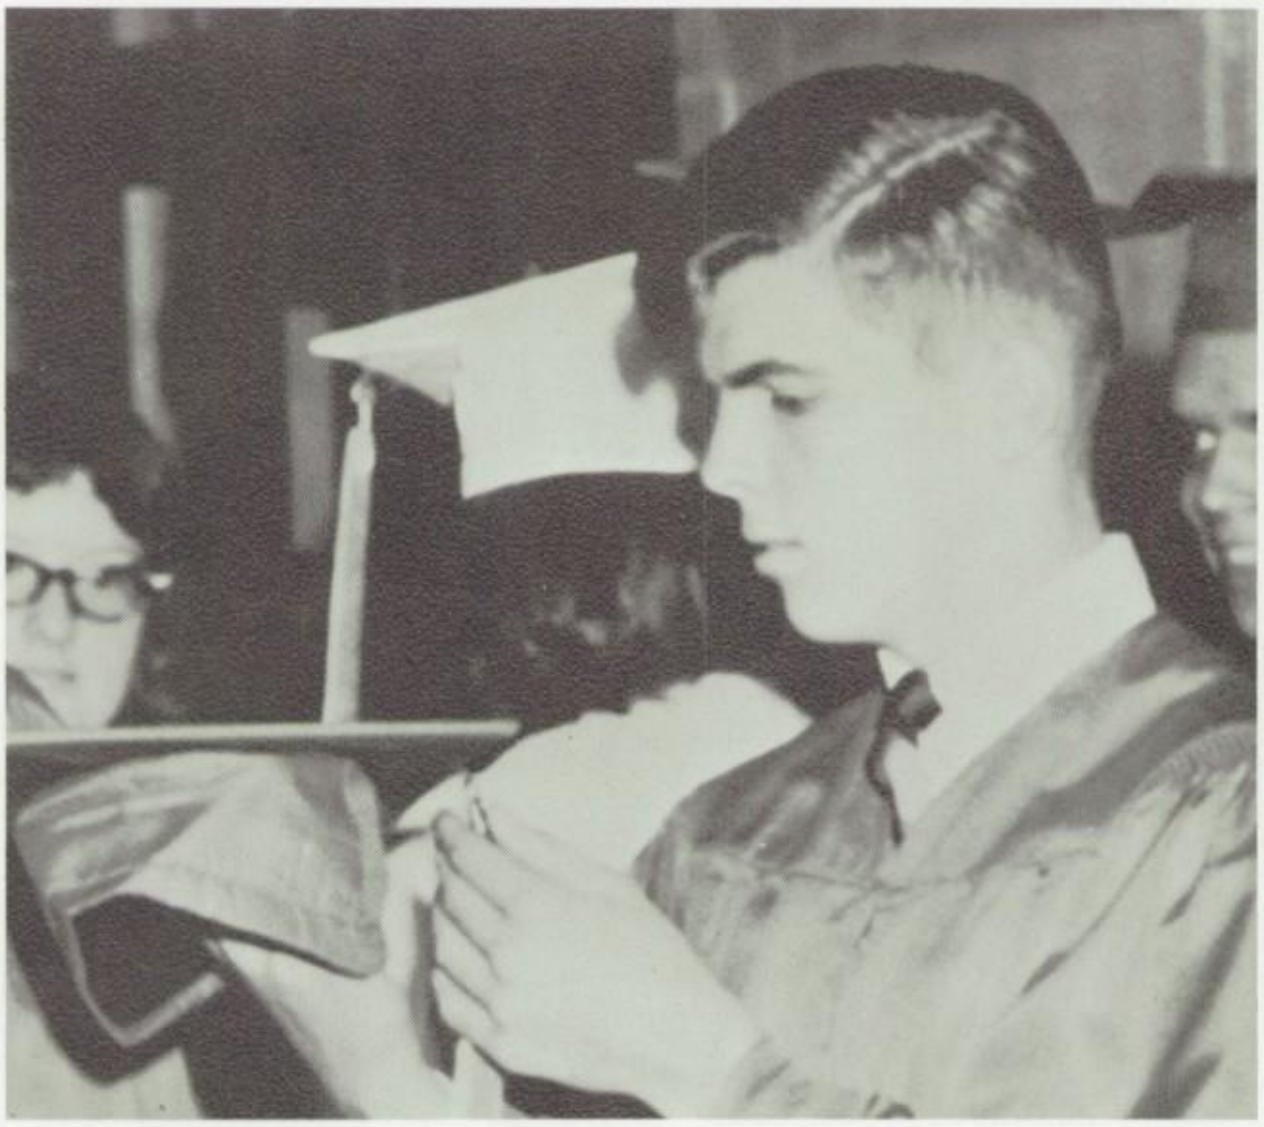
Most ignorance is vincible ignorance. We don't know because we don't want to know.

—Aldous Huxley

APATHY IS AN UNAVOIDABLE OCCUPATIONAL HAZARD of education. It appears just after first semester exams and attempts to hinder the progress of those not strong enough to shake it off. A diet of the cold, the stale, the bland, fails to satisfy those of us who have no appetite. Rumblings of revolution are heard, but nothing is ever done; apathy runs its course and returns to the background for another year.

Life can only be understood backward, but it must be lived forward.

—Soren Kierkegaard

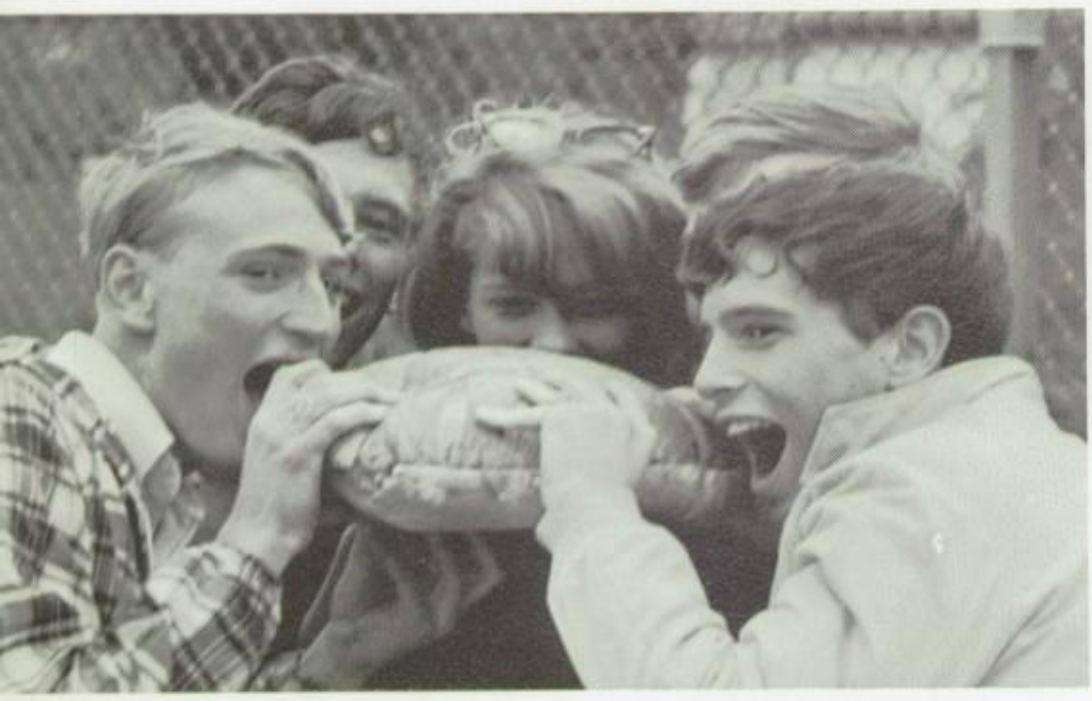


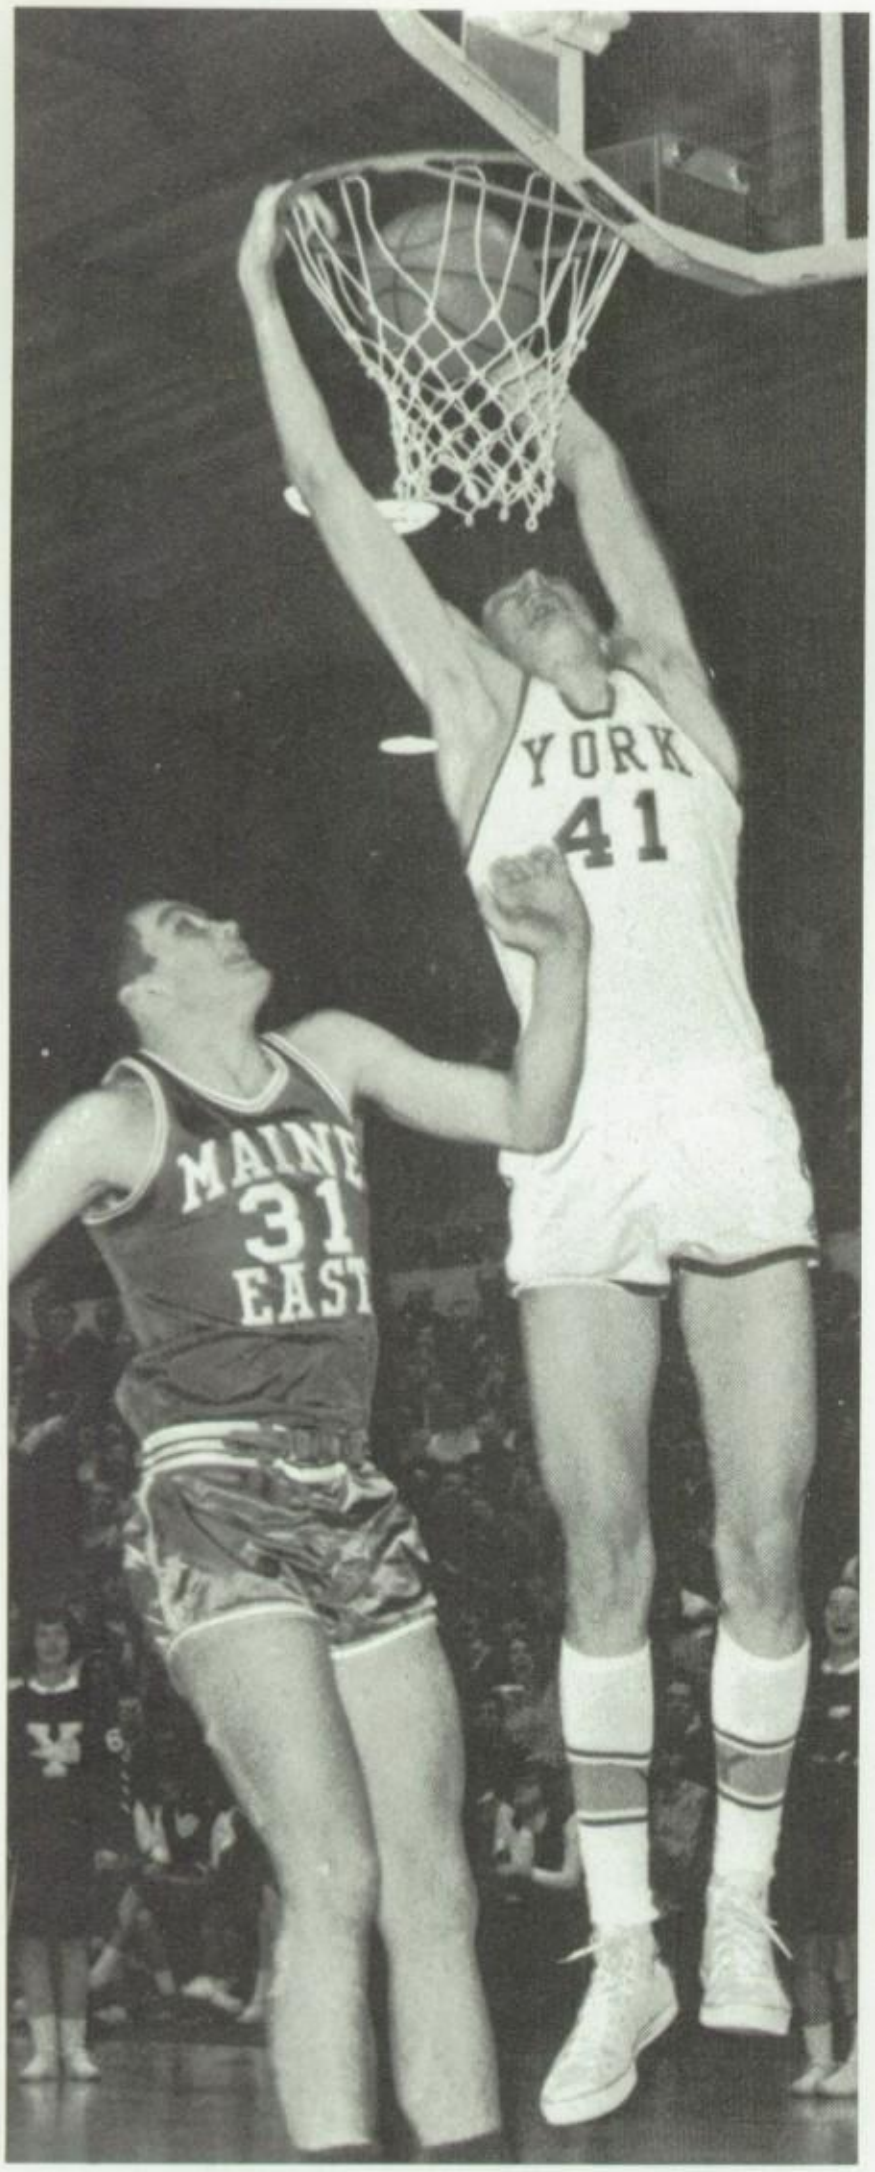
And we are the dreamers of dreams—One man with a dream, at pleasure, shall go forth and conquer a crown.

—O'Shaughnessy

She shall give the day, And kiss him with a glorious victory.
—William Shakespeare

ADOLESCENT INSECURITY REQUIRES CONFORMITY. We fear standing alone, and so we seek identification with some group. Each one of us adopts as a badge of belonging some aspect of the group, whether it is burgundy levis, Barbra Streisand records, or a leather jacket. We hide behind the badge, assuring ourselves of our nonconformity, but inwardly we still seek the security of belonging. Homogeneity crowds the true individualist onto the side roads; all follow, and conform in nonconformity.





Man, that stuff really brought down the house!

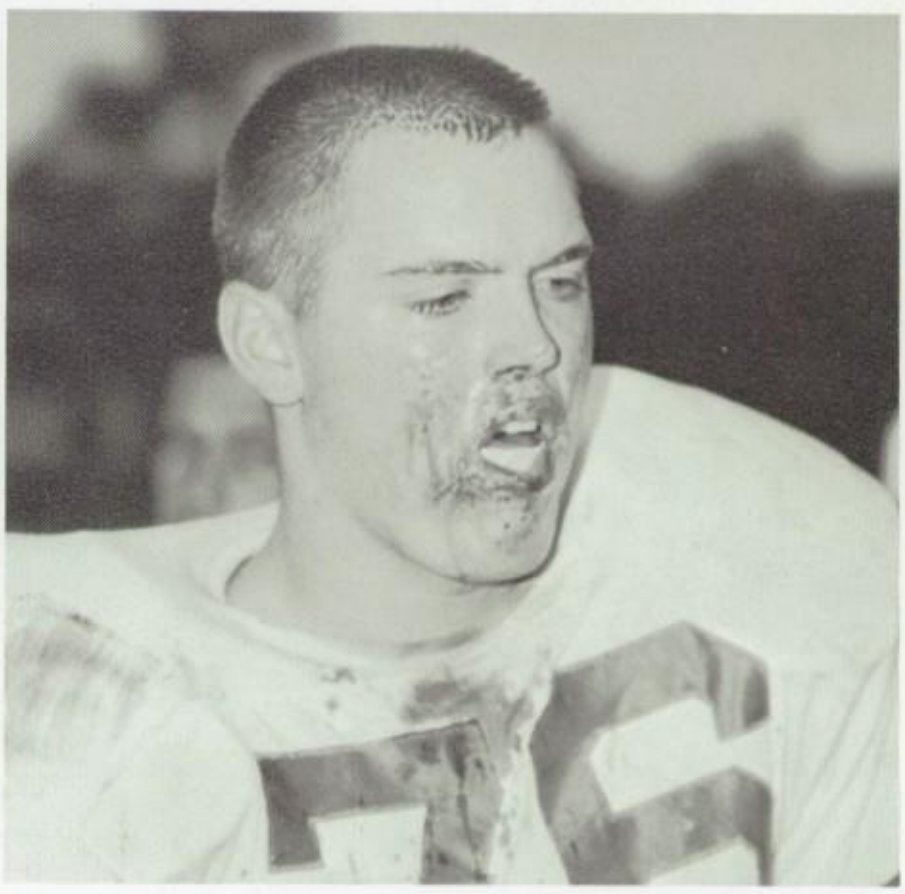
—Tito Ramsay

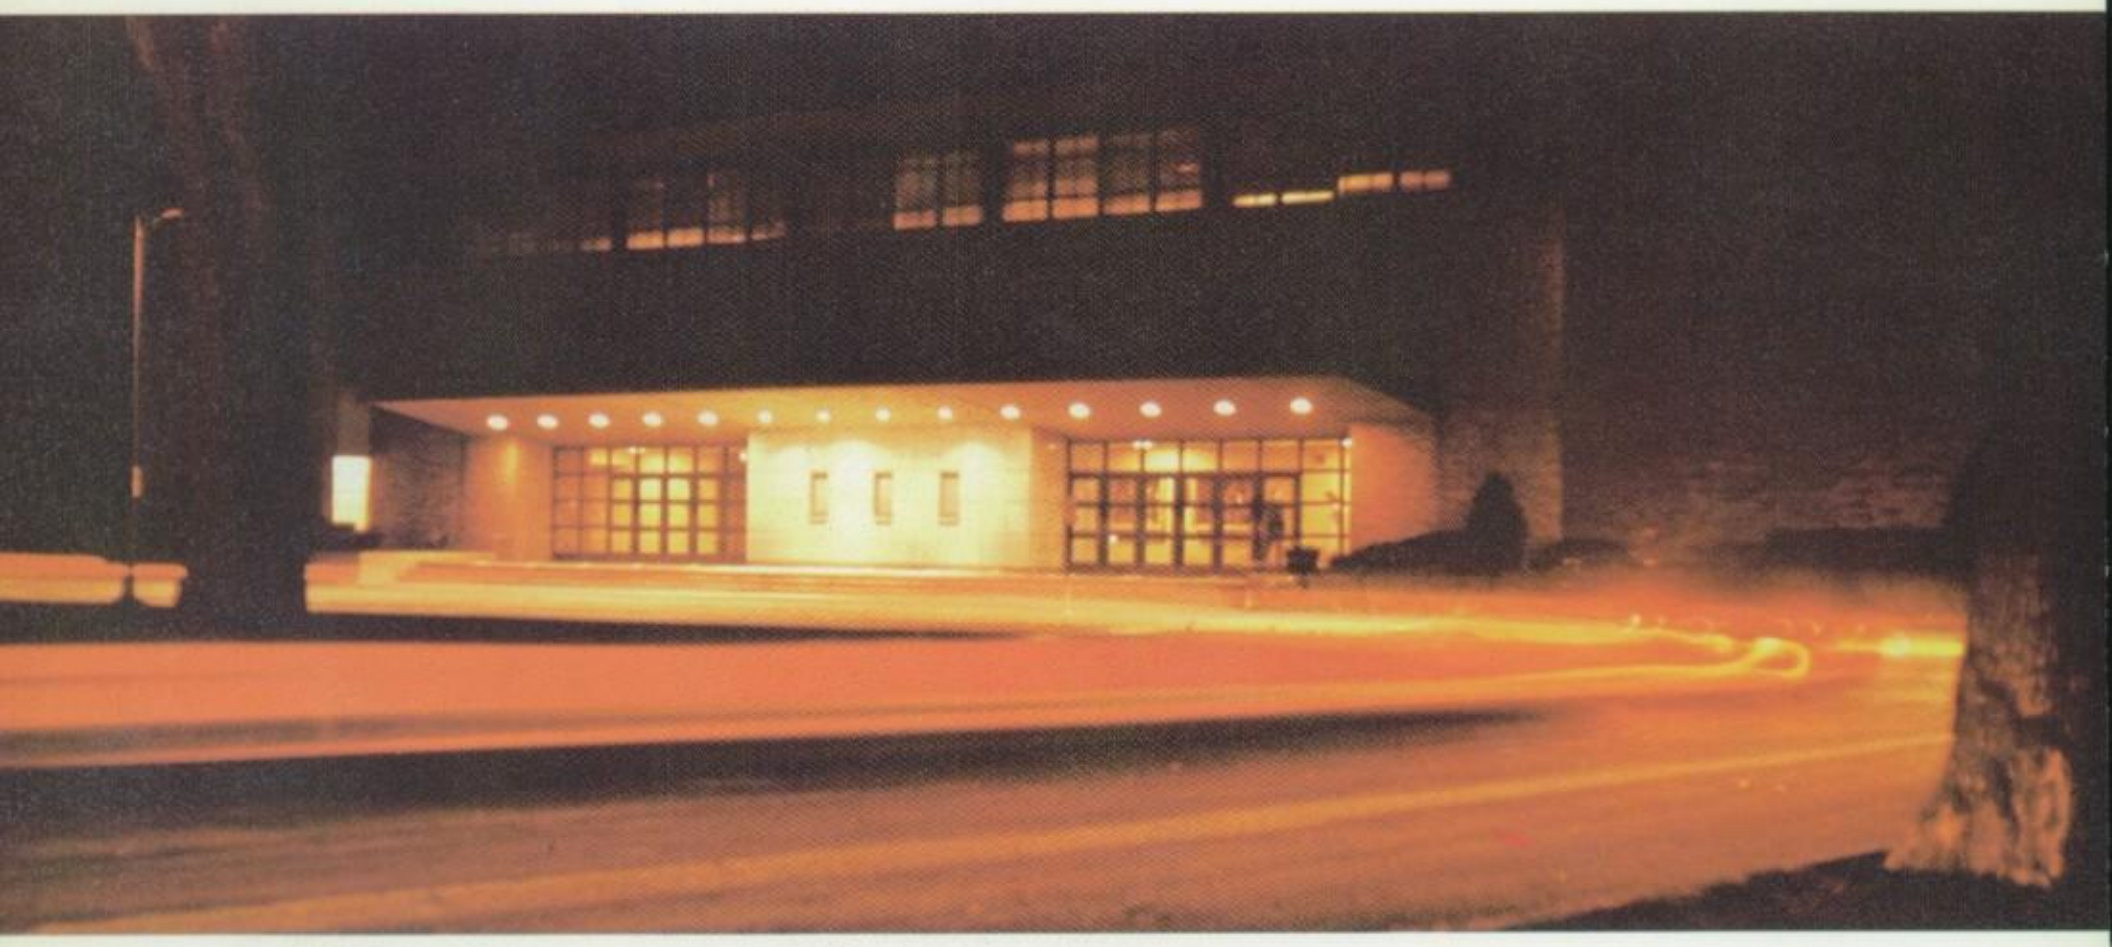
FOR PERFORMERS AND OBSERVERS, athletics is one of the most exciting phases of life at York. Innumerable would-be stars spend hours a week running, jumping, pushing, lifting, in preparation for one hour of supreme effort on the weekend. Whether it is twenty quarters or a two hour tackling drill, the price of excellence is high. The Dukes are willing to pay the price, and so the Dukes are seldom beaten. With two-handed stuffs and 85-yard kick returns the Dukes generate an excitement and a student enthusiasm seldom found elsewhere.

Don't ever look back; somethin' might be gainin' on you.
—Satchel Paige

I don't care if it's right or wrong, it's lousing up the game.
—Casey Stengel

A terrible beauty is born.
—Yeats





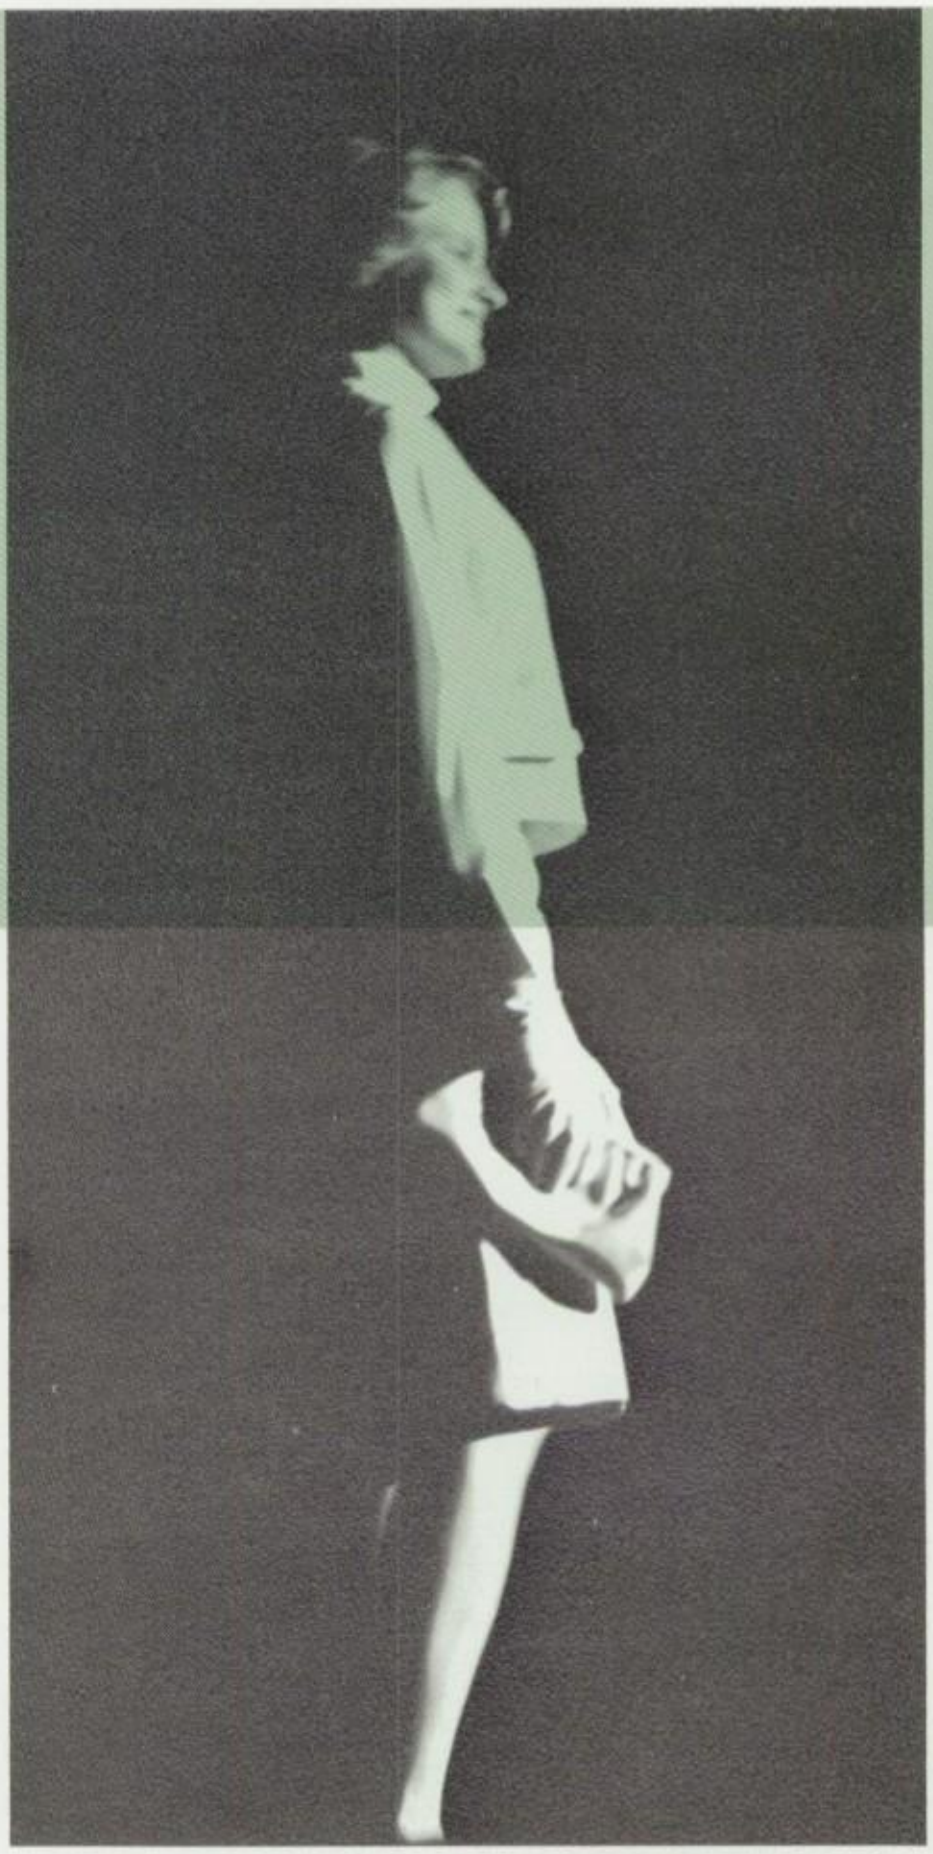
Time held me green and dying though I sang in my chains like the sea.
—Dylan Thomas

HIGH SCHOOL IS A TIME OF EXPERIMENTATION. We experience so many things for the first time. As we make our first fumbling attempts at living adult lives, our emerging maturity frightens us more than it does others. But time passes and we gain in confidence and laugh silently at events that previously left us cold with uneasiness. Life runs the gamut of all these experiences, not stopping to regard each individually, but roaring on, taking them in as a composite blur.

Humor is an affirmation of dignity, a declaration of man's superiority to all that befalls him.
—Romain Gary

You don' know, you don' know, you don' know, an' baby you never will.

—Mose Allison



Life is a loom, weaving illusion.

—Vachel Lindsay

We know too much and are convinced of too little.
—T. S. Eliot

LIFE CONTINUES FOR FOUR YEARS. We arm ourselves with equations, places, and formulas and cockily prepare to march against the world. We seniors are awed by our own knowledge, assuring ourselves that there really can't be much more to know. Graduation comes, and with it a hollowness in the pit of the stomach as the inevitable realization comes to us; we find that we know nothing. We humbly begin the search for knowledge that will involve the rest of our lives.

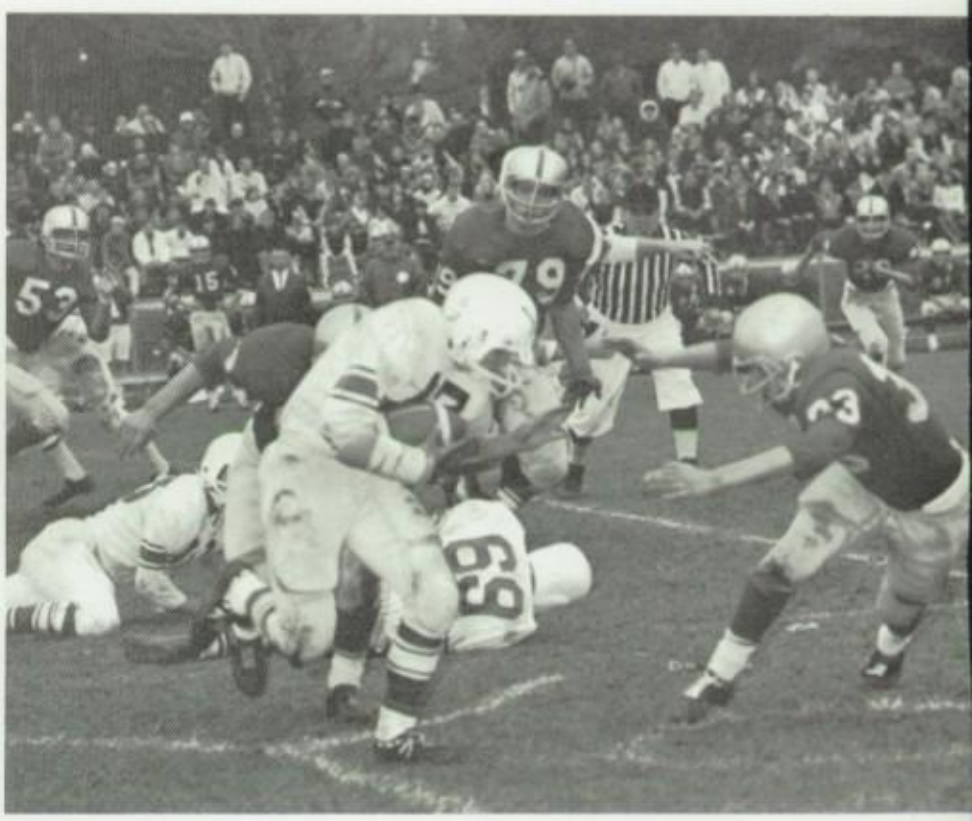
I loafe and invite my soul.
—Walt Whitman

"The time has come," the Walrus said, "To talk of many things."

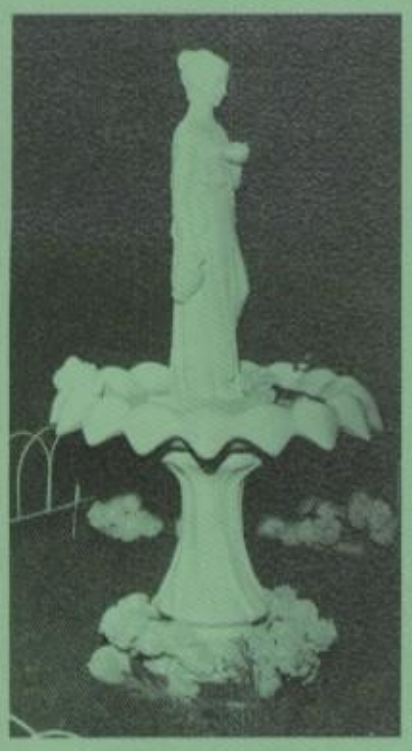
—Lewis Carroll

A broken rope killed the confidence of the senior girls who were all set for a sure victory over the senior boys in the Tug-of-War.

Cheerleader Lois Hanson—her face animated with the excitement of Homecoming.



The game went on under the surveillance of a few while many talked to friends and returning alumni.



Bye, Bye, Birdie!

Homecoming—a time of parades, school spirit, and beautiful queens. "Bye, Bye Birdie" began on Friday, October 8, with the pep rally and the announcements of the kings and queens. Even the weather couldn't dampen spirits as the parade wound its way through town, starting Saturday's festivities. The scene then shifted to the football field as both the Varsity and Frosh-Soph teams trounced Arlington's Cardinals. Half-time performances by the marching band and the Pom Pon girls provided an entertaining entr'acte. Then there were a few hours of rest before the final act. "Night Flight," the Homecoming dance, came to a climax with the coronation of the kings and queens. After months of planning, everything was over in two days—but Homecoming '65 was a weekend to remember.

Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream proved to be an interesting change from the traditional. The play, the last of the 1964-65 school year, was staged in York's main courtyard. The shrubbery and trees saved the props crew a lot of work as the natural spring atmosphere of the court set the perfect mood for the outdoor scenes of the play. Thieve's Carnival, by Jean Anouilh, started this year's drama season back in the auditorium. The many hours of hard work put into the dramatic face of York were well worth the trouble. The sparkle and excitement of the fine plays presented at York were memorable for both the cast and the audience.

Miche Holder and Marilyn Allen in a scene from A Midsummer Night's Dream: "When in that moment, so it came to pass, Titania waked, and straightway loved an ass."

Sparkling Success Achieved in Productions

Lisa Kiser, Jeff Licht, Sara Lewis, and Bob Nathan: "Here will we sit and let the sounds of music creep in our ear."

Larry Johnson asks Connie Christensen and Kit Ward, "Perhaps I could tempt you ladies with a strawberry soda?"

Carol Twedt tells Ken Casazza, "I don't care if you are a thief."

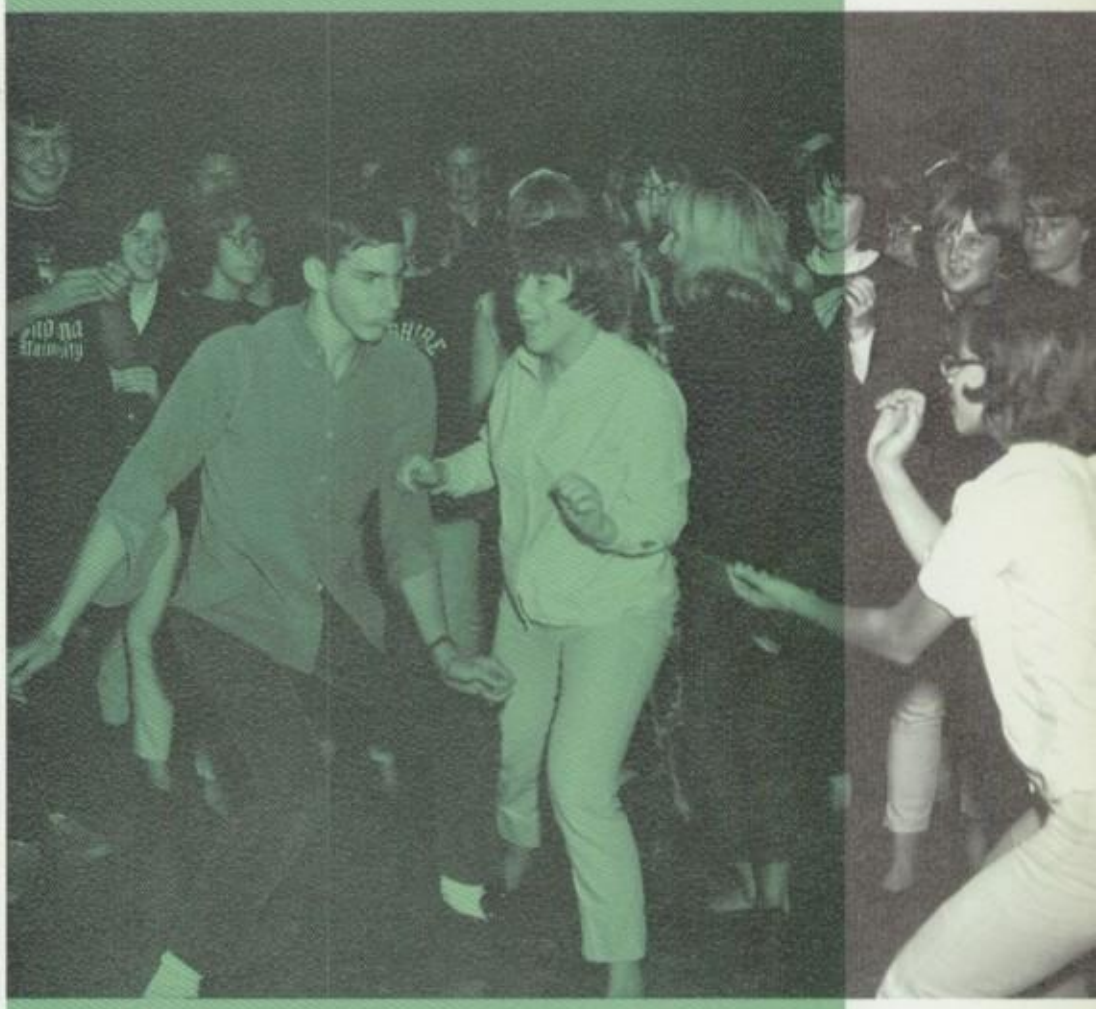
Ann Heroux tries to cheer up John Giantakos, who is "all crumpled up with sorrow."

The sparkle and glitter of a wintry scene set the mood for "Silver Bells."

Dance, dance, dance—whether it is at one of the annual semi-formal dances or a sock-hop, there is always a time and a place to have a good time. In these days of nonstop pop music, the Girls' Club semi-formal, "Silver Bells," was a welcome sentimental interlude. Senior girls may have started a new tradition by wearing formals to the girl-ask-boy dance. The romantic mood of "Silver Bells" was quite a switch from the lively atmosphere prevailing at the many sock-hops and post-game mixers.

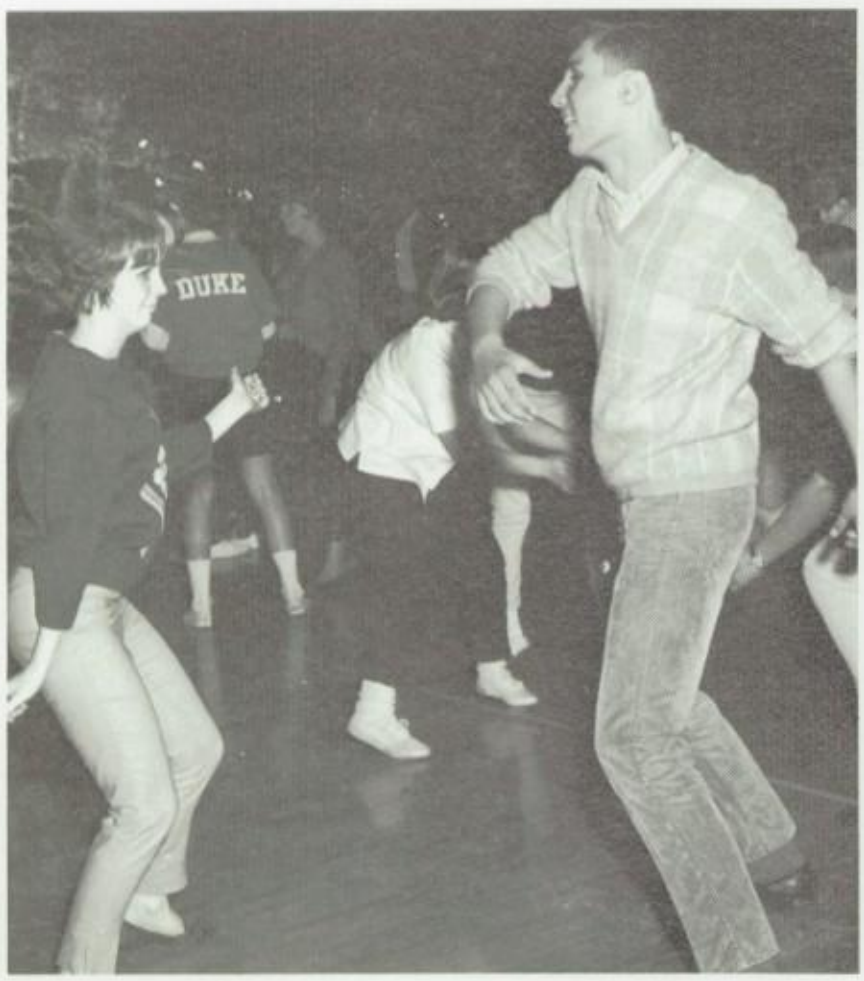
Vitality—one of the ingredients of a good time—is expressed in their faces.

Sock-Hops and Dances Provide Relief from Pressures of School



Kind of a change from "Silver Bells!"

Hair sometimes gets a little mussed while dancing, but as long as he doesn't mind . . .



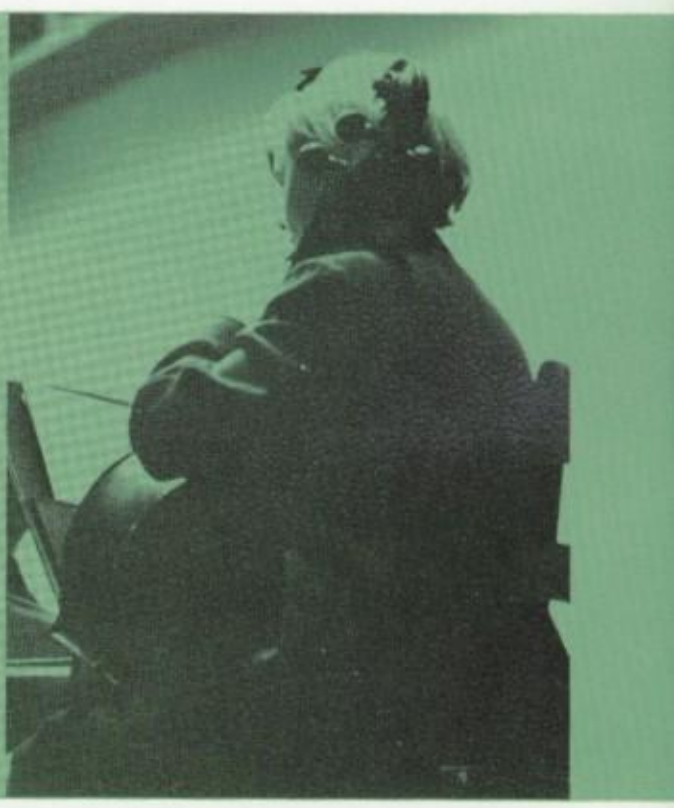
Dancers perform for "the Group."

Silence—and then the band begins to play.

Traditional Concert

Preludes Christmas

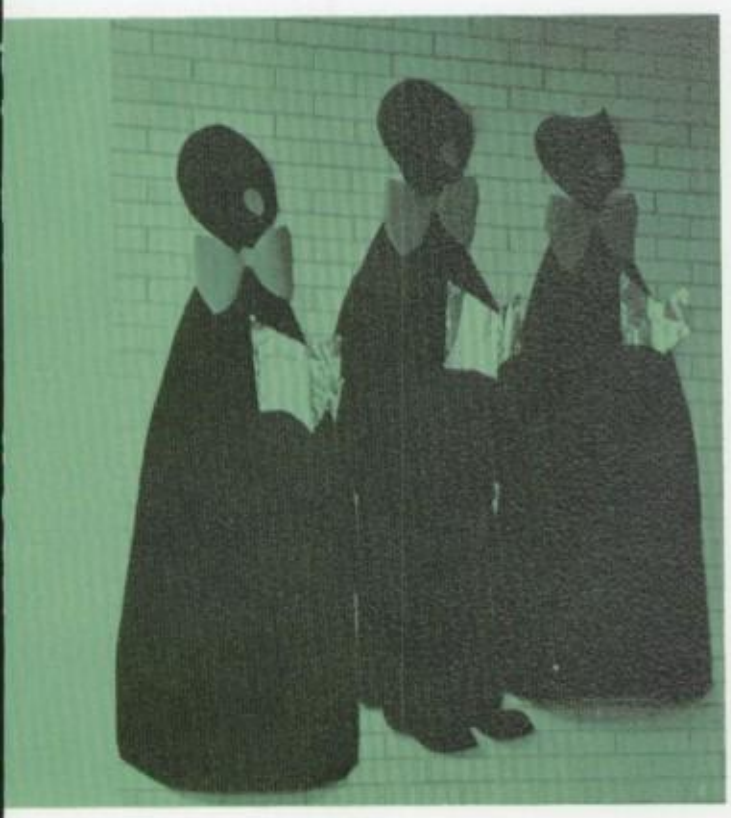
Senior Choir harbingers Christmas with its carols from many lands.



Deep in concentration, cellist captures mood expressed by the music.

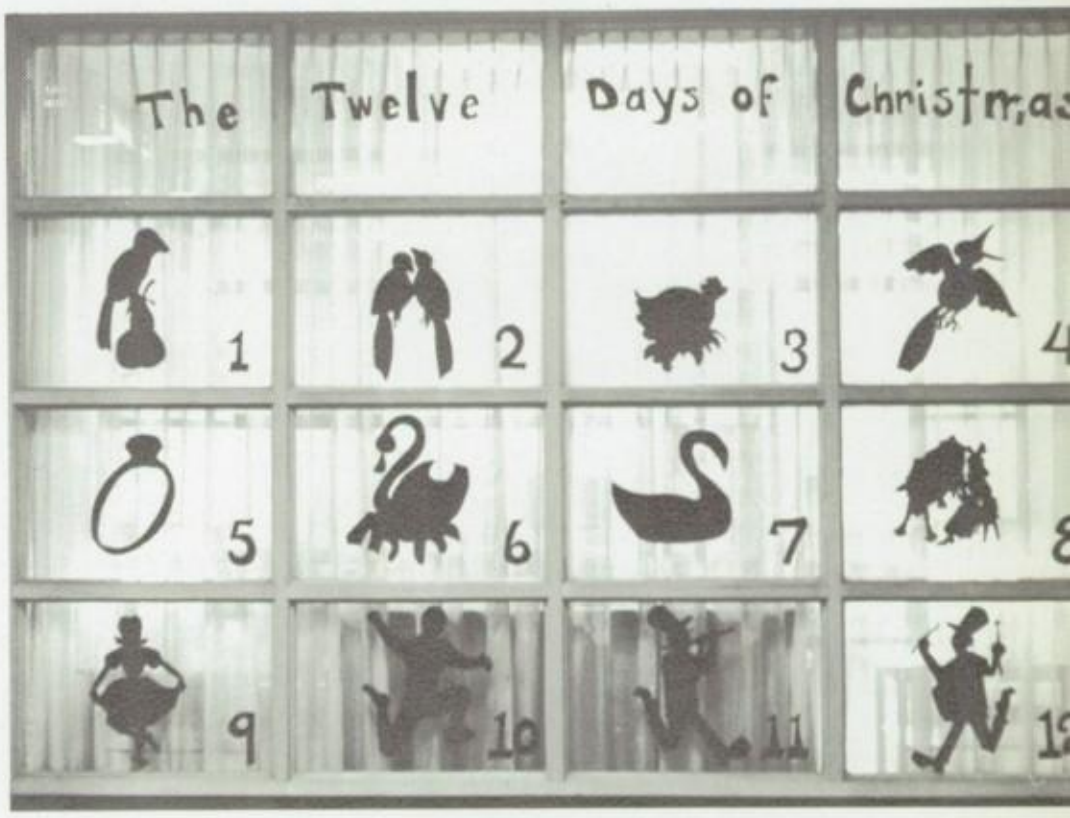
Although the weather didn't contribute much to the Christmas spirit, the annual Christmas concert succeeded in getting Yorkites in the mood. Missing this year was Senior Choir's traditional processional to "Adeste Fideles" but that's what happened when the auditorium became so crowded that students had to sit in the orchestra pit. Just listening to the season's music made everyone leave the assembly feeling more as if Christmas were really coming. The hall decorations put up by each class helped in creating a Christmas-y atmosphere, even though it was destroyed by merely looking outside and seeing no snow. All of a sudden Christmas vacation came and went, as students returned to face semester exams. And it seemed like just yesterday when school was starting . . .

"Oh, Christmas tree; oh, Christmas tree . . ."



"Joy to the world . . ."

"On the first day of Christmas, my true love gave to me . . ."

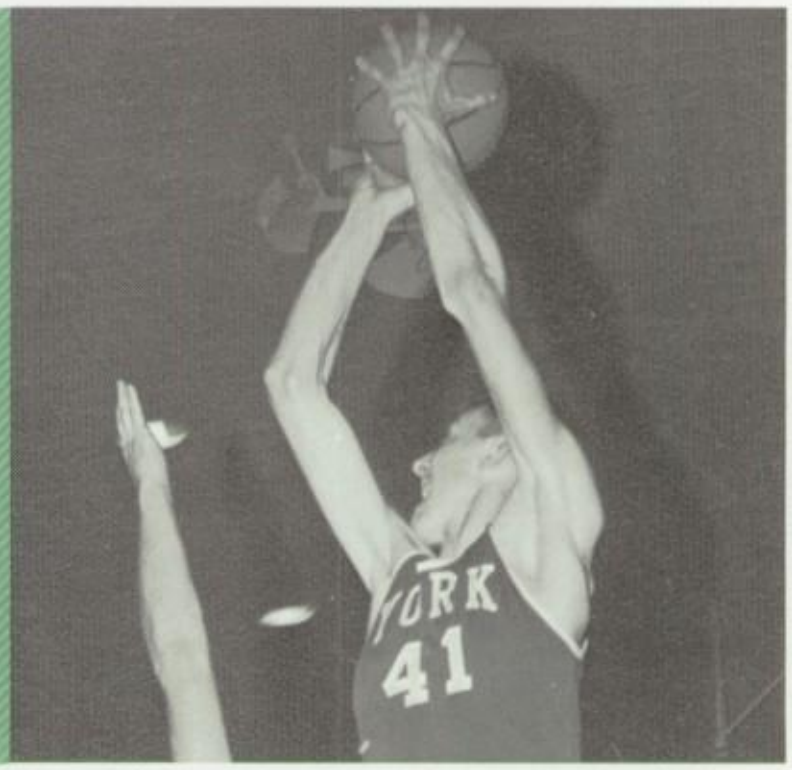


1965 Dukes exhibit state championship trophy won at Urbana with a record performance. Kneeling: Walt Koenig, John Schafer. Standing: Coach Joe Newton, John Gisburne, Bruce Coleman, Rich Johnston, Don DeMent, Jim Hammond, Roger Connelly.

Bruce Coleman, Don DeMent, and John Schafer display typical York domination in cross-country as the Dukes swept to an undefeated record.

What a year for sports! For the second time in four years the cross-country team brought the State Championship home to York. Returning from Champaign-Urbana, the team was greeted by a cheering mob of Yorkites. Taking First in cross-country wasn't enough to satisfy the Dukes.

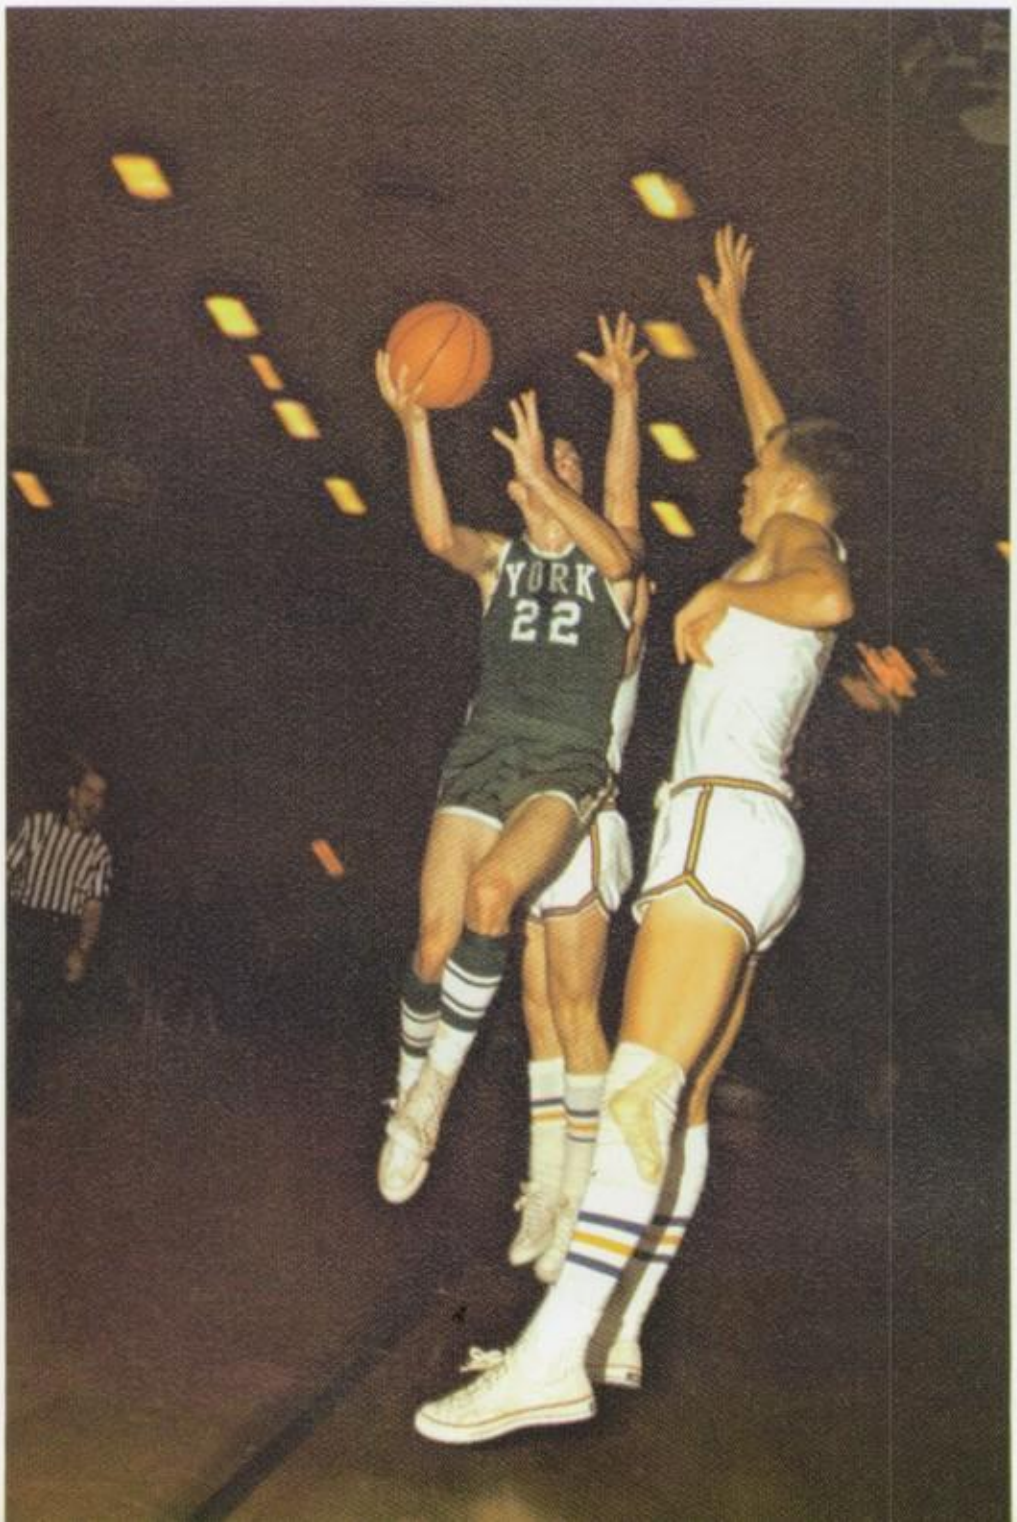
Next came the basketball season . . . Chants of "We're Number 1" resounded through the gym as the Dukes stormed to 24 straight victories and the Conference and DeKalb Tourney Championship. School spirit ran high as thousands of fans packed the gym to see the '66 Dukes, best in York history.



Larry Saunders, leading scorer and rebounder, sparked the Dukes' explosive offense.

"Nobody Beats the Dukes!"

Guard Ned Reese directed the York attack to victory after victory.



Hopes, fears and anticipation of the final verdict are reflected in faces of freshman class officer candidates.

Citizenship Awards, Class Officers Denote Leadership

Who could ever forget their Freshman class election, their first political endeavor at York! Some of the candidates were confident, but most were nervous. Reflected in their faces was the sincerity that is sometimes lacking in the upperclassman elections. Many freshmen worked hard campaigning for their candidates, while others were content to sit back and observe the spectacle. Before they knew it, everything was over, and the "Chosen Four" took their places of honor at the head of the class. Other people honored during the year were the "Elite Eight"—the Citizenship Award winners. Chosen on the basis of scholarship, character, and participation in school and community activities and announced in the spring, here are eight of the nicest people at York.

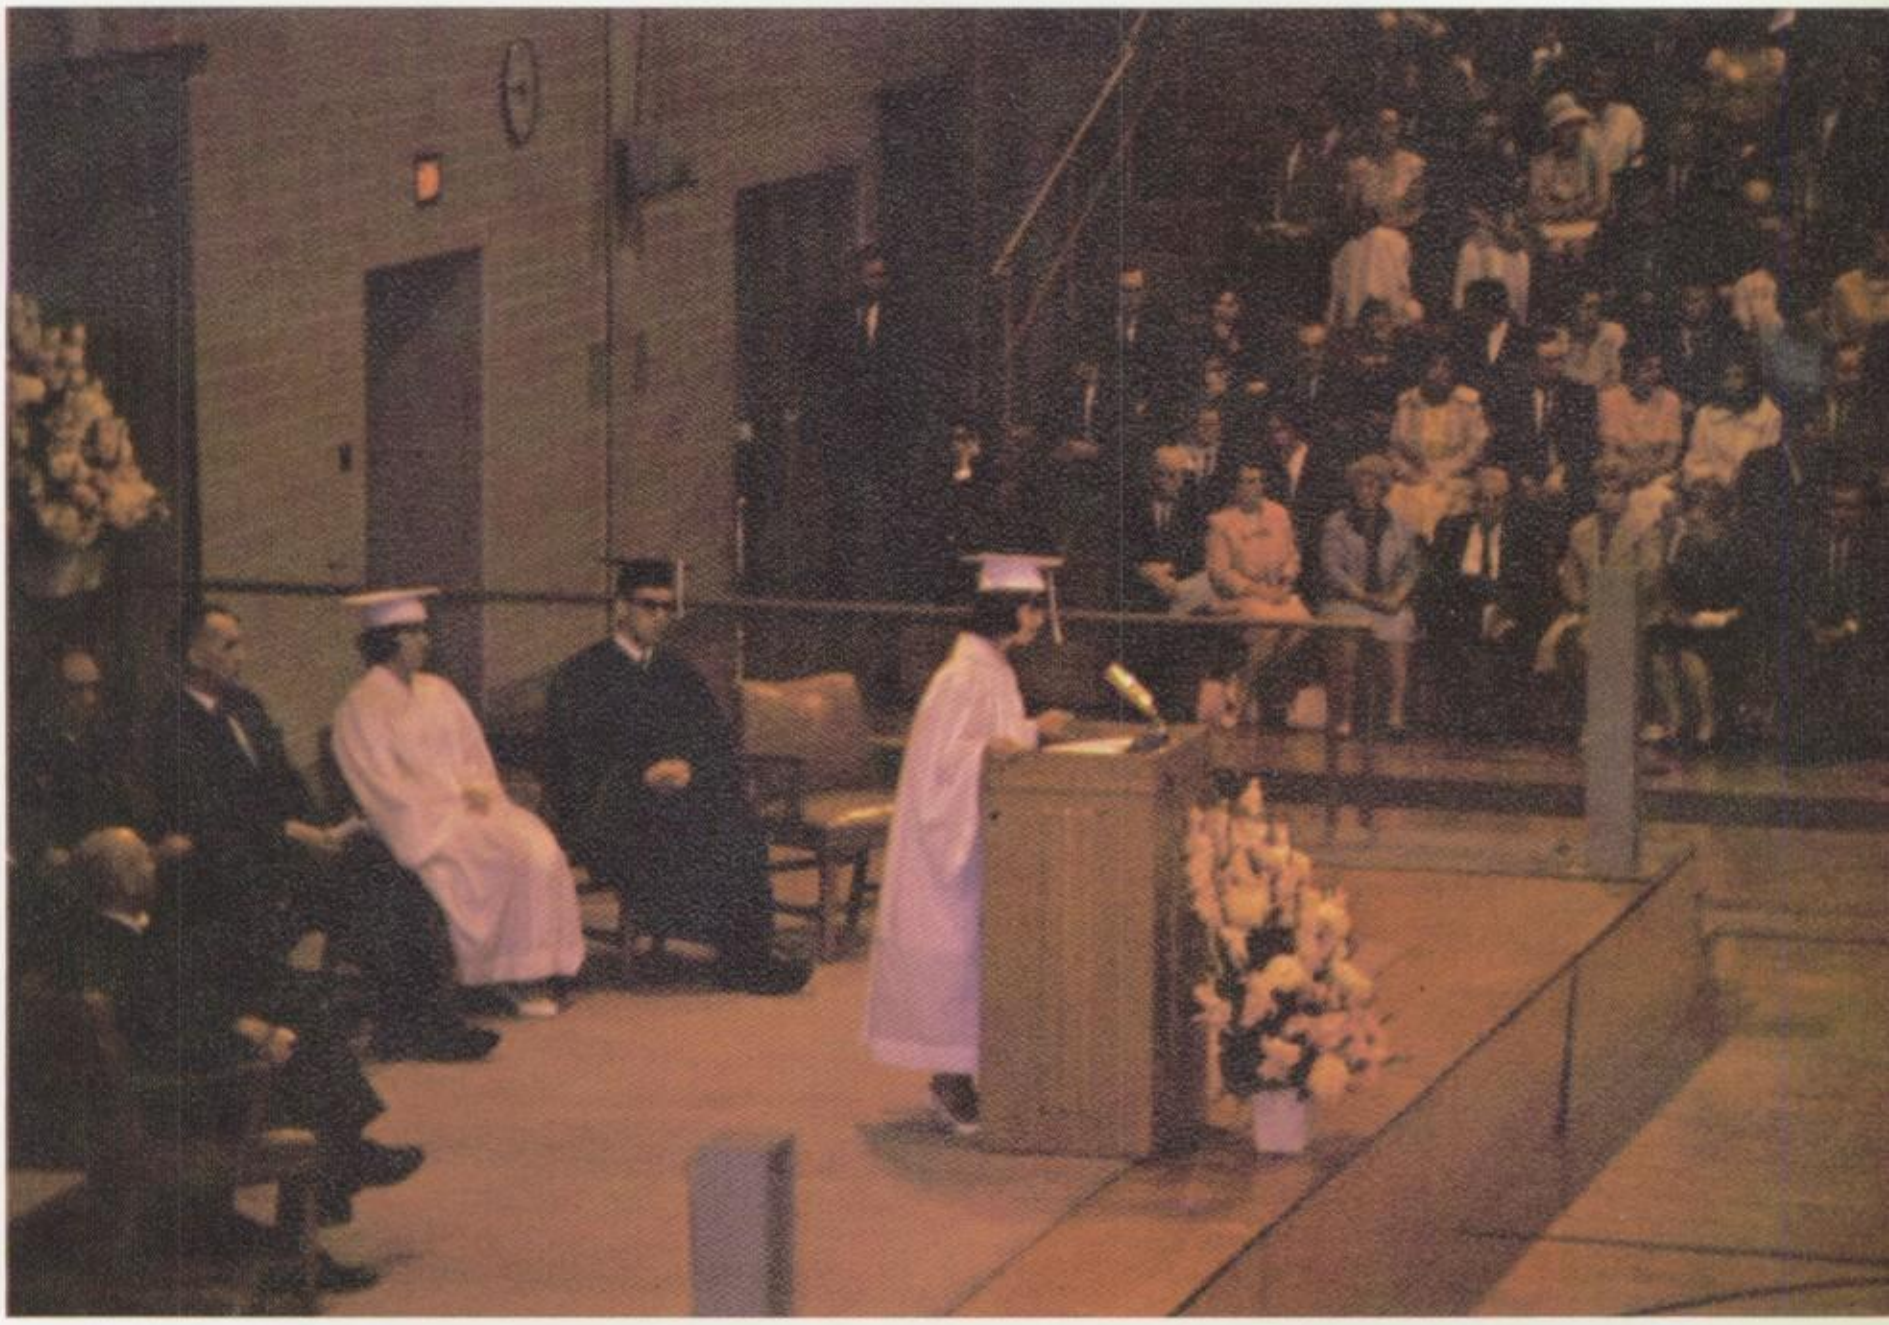
Prom and Graduation End Year on Wistful Note

The night of nights comes to a climax as couples line up for the Grand March.

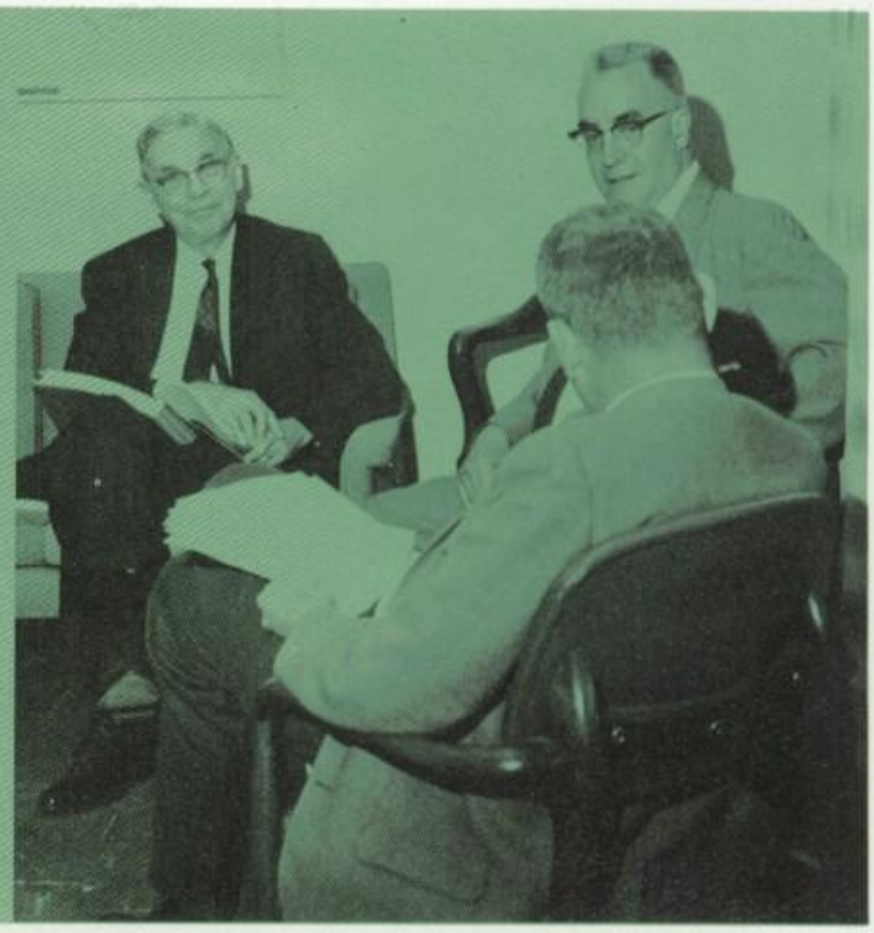


Graduation speakers give good advice to their fellow students, soon to be alumni.

Soon to hear the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," seniors prepare for their swan song at York.

It's Spring! The Prom comes at last, followed closely by graduation. For the ex-seniors, their years at York are suddenly long ago and far away as they are faced with preparing for a new life. Many are happy, thinking of the new experiences lying ahead for them; others are sad at the thought of leaving old friends and frightened at the prospect of starting all over again. Mixed feelings prevail—they are torn between the thrill of finally graduating and the fear of losing the security they have built up in their four years here. Oh, well . . . at least there are always memories.

Few students realize how lucky they are to be attending as fine a high school as York. Academically, it ranks among the best in the country, attracting the attention of such noteworthy educators as Dr. James Conant of Harvard. Excellent teachers and modern courses give Yorkites advantages that students of other schools sometimes miss. For York is not merely a building; it is a place of learning, and all who really seek knowledge can be helped in attaining this goal. While some complain of the boredom, many others perceive the vitality that is present for all who wish to find it. If someone escapes from York without ever once becoming excited about something he has studied, he is in a sad state. From the piquancy of Hamlet to the thrill of discovery in a chemistry experiment, there is something at York for every student who cares enough to go half-way to meet it.



Dr. James B. Conant, (left) well known educator and author of such books as American High School Today, and The Education of American Teachers spent a day at York last year conferring with administrators, counselors and department chairmen. Here, Mr. Robert Leader (right) head of the English Department, visits with him. One of Dr. Conant's real interests during this visit was to see to what extent students with academic talent were pursuing courses of study that challenge their talents. He was also interested in seeing what kind of programs have been developed for the general student—the one who is neither college material nor vocationally oriented.

Dr. Conant introduces Mr. Paul Hartwig (left), department chairman of York's Industrial Arts and Mr. Nathaniel Ober, (right) principal of the high school in Clayton, Missouri. Mr. Ober accompanied Dr. Conant on this return trip to York. Seven years ago, Dr. Conant spent some time here, studying York in detail.

ΣΩΗΣΚΜΩΔΩΣ

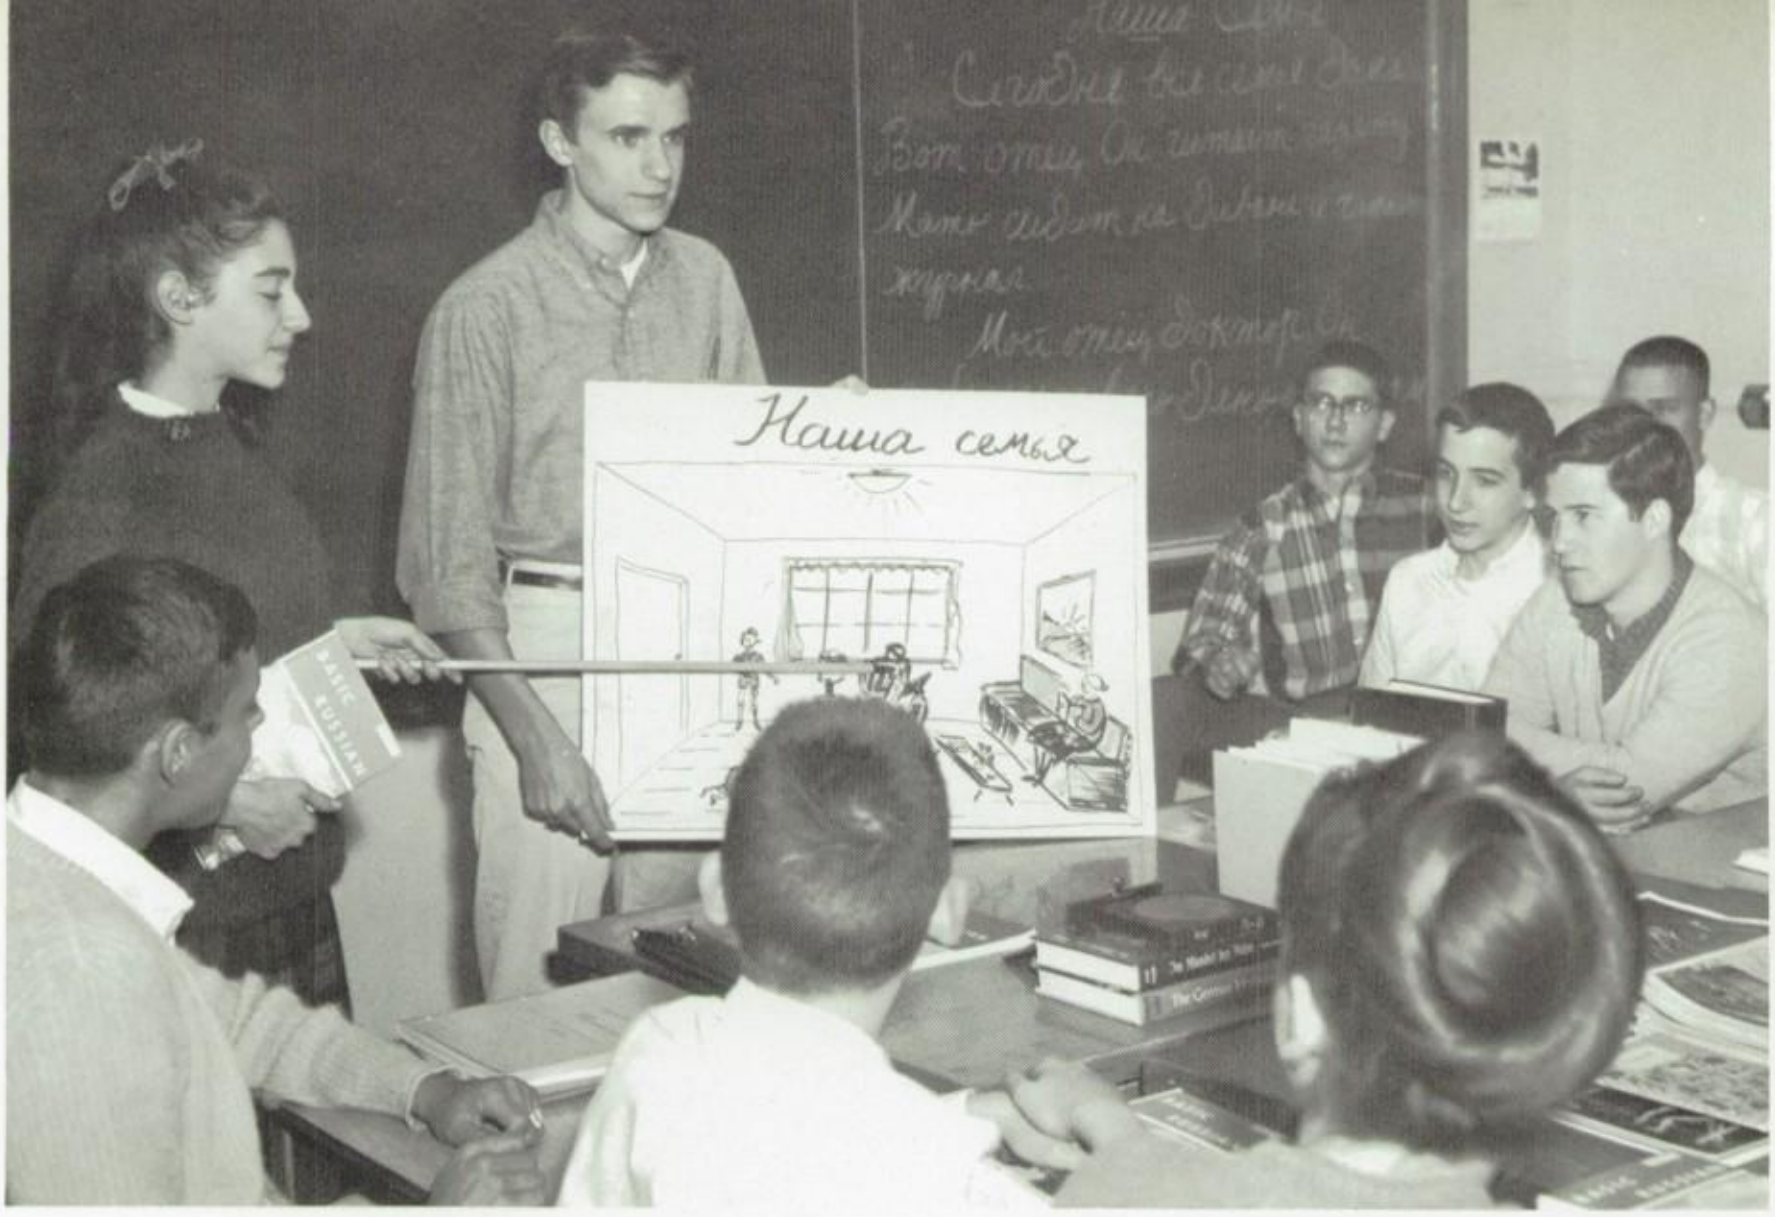
Participant in Latin seminar displays a new resource book.

New at York this year, Russian was the fifth foreign language offered to students. The two classes of students who studied Russian were enthusiastic because of the uniqueness of the language—especially its written form. Taught much the same as the other languages—French, Spanish, Latin, and German, the phases of learning stressed were reading, writing, speaking, and oral comprehension. To obtain a solid foundation in the Russian language, the student must master the alphabet, correct pronunciation, and fundamental grammar.

Languages comprise an important phase in the academic lives of many Yorkites. The department, headed by Miss Margaret Ryan, and staffed by 14 instructors, strives to encourage mastering a second or third language. As a result, an increased ability to communicate, an understanding of different customs, and a comprehension of world situations are acquired. These pupils augment their knowledge through the use of such aids as tapes, films, slides, and individual lab works.

Russian New Challenge to Aspiring Linguists

In preparation for Peter D. Arnott's presentation of Cyclops, students of Mrs. Larson's Latin seminar discuss various aspects of the art of ancient Greece.



Linguists are describing in Russian a picture called "Our Family." Class members constantly summarize what they have learned orally, adding newly learned vocabulary and structure after each lesson.

A student is showing a part of a Ukrainian national costume and explaining the intricate handwoven pattern to the Russian class.

Each year a Book of the Year that will appeal to everyone at York is chosen by a committee of English teachers. Students are encouraged to discuss the selection and share opinions in programs held in the library.

Mr. Stringfellow's Honors English class presents ideas from Profiles in Courage in a panel discussion.

Students arrive to see October Movie of the Month, The Bridge. This activity has been sponsored by the English Department for two consecutive years.

Add New Semester Courses to English Program

Basic speech, debate, and drama and oral interpretation will be offered as new one semester courses by the English Department next year. These will provide students with a chance for more extensive study in these specific areas. Other offerings that comprise the English curriculum are English literature, business English, contemporary problems English, modern world literature, journalism, stagecraft, two-semester speech, and English 9,10,11, and 12. All these are designed to increase the student's skill in his usage of the English language, to create a sound and appreciative knowledge of literature, and to augment the student's ability to communicate with others.

This department, headed by Mr. Robert M. Leader, also offers an opportunity for further enrichment in literature with the Movie of the Month and Book of the Year projects.

Man's Progress Advances on Wheels of Science

BSCS biology students examine a cat skeleton in Miss Henrikson's class.

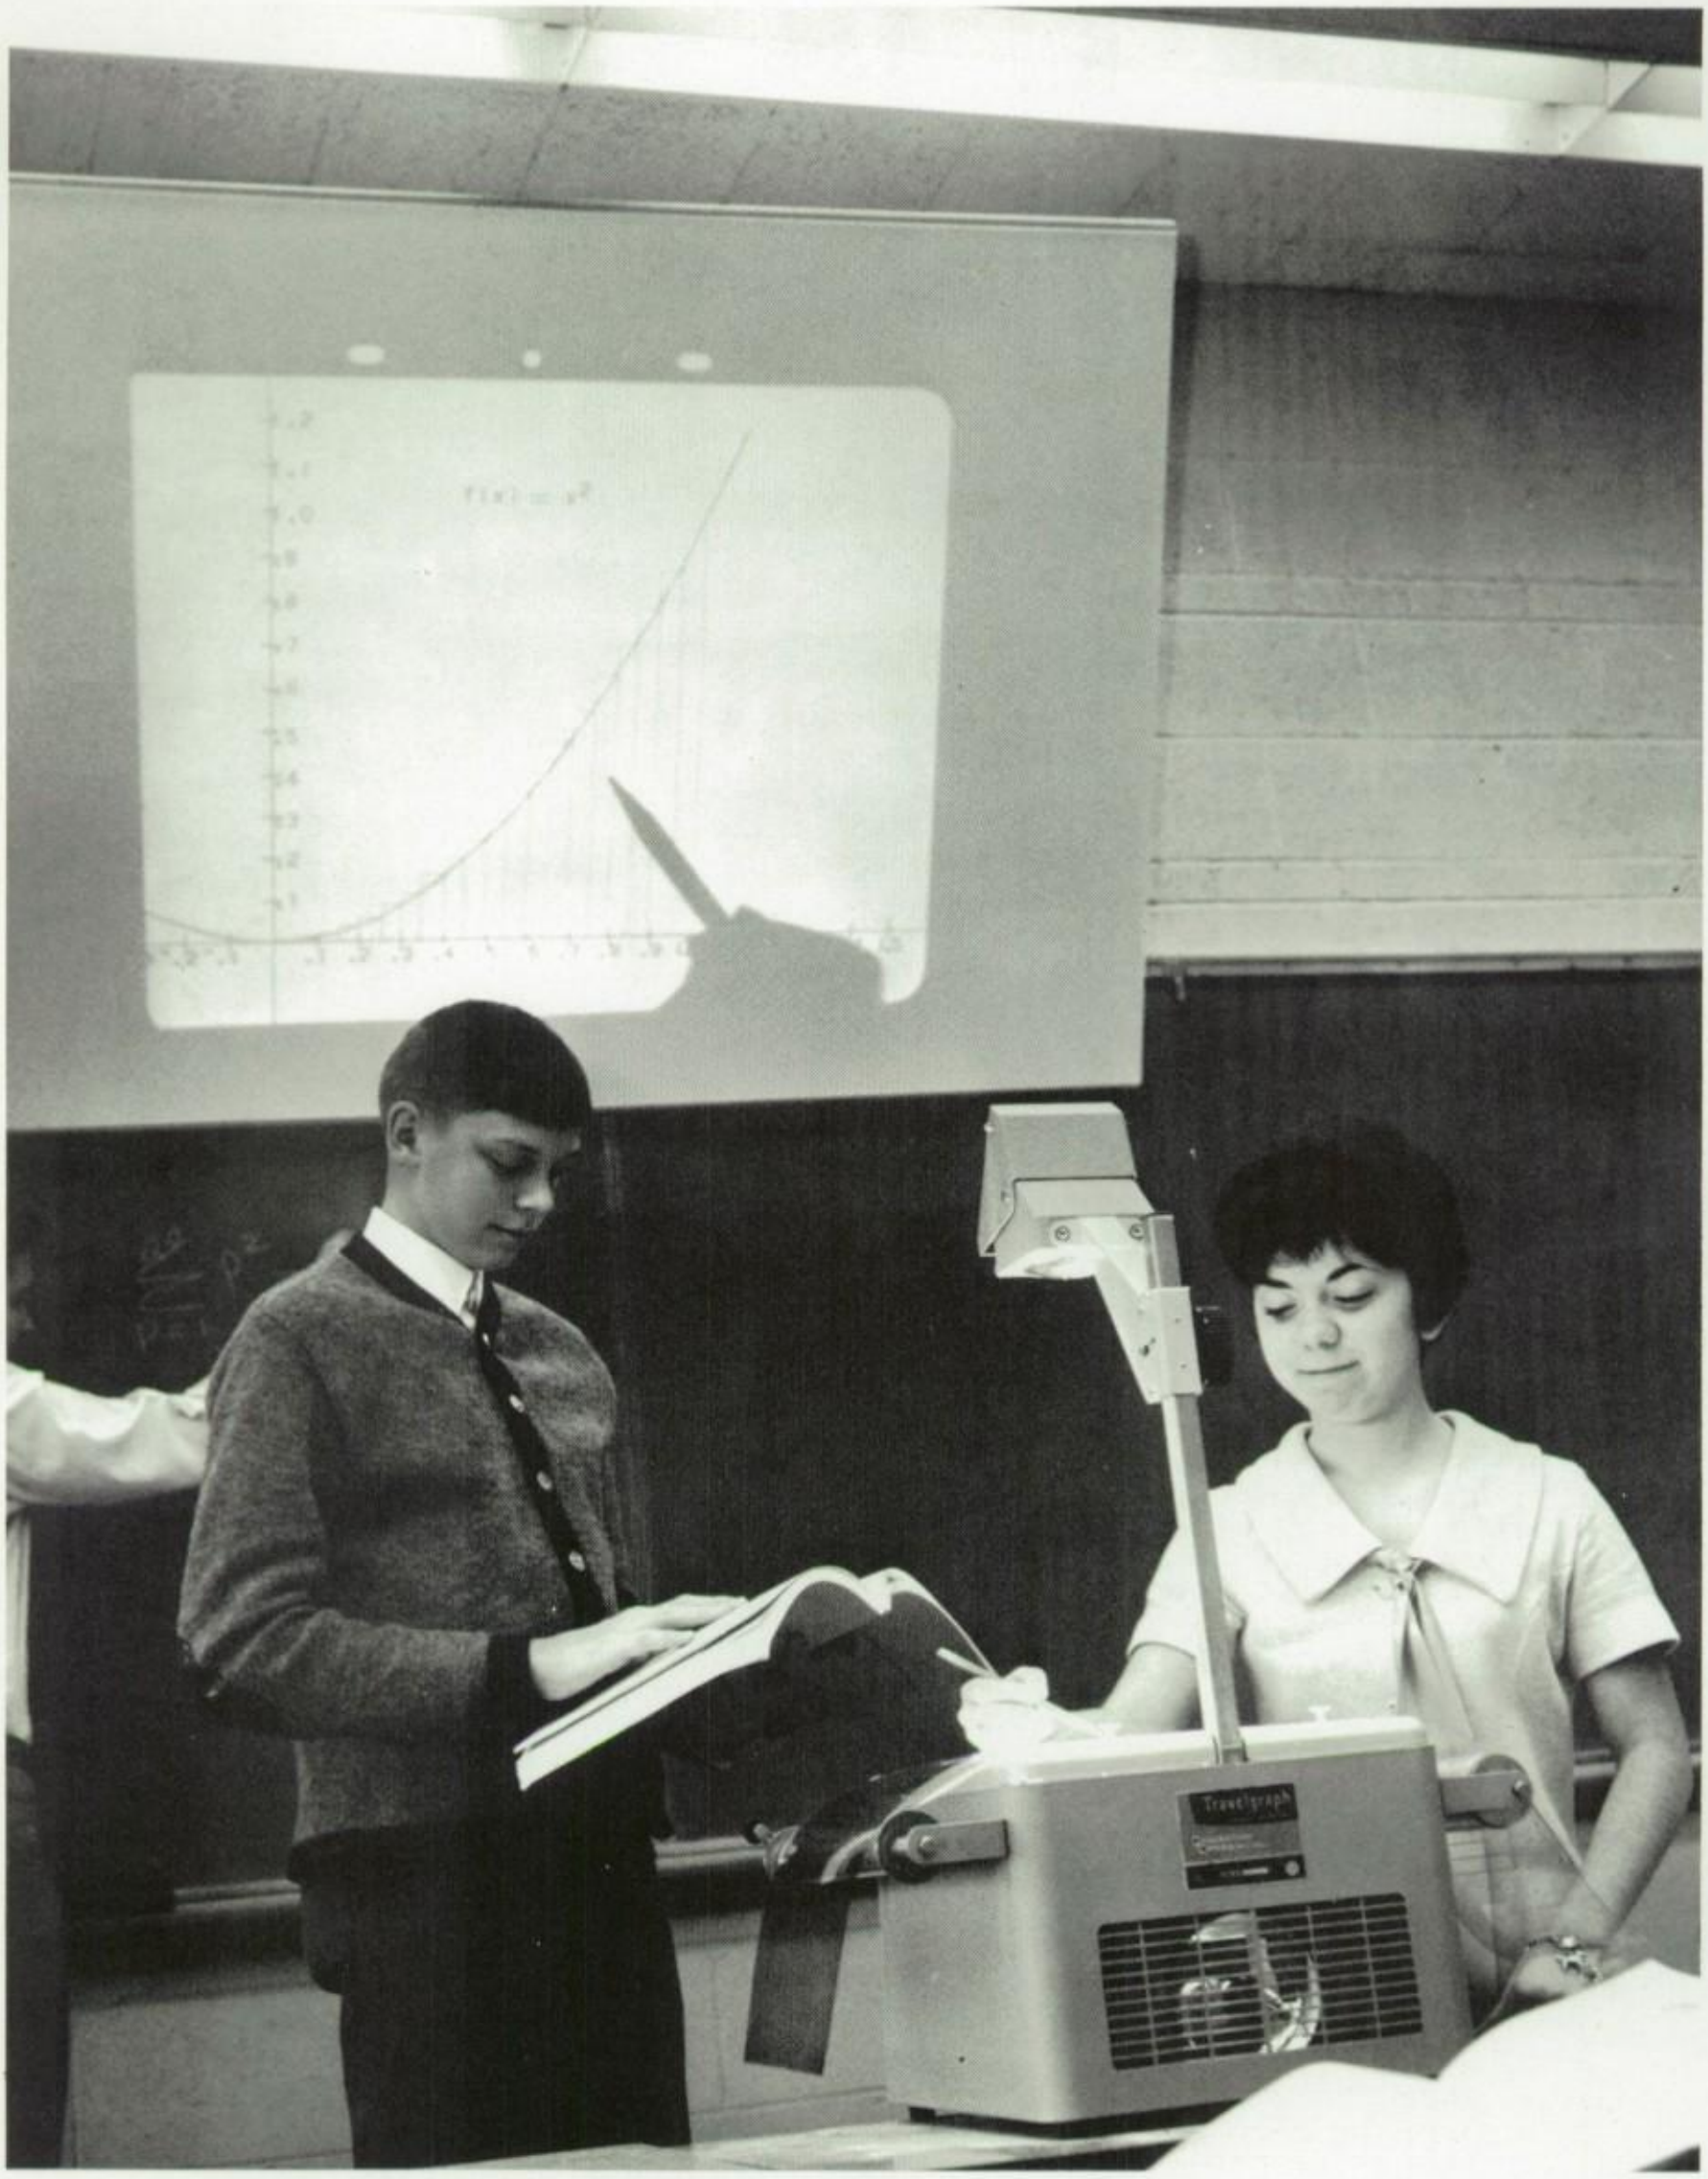
It has been said that Man's progress moves forward on the wheels of science. The Science Department offers to all who are interested and willing to learn the chance to discover some of the secrets of nature. This opportunity allows students to gain the knowledge necessary in the largely scientific world of today to move forward with progress. Well-stocked labs along with good leadership give the student the opportunity to improve his education in the scientific fields. General and physical science, biology, chemistry and physics are the branches in which courses are offered. Mr. Elmer Kunze is the head of this department.

Mr. Kunze's physics students observe an instrument which determines the ratio of charge to mass for an electron.

Physics student observes chemical reaction in rotary crystallizer.

Biology students in Miss Henrikson's class determine amount of carbon dioxide exhaled in one minute through the phenolphthalein test.

Biology student studies model showing one stage of cell division.



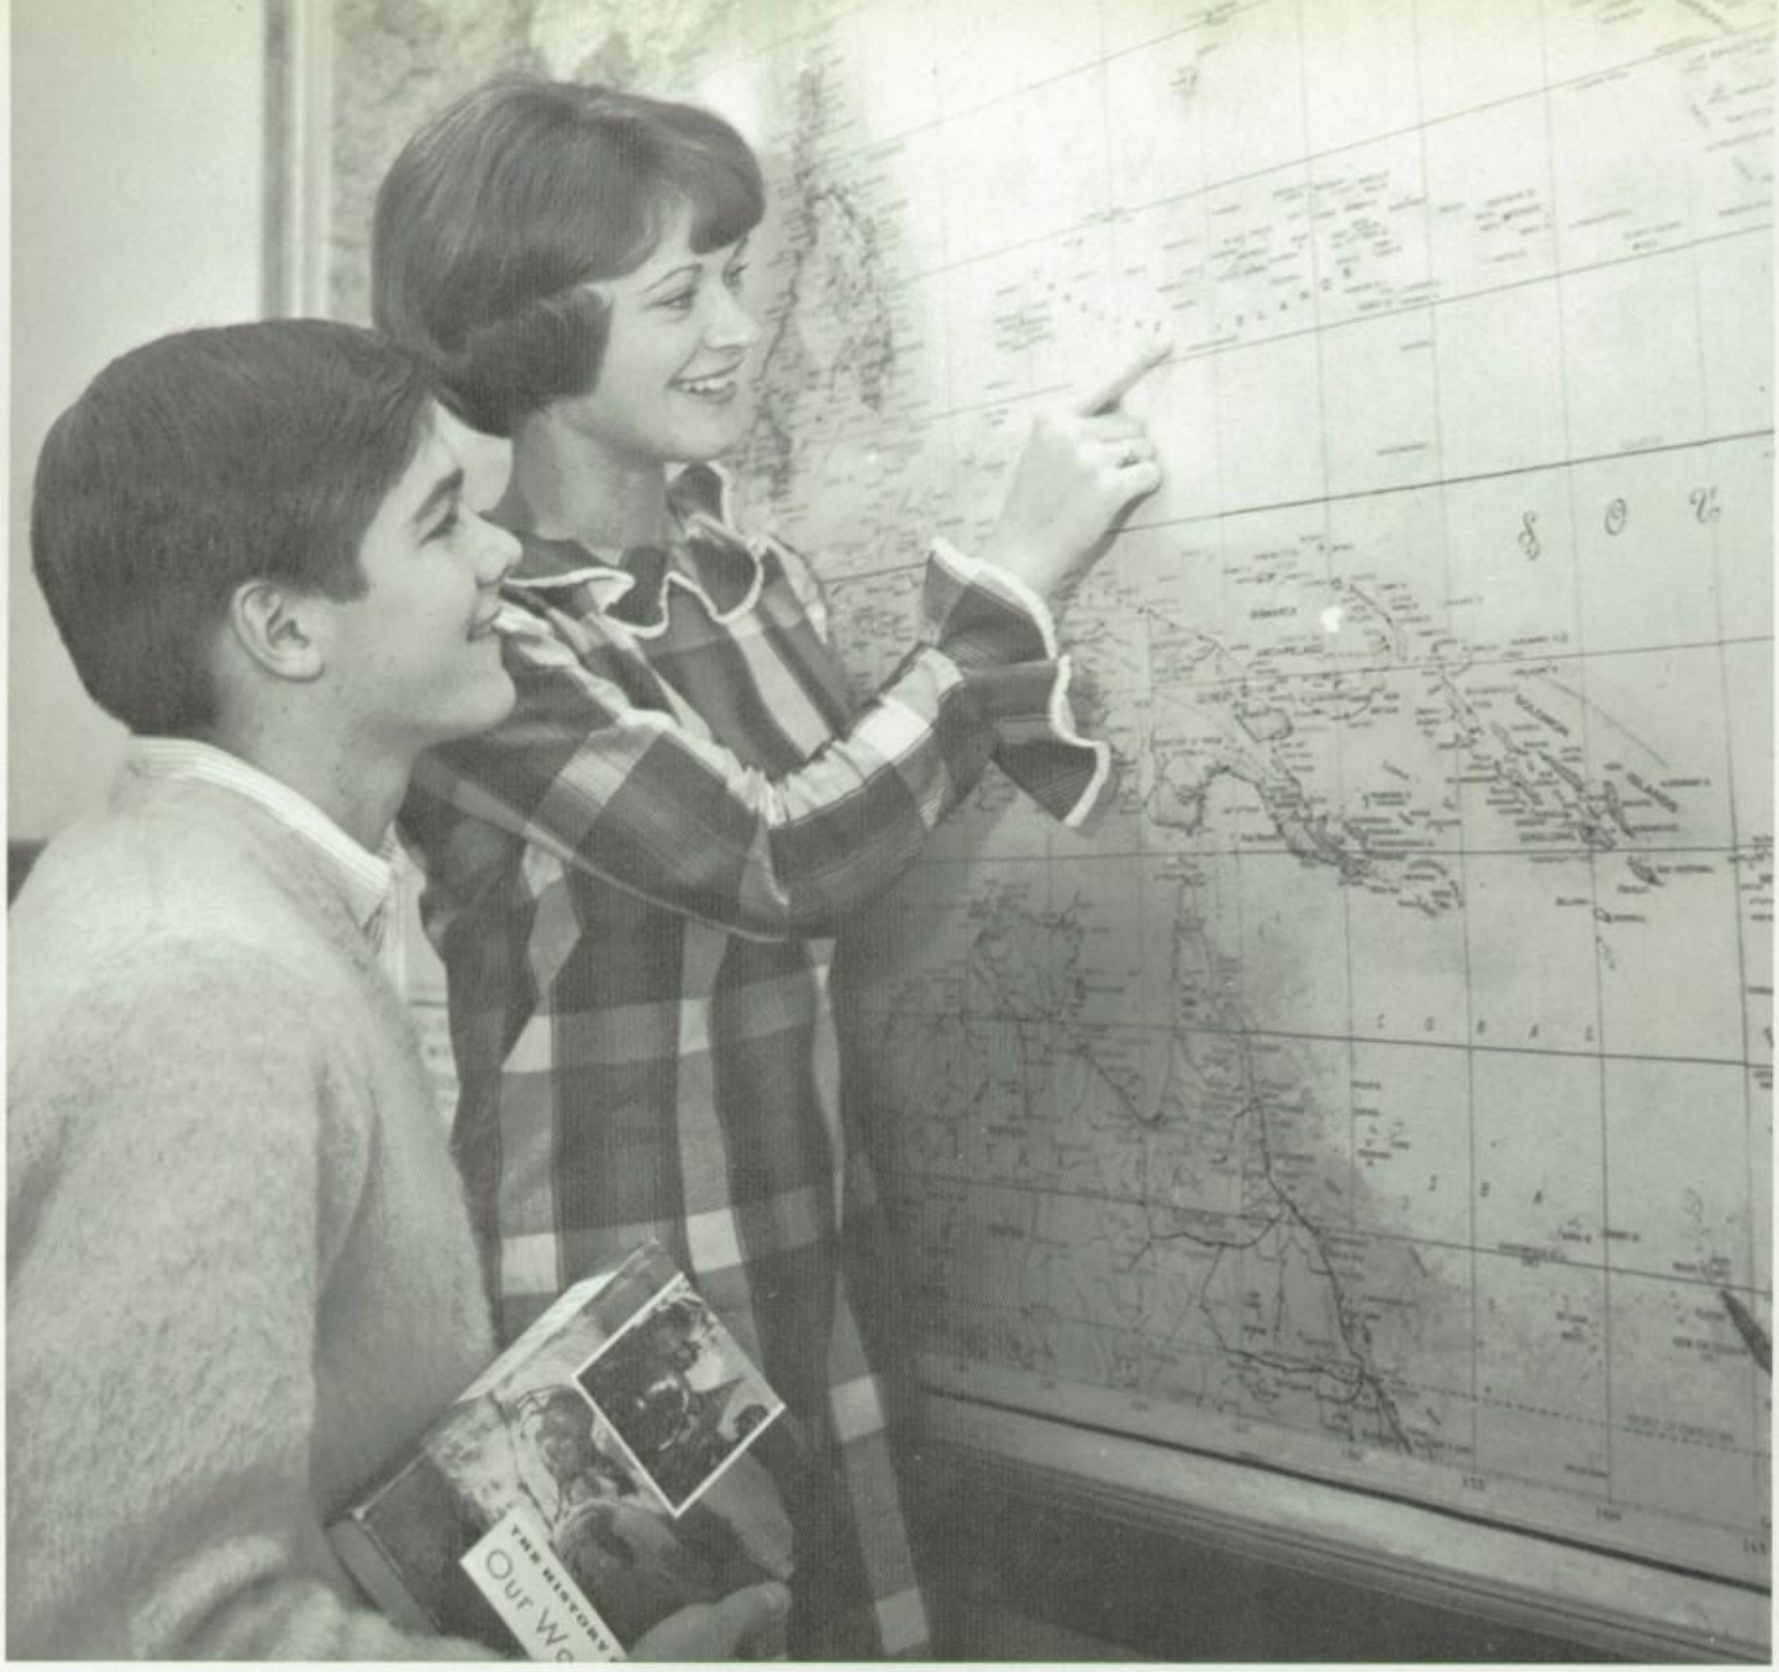
Students in Miss Flake's sophomore math class use transparencies to point out the graph of a parabola.

Transparencies Define Mathematical Problem

The use of experiments with transparencies and plates on overhead projectors, introduced in math 12 classes last year, has been greatly expanded for this year. During the past summer, Miss Janice Flake selected from geometry 10 U.I.C.S.M. textbook situations where visual materials would be of aid to students. She made plates and transparencies where needed, and through the cooperation of the Visual Aids Department, copies of these were made.

Another experiment planned by the Mathematics Department is a five year program for the advanced-placement students. This program, when in effect, would encompass material usually studied by sophomores in college. There is a proposed plan to experiment with a one semester computer-programming course for next year. Chairman of this department is Mr. Thomas Nelson.

Math Contest Winners: Cindy Fordyce, Richard Gloff, Ed Lorimer, Pat Parks, Bob Meixner, and Charles Seagren.



Two students in Mr. A. V. Bakkers' World History class point out areas under discussion.

Social Studies Emphasizes Progress of Man

American History 11—Seminar will be a new course offered by the Social Studies Department next year. This course will be taught by Mr. Robert Hyde, and it may be elected to fulfill the American history requirement in the junior year. The seminar is for those students who want a more comprehensive, cultivated, and challenging perception of our American heritage.

Besides this new offering, courses in civics, geography, world history, American history, social science, and psychology will be taught as usual. The two required courses, American history 11 and social science 12, plus all of the other course offerings in this department are designed to give the student a better understanding of the development and progress of man throughout the ages. Mr. Howard Van Norman is the chairman of the Social Studies Department.

Over 1000 Classes Use Library Unit Service

Miss Myrtle Ellis, librarian, comes to the aid of a student in his research with periodical material.

Teachers and librarians at York recognize and accept their separate but complementary roles in helping students discover and use the knowledge of books. Library units and research materials are available for presentation to supplement various facets of class study. Over 1,000 classes benefit from this service each year.

This busy department, headed by Miss Myrtle Ellis, operates the year round. It serves the students and faculty with reading material not only all through the regular school term but also throughout the summer session. In the summer weeks alone the library handles a circulation of about 4,350 books.

As the enrollment has increased, the library has added a copy machine, paper back collections in each reading room, and duplications of many expensive reference materials to fill the growing need for more facilities.

Newspapers in the library provide valuable information for Mrs. Yvonne Lundquist's speech students.

Gaining practical experience from working out-of-doors are several of Mrs. Schroeder's sketching students.

Art Stimulates Creativity, Encourages Talent

To expand students' knowledge while urging them to creatively express their thoughts is the goal of York's Art Department under the guidance of Mrs. Patricia Alstrin, department chairman. This is done by offering courses such as Art 9 and 10, sketching, printmaking, ceramics, survey of visual arts, painting, and commercial art. In addition to the regular classes there is an art staff offering services to drama, English, music, home economics, modern dance, York-Hi, and Y's Tales.

Clubs and organizations may obtain posters and other needs from the art staff through Mrs. Alstrin. The Art Department serves a two-fold purpose. It provides useful creations for the enjoyment and benefit of all, while giving students a chance to discover and develop their talents in the field of art.

Ceramics students in Mrs. Alstrin's class put finishing touches on their creations.

Display case crew from Mr. Messersmith's class work on commercial art layouts.

Students model their own creations in "Top Teen Revue," the Home Economics Spring Fashion Show.

Future Homemakers Gain Practical Knowledge

Home Economics students display cookies made for their annual Christmas Tea.

Participating in an annual Spring Fashion Show and Christmas Tea, students of the Home Economics Department demonstrated experience and knowledge gained through classroom and laboratory work in the areas of foods and clothing. The primary aim of a study in clothing is the construction of professional-looking garments through simplified methods, while a study in foods stresses nutrition, meal-planning, and techniques in food preparation.

Commercial Food Service is a new one-semester course offered in the Home Economics Department this year. It provides practical experience in the food service areas and acquaints students with the broad opportunities in this field.

Along with Commercial Food Service and full-year courses in foods and clothing, the department, headed by Mrs. Helen O'Neill, offered several one-semester courses primarily for juniors and seniors. These were family living, home management, cookery for the career girl, and wardrobe building.

Faculty, parents, and other friends are served in the Duchess Room at "Pennsylvania Dutch," the Christmas Tea sponsored by the Home Economics Department.

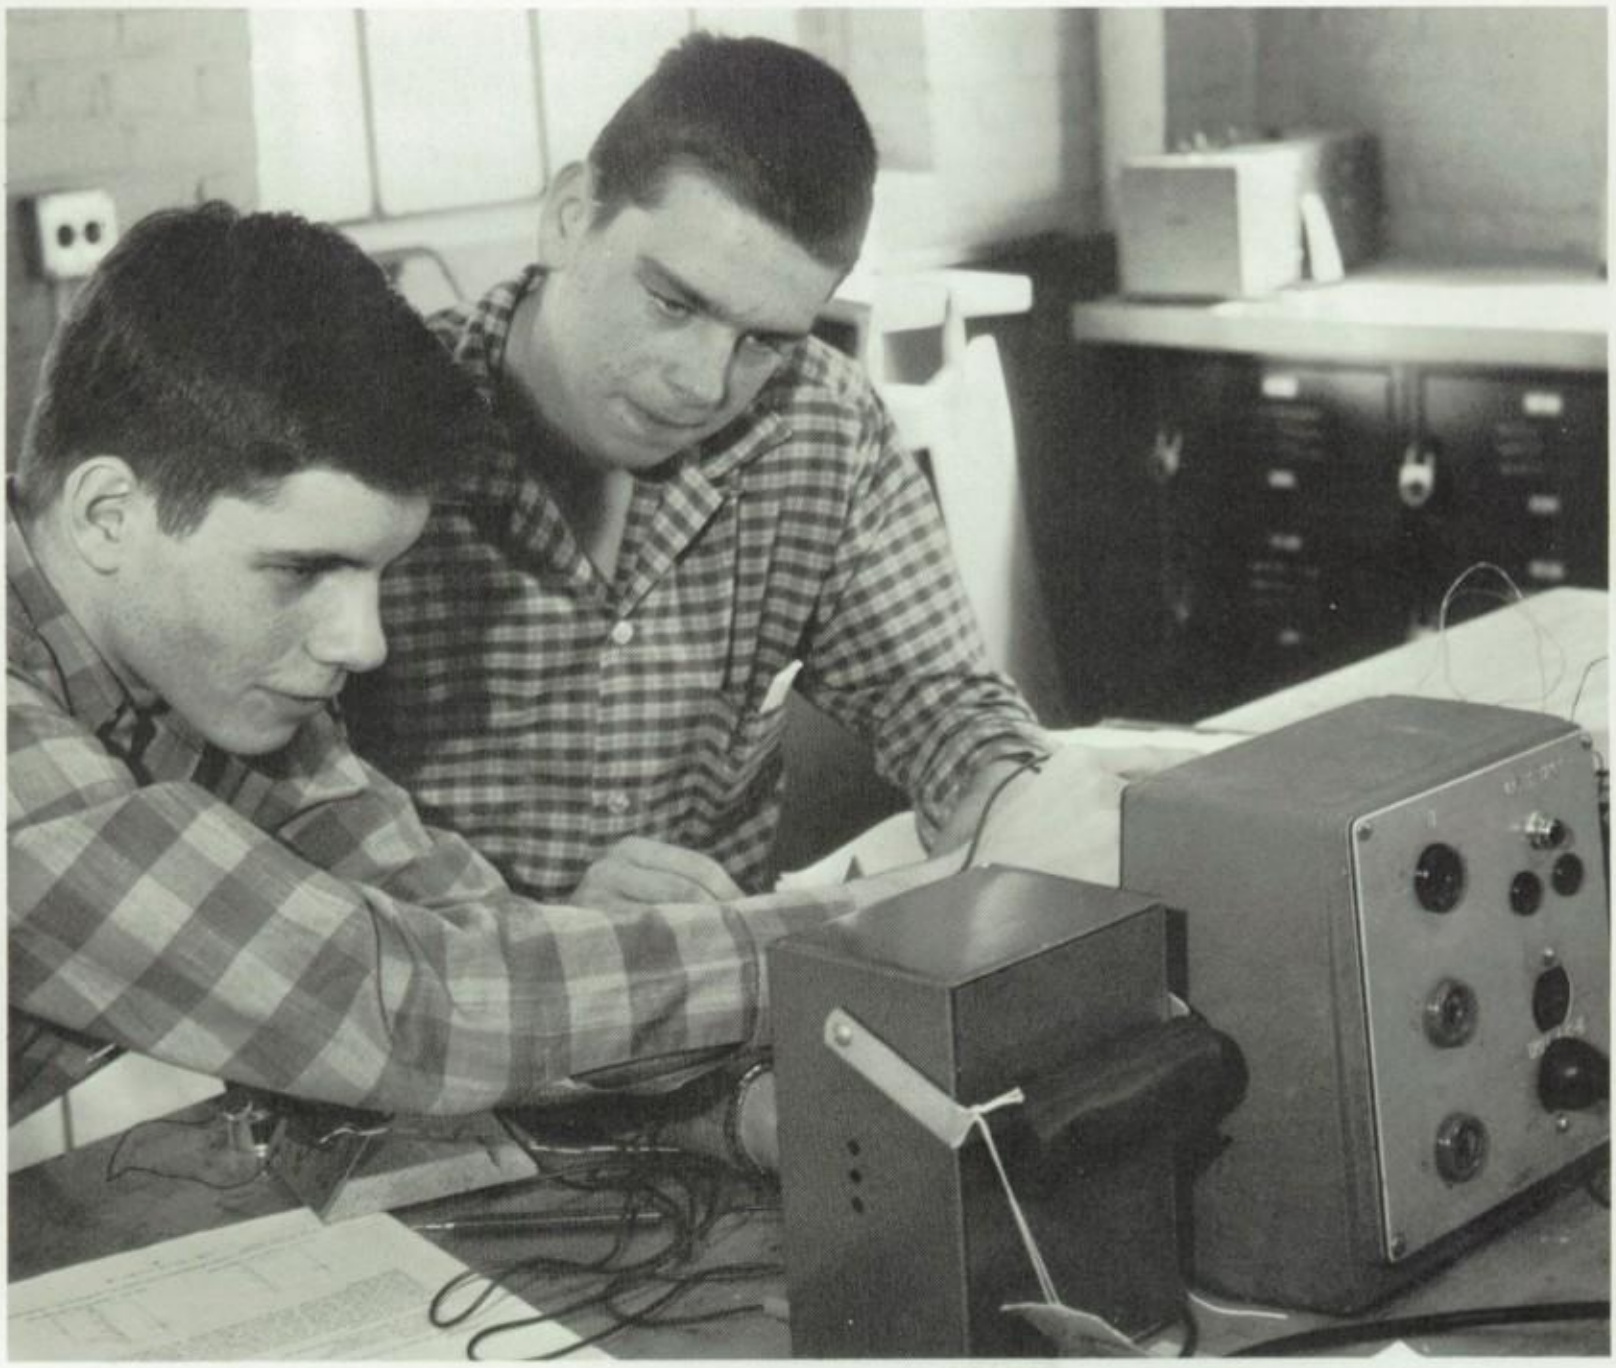
Strains of "Let Carols Ring" echo through the halls of York as the Junior Choir performs at the annual Christmas Concert.

Musically Inclined Find Range of Activities

Cornet section solos at band concert.

York's Music Department offers a wide range of activities for the musically inclined student with any degree of experience. Prime objectives of the department are to increase the technical ability of the student and to encourage an appreciation for music. In freshman chorus, girls' glee club, junior choir, senior choir, cadet band, concert band, or concert orchestra, there is a place for any student interested in music. For students especially talented in this field, a class in harmony and theory is held five times weekly to further increase their knowledge of music and how it is created. Department chairman is Mr. L. R. Reimer.

A new selection provides a stimulating challenge to the string section.

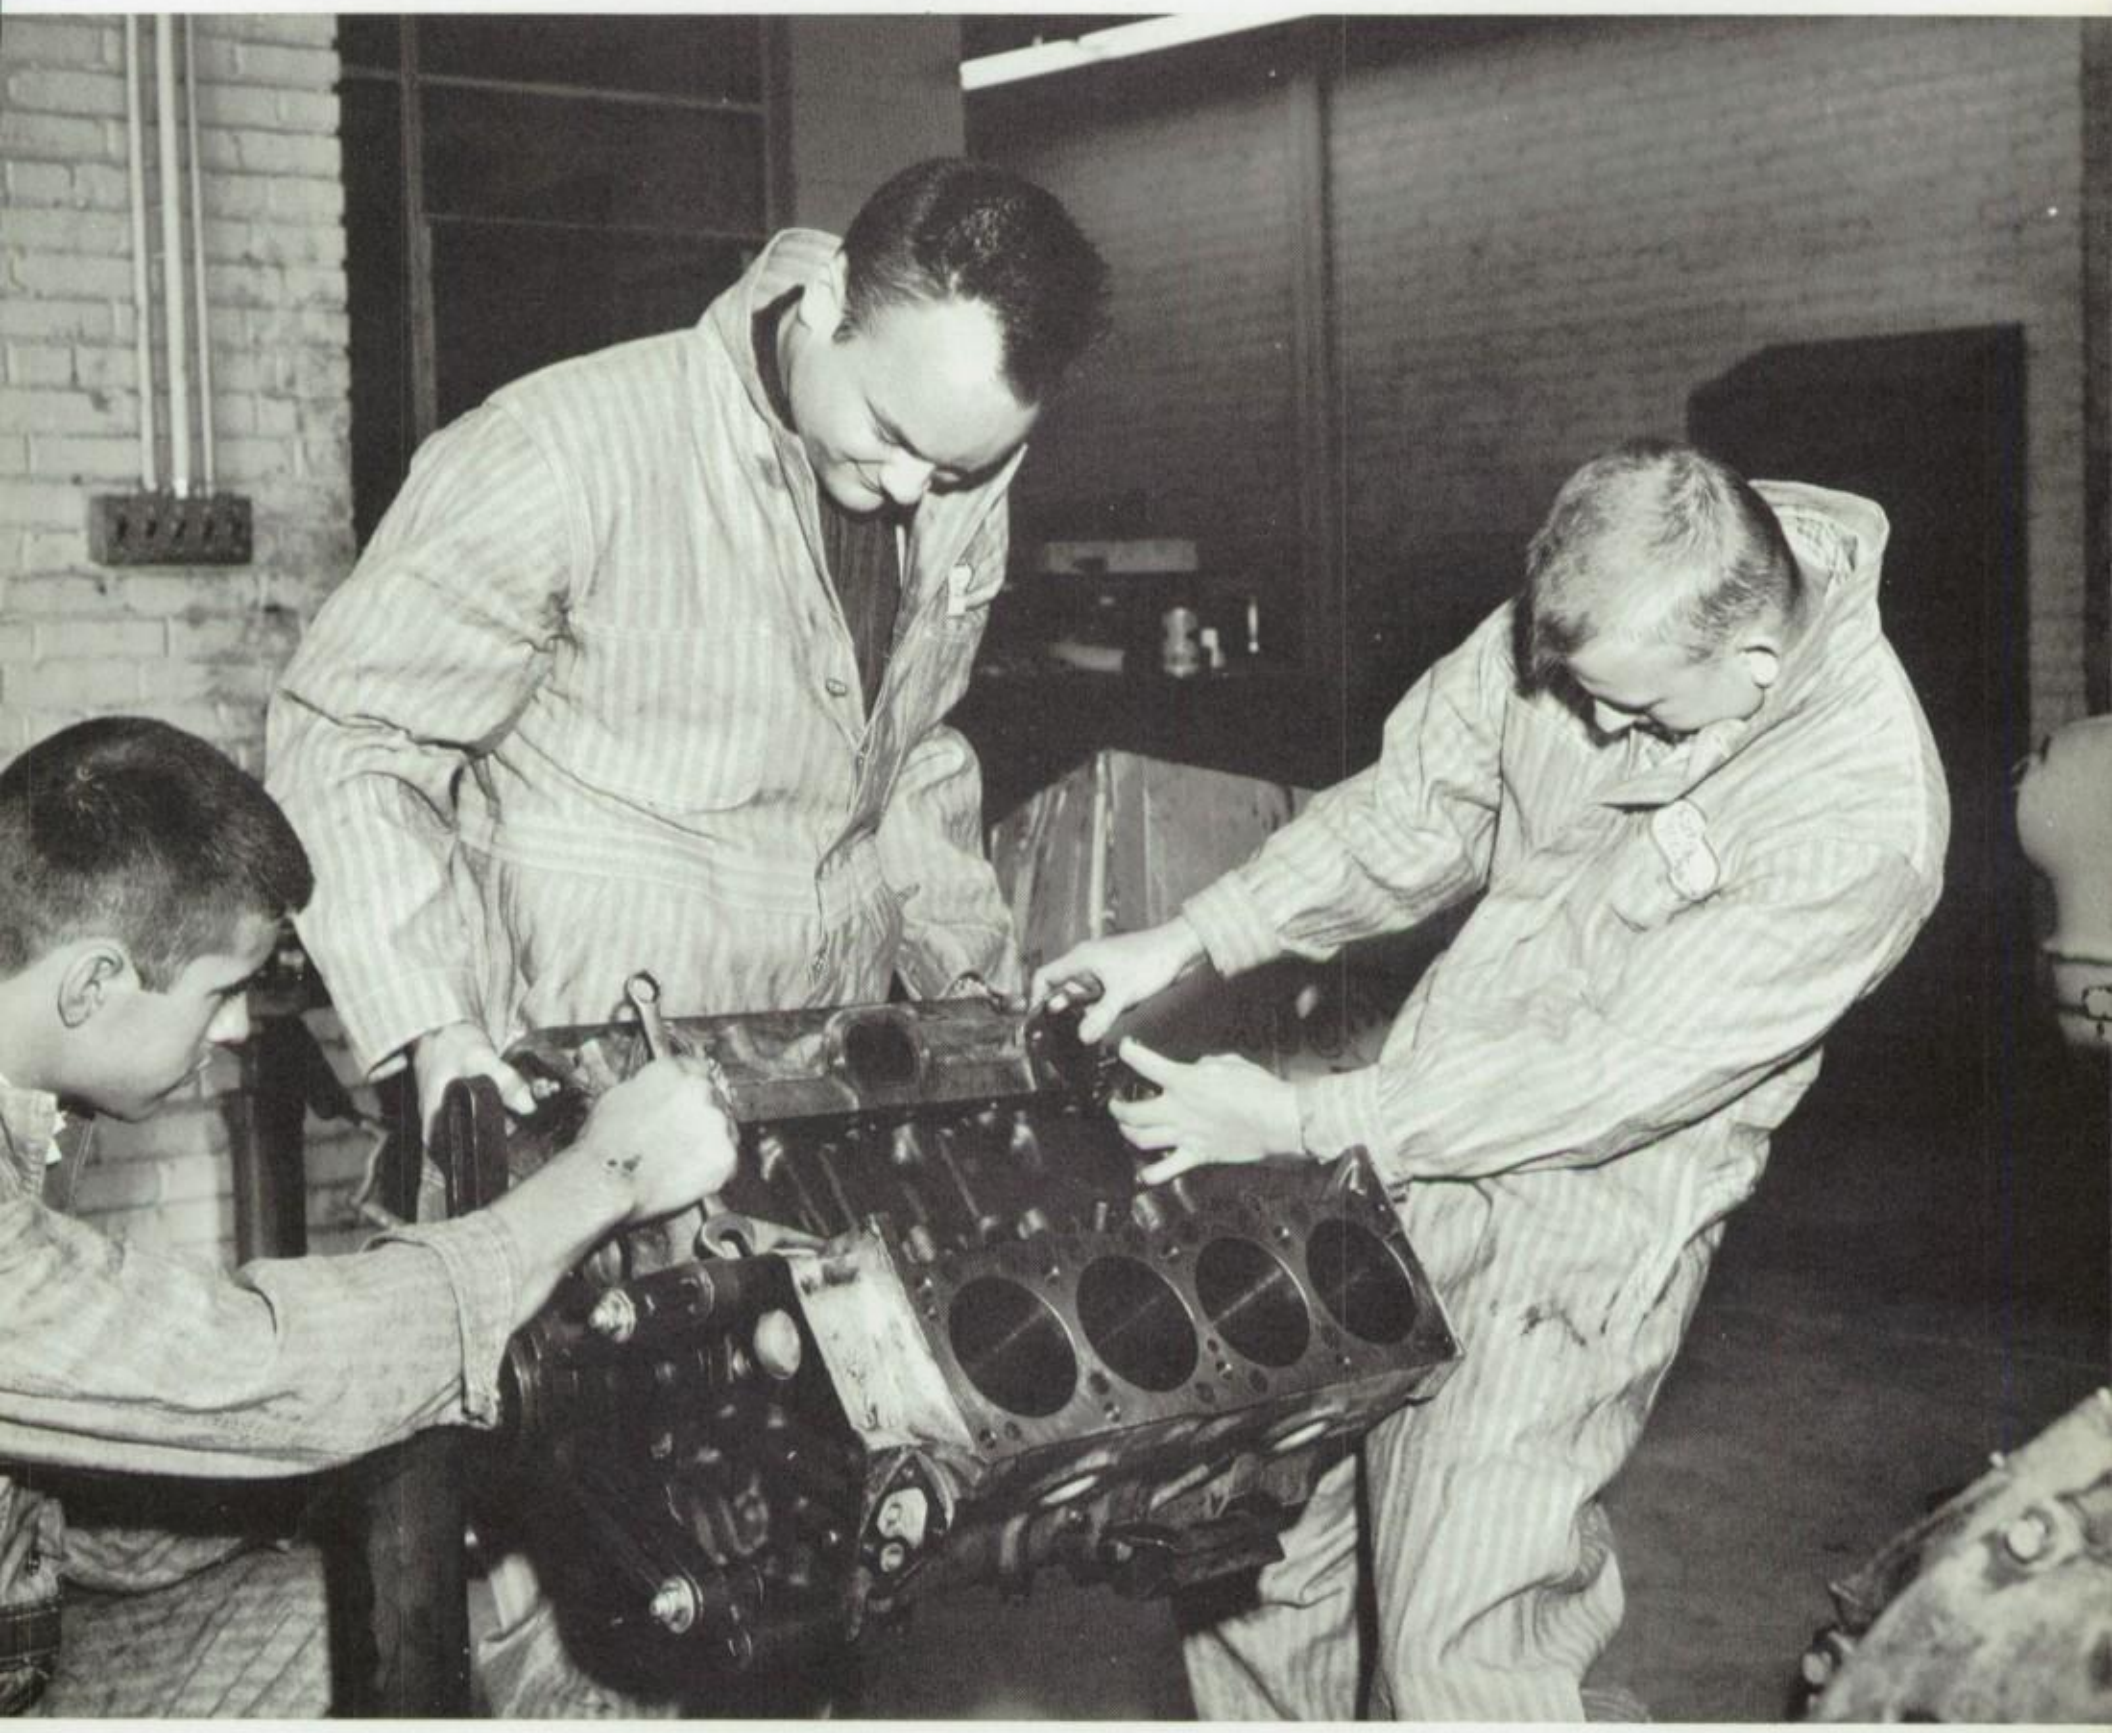


Students in Mr. Davis' electronics class use the vacuum tube volt meter to run tests on equipment.

Industrial Arts Develop Vocational Skills

Seeking an opportunity to engage in manual skills, many students take advantage of the courses offered by the Industrial Arts Department in the fields of auto mechanics, electronics, mechanical drawing, metals, printing, and woodworking. Through instruction and experience, York students may form foundations for careers in architecture, auto repairing, carpentry, press work, radio and television repairing, and welding.

Available to juniors and seniors in this department is the diversified occupations program, in which a student may put his knowledge to practical use by working a half day at a possible future vocation. Mr. Paul Hartwig is department chairman.



Inspecting an engine block, Mr. Jackson's students proceed with their work in auto mechanics class.

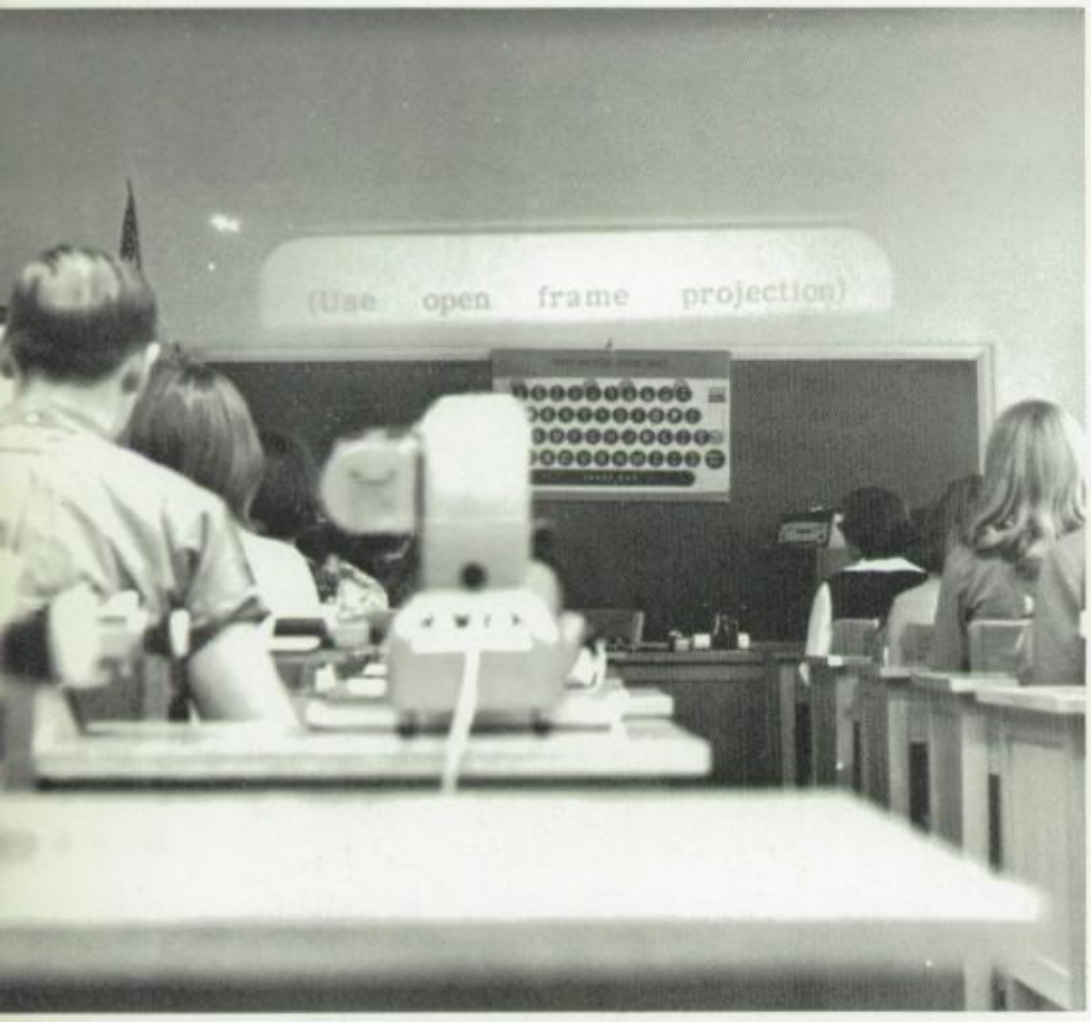
A student transcribes shorthand notes in Miss Helsel's lab.

Business students seeking applicable skill in data processing, programming, and computer language will be interested in a course, Introduction to Data Processing and Computers, an addition to the business curriculum. Miss Marie Gustafson, department chairman, stated that business education has two main objectives, equipping students with useful skills and training them for the future in business jobs.

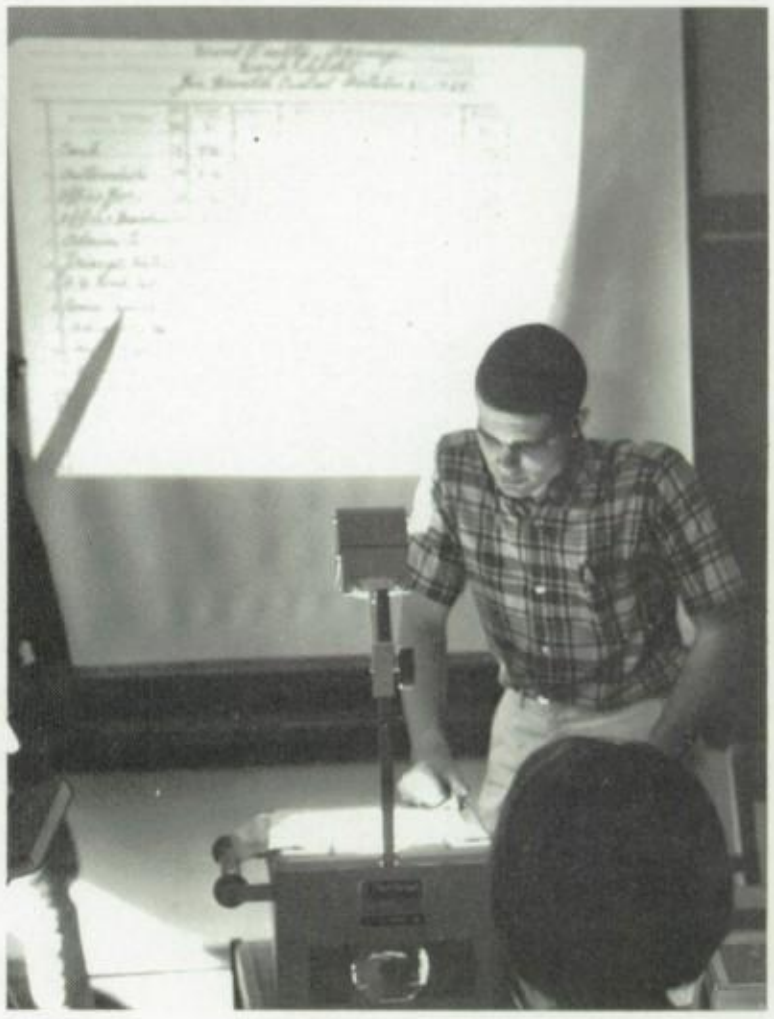
The courses through which these goals are realized are general business, applied business, arithmetic, economic geography, salesmanship, bookkeeping, business law, shorthand, advanced stenography, clerical practice, business machines, and notehand. Students become more proficient in their chosen fields through diligence and individual assistance so that they may fulfill job qualifications. Competent students may be recommended for jobs by the Business Department. An additional opportunity for vocational experience is offered by the distributive education program so that students may spend half a school day in training on the job in various community establishments.

Business Curriculum Introduces Data Processing

Typists improve accuracy and speed with the skill builder.



Using overhead projector, Mr. Cherry's students tackle a bookkeeping problem.



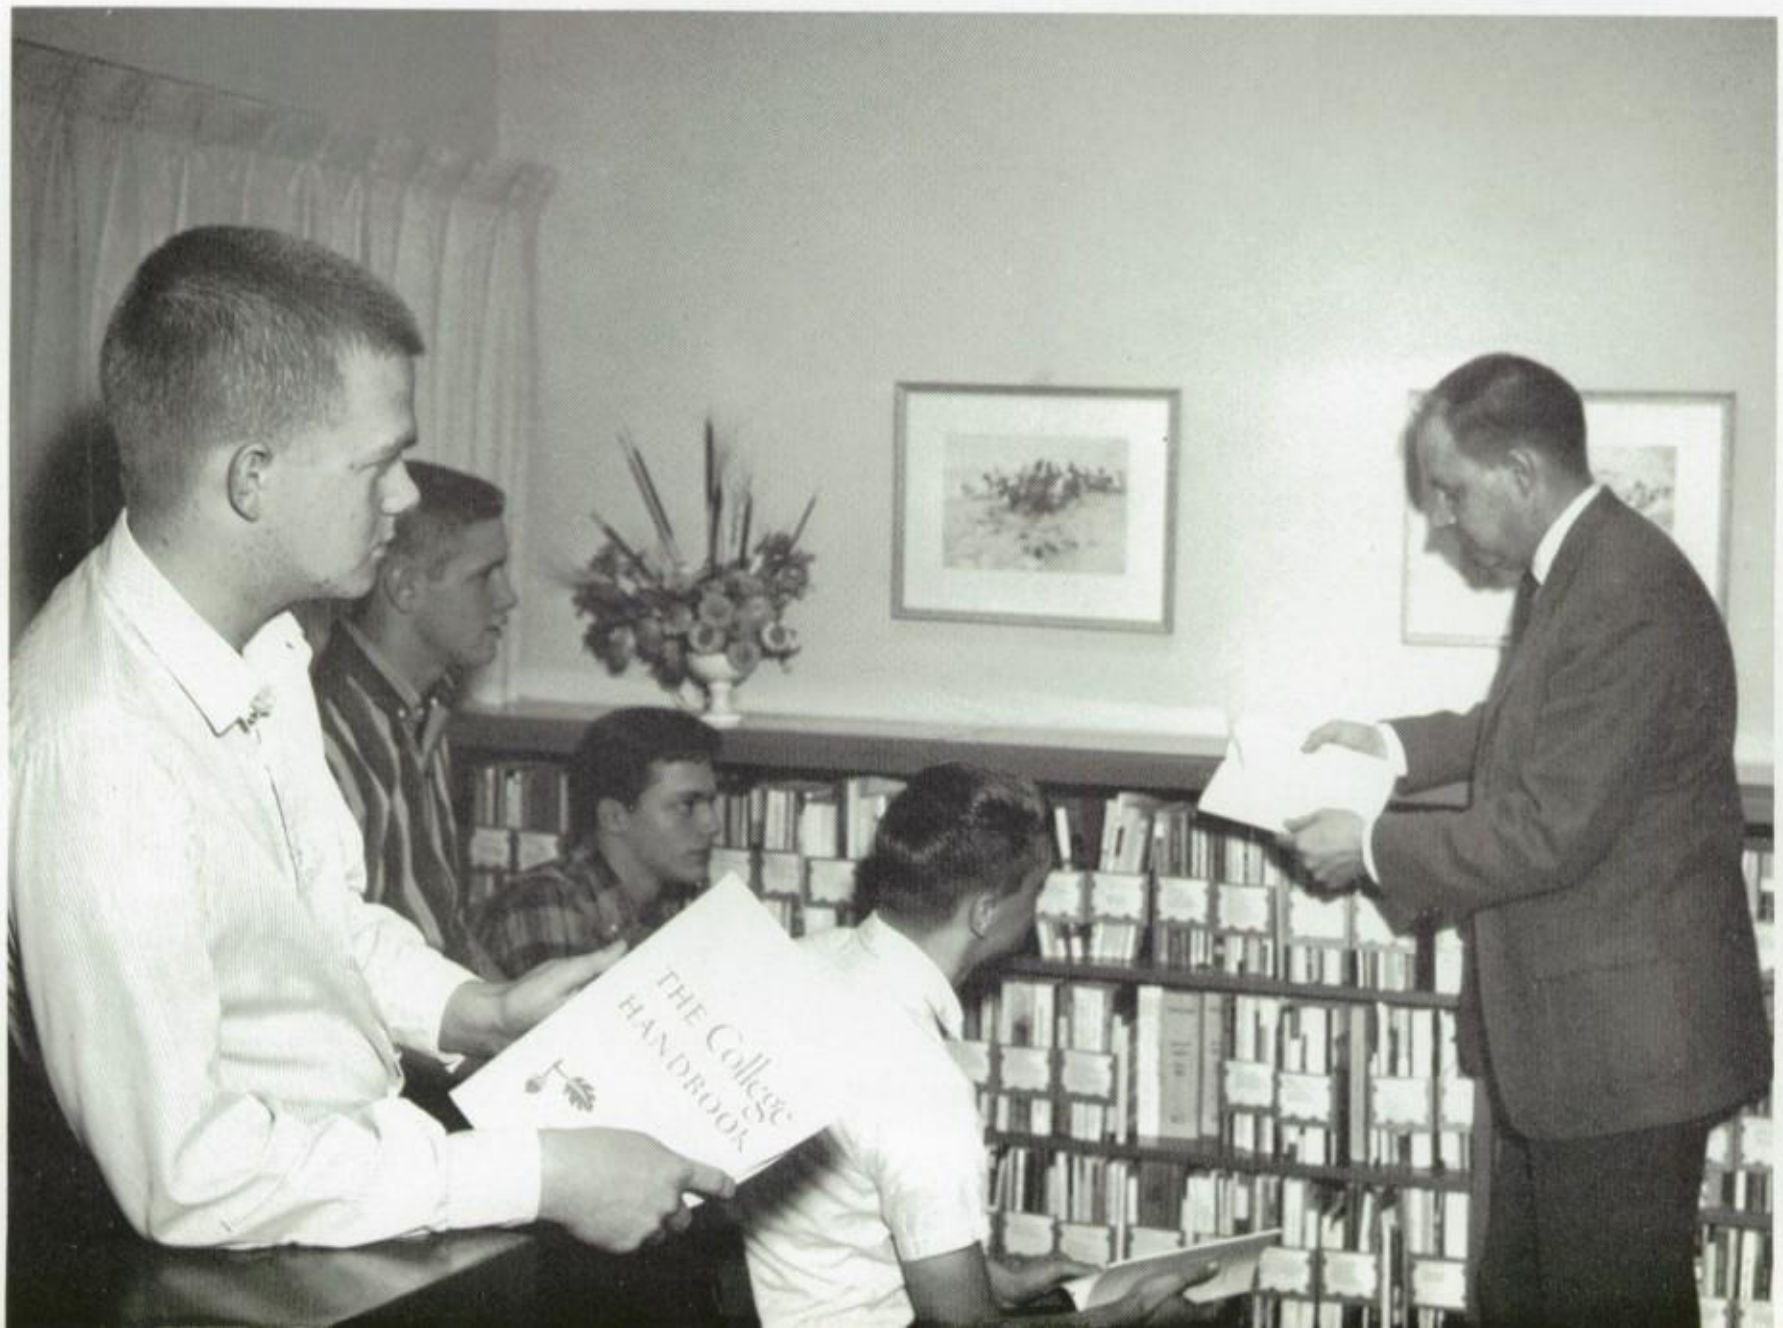
Miss Edith Kinsinger gives individual counseling to sophomore girl.

Every student at York worked with one counselor this year, receiving information and advice. The counselor evaluated the student's progress, made sure that he was working to the best of his ability, and helped him select courses to meet future goals. He also verified the fact that the student's best interests were considered. The counselor brought about this relationship through either of two methods: counseling with the individual student or advising a group.

Directing the Guidance Department, Mr. Raymond Hylander heads the aptitude testing program and vocational planning. Mr. Enzo Giuntoli, the college counselor, advises students wishing to continue their education and suggests factors to be considered in selecting a school to attend. The over-all aim of the Guidance Department is to aid students in making decisions and assuming responsibility.

Counselors Aid Students in Making Decisions

In group interview led by Mr. Raymond Hylander, Director of Guidance Department, choices of college and vocation are discussed.



Driver Education Adopts Expanded Program

For the first time since the 1959-1960 school year, the Driver Education Department offered behind-the-wheel instruction during the school year. This gave training to students who otherwise might not have been able to participate in the program because of summer jobs or extended vacations. The program was not in operation, however, during the winter months—the third and fourth six weeks—because of frequent bad weather and unfavorable road conditions.

This year, with Mr. R. J. Wilson as its director, the department used two cars and six teachers to train the approximately 100 students involved in the program. During one grading period teachers aided the students in developing correct skills and safe driving habits. The driving instructors met with their students twice a week during either first or eighth period or after school.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed the classroom driver training course may enroll for behind-the-wheel instruction. The classroom phase is given to all students as their sophomore health class. In addition to the school year program, driver education will continue in the summer as usual.

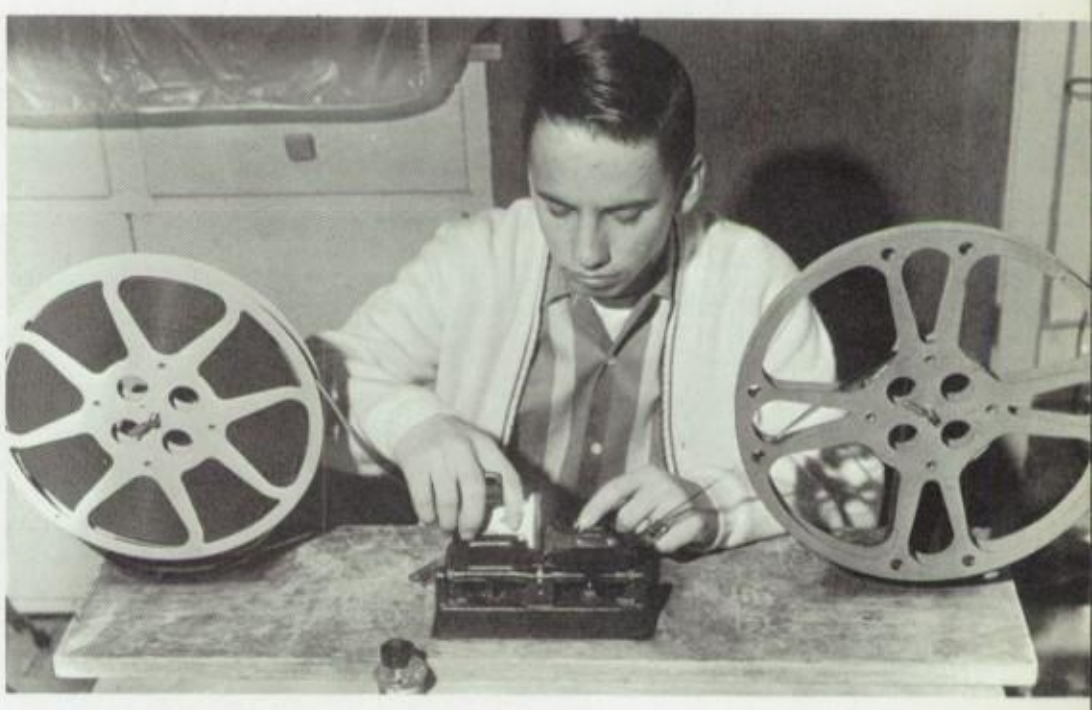
Driver training instructor furnishes last minute advice to students in preparation for school-year sessions.

Regular work—showing a film that some teacher has requested for the classroom.

Off to work! A visual aid assistant leaves for a classroom assignment given him by Mr. Frederick Snyder, head of the Visual Aids Department.

Visual Aids Assistants Supply Valuable Help

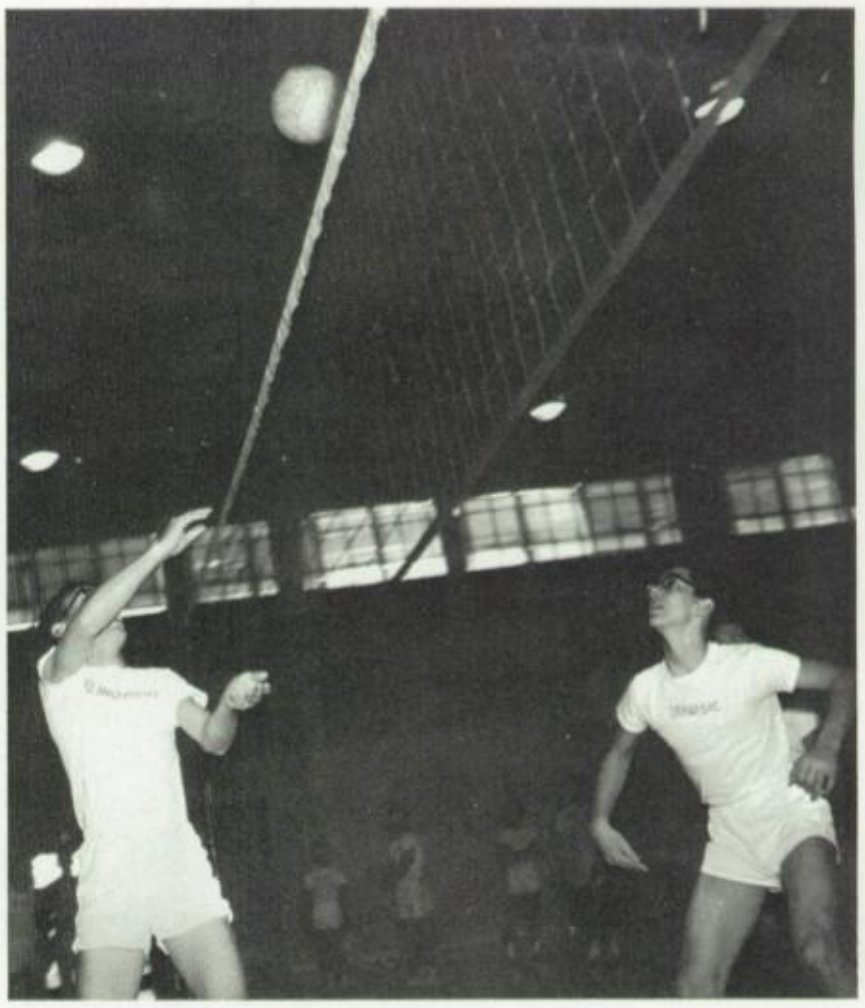
This assistant is dry-mounting a picture. This service is performed for teachers who want pictures to use on the bulletin board, for flash cards, or with the opaque projector.



A student splices a film. Film repair and maintenance are important skills visual aids assistants learn.

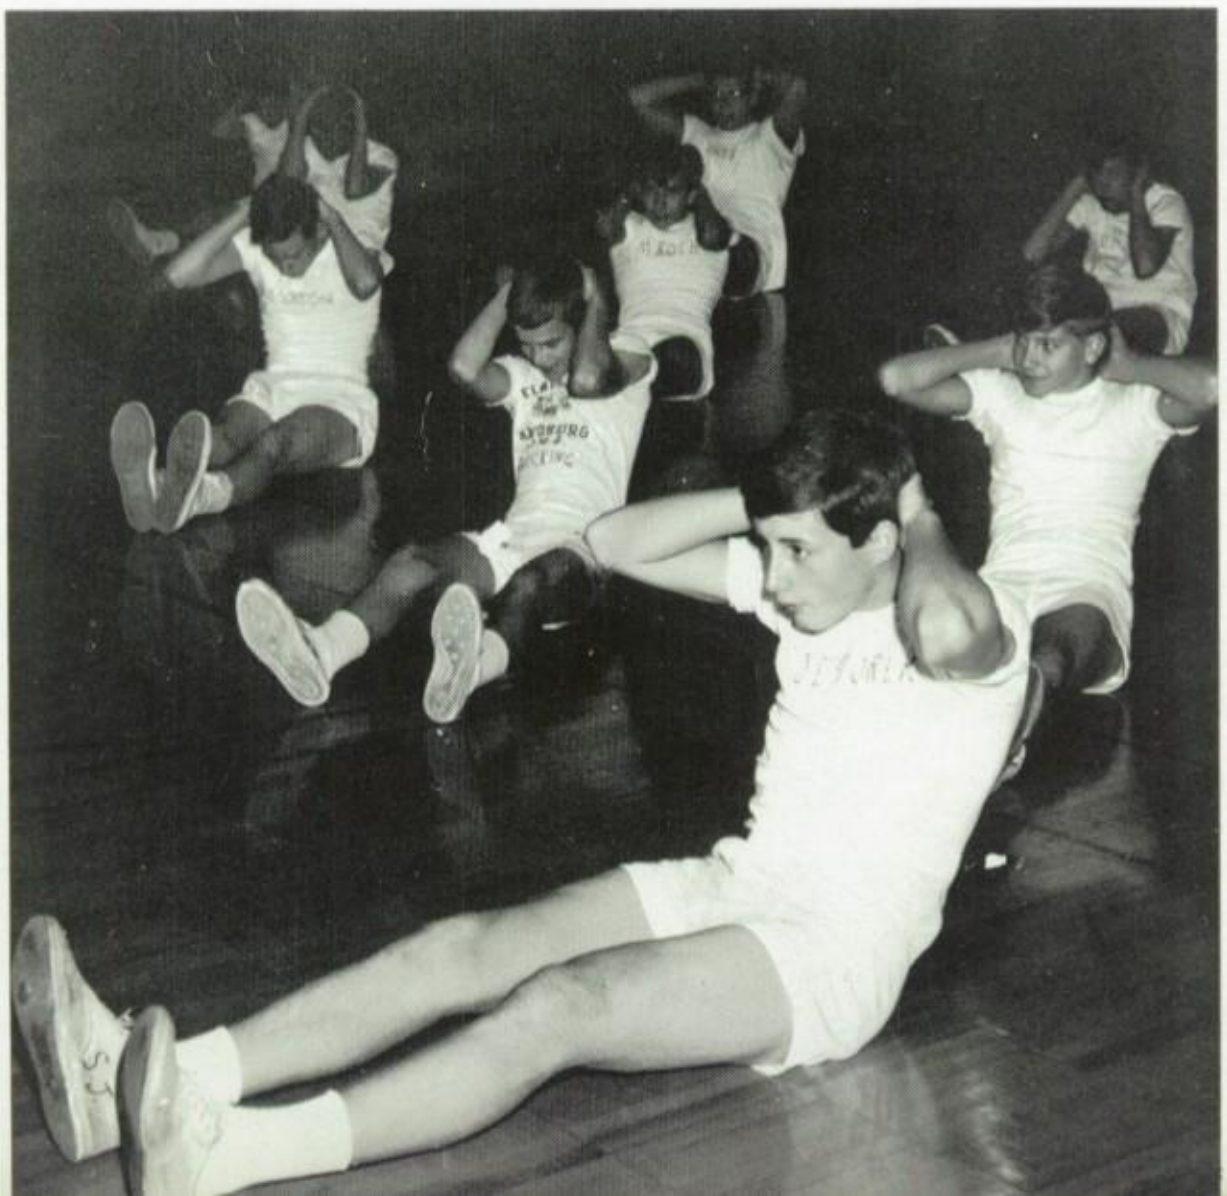
Boys' PE Department Adds Three New Sports

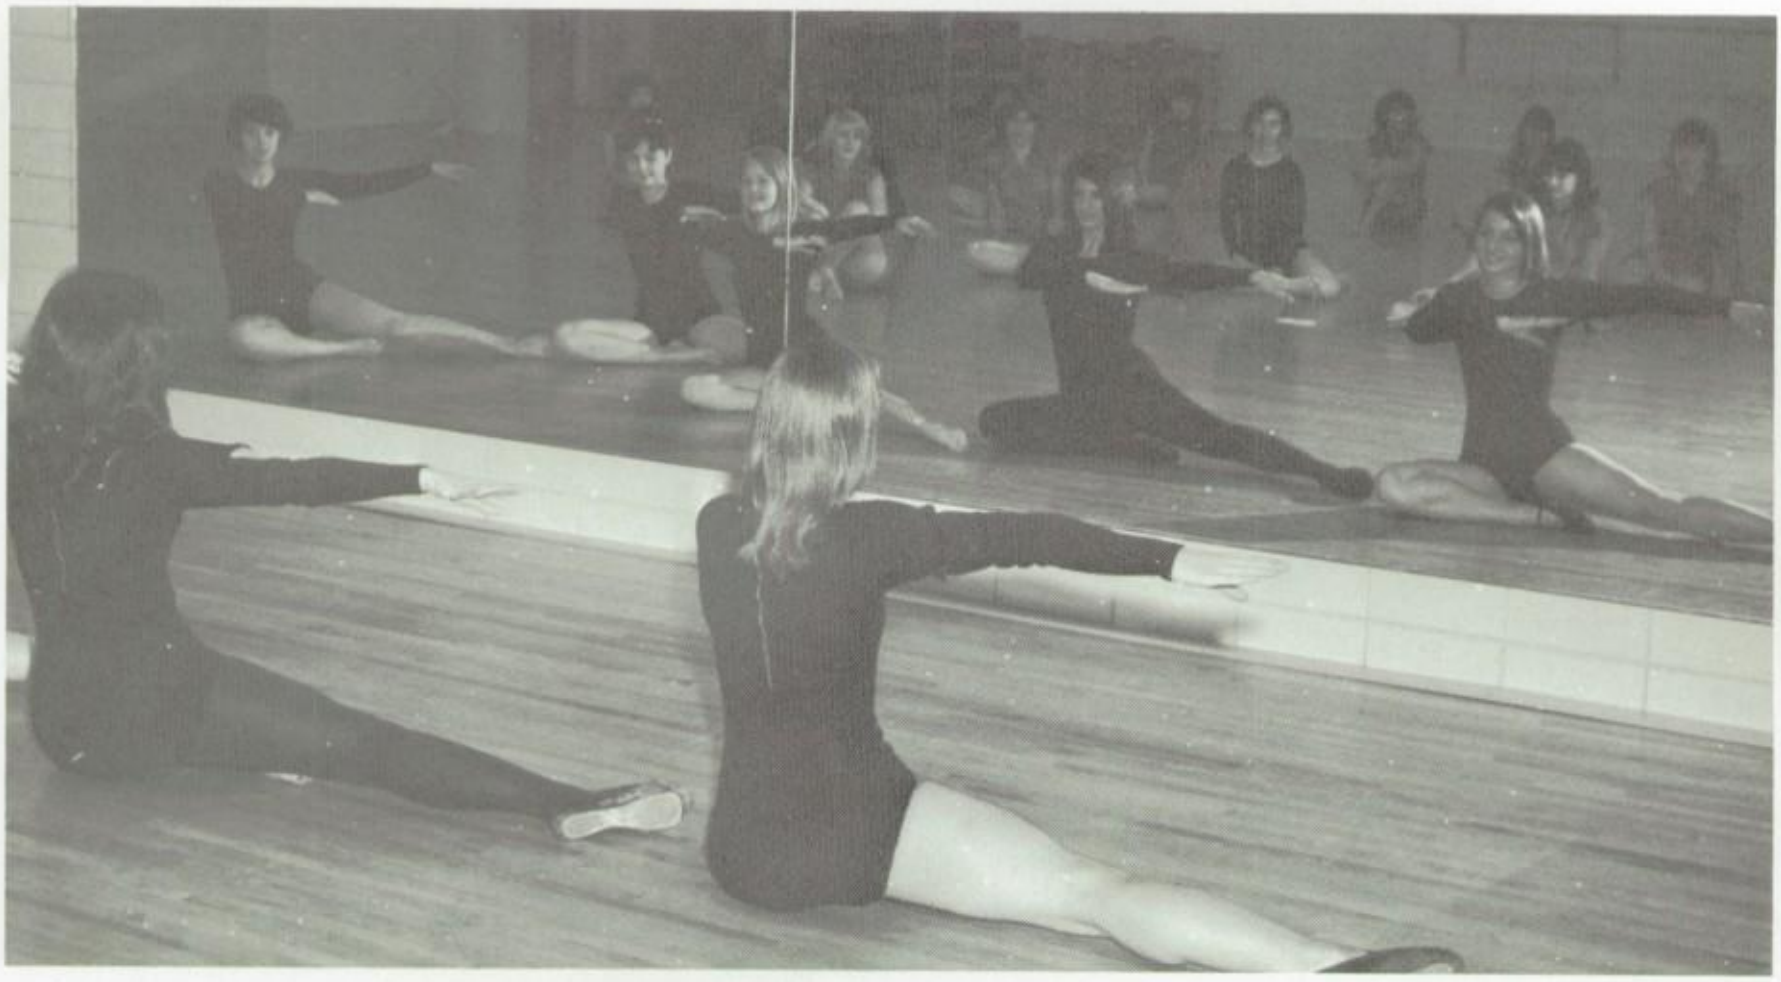
Badminton, soccer, and weight-lifting have been added to the Boys' Physical Education program, which is headed by department chairman Mr. Erling Ellingson. Expansion of these activities is expected in future years as their popularity continues to grow. Other courses which were offered include basketball, wrestling, track, gymnastics, and health. A modified gym course was offered to boys who were not capable of participating in the regular gym classes. The health program was rearranged this year so that the junior boys studied family living and the senior boys received a course in first aid.



Junior boys participate in one of the many activities in the PE program, volleyball.

Freshman boys perform sit-ups as part of the vigorous exercises of PE class.





Mrs. Nettleton's senior PE girls perform warm-up exercises in preparation for modern dance.

Girl's PE Presents Physical Fitness Program

Junior girls of Miss Vine's class are intent on a game of volleyball, one of many activities offered by the Physical Education Department.

"Showers!" and cries of despair echo through the steamy shower rooms as a period of girls' physical education draws to a close ... Whether in the misty morning hours of field hockey and soccer on the west field or during the activity of eighth hour volleyball in the 139 gym, the physical fitness program strives for excellence under the direction of Mrs. Luella Demas, department chairman. From the strenuous exercise of tumbling and apparatus to the classroom programs of health, first aid, and family living, the girls prepare to meet the future demands of modern society. With the facilities provided in the new modern dance room 230, interpretive dancing helps to develop grace and expression. Basketball and track promote sportsmanship and hard driving physical activity, while tennis, badminton and golf expand exacting skills and judgment. The equipment room is neatly arranged, the baskets are locked, and the towels are in orderly array as the bell rings and the girls in the next period stream into the locker room to change into their gym suits and report to class.

Council Promotes School, Student Activities

Student Council Hold-Over Members. Doreen Couch, Betsy Karstens, Al Laemmer, Dean Hill.

Striving to provide a valuable learning experience while coordinating activities with the administration, faculty, students, and community, the York Student Council continued this year in the finest traditions of student leadership. Sponsoring Homecoming, two foster children, the Greek clothing drive, Christmas hall decorations, and the class and council officer elections, the student organization continued numerous annual opportunities for student participation. New student-inspired projects for this year included the purchase of a coke machine for student and club use, the implementation of an anti-smoking council, and the sponsorship of a student variety show.

Mr. R. W. Brown and Mr. T. Leitz again served as sponsors. Mr. V. A. Jones, principal, also heartily supported and gave much meaning to the exercise in student self-government. The Council, functioning as a republican form of government, met and dealt with numerous problems of the moment. It is hoped that those who grasped the opportunity to become involved came to understand more fully the principles and concepts on which a representative form of government must stand.

"Walk together, talk together,
O ye people of the earth.
Then and only then
Shall ye have peace."

These words represent the main objective of the American Field Service. "Twinkle" Selvaratnam from Malaysia and Yoshiko Omori from Japan worked toward this aim as York's foreign exchange students. These girls have been important links in the AFS program as well as in many other school activities.

Sue Fralick, last year's summer AFS student to Germany, headed the AFS Steering Committee. As working links of this program, the members of the committee initiated and carried out a candy sale to raise money in order to send Americans abroad this summer, and to bring foreign students here next year.

The completing links consisted of the students and the people in the community who worked to help forward the movement for international peace and understanding.

Winner of the George H. Gallup Award for newspaper superiority, the York-Hi affords students the opportunity to experience the responsibilities associated with newspaper work. Under the guidance of Miss Eleanor Davis, director, the paper serves the student body of York through its bi-weekly recording of news events. The print shop, headed by Mr. Lowell Woodburn, publishes the paper which for the third consecutive year is the winner of the first place award of the International Graphic Arts Educational Association.

Representatives from the York-Hi staff, accompanied by Miss Davis, spent several weekends attending special instructional workshops. These included the National Scholastic Press Association, Chicago; Illinois State High School Press Association, University of Illinois at Urbana, and the Chicago Press Guild.

"Get that copy done! We have a deadline to meet." Here is Y's Tales staff in a nutshell. Frustrated cries of editors fill the air as the "Facemakers of York" set to work grinding out copy and page layouts for volume 33. Although Mrs. Lucile Albert, staff director, sometimes has qualms, everything eventually gets done, and it is obviously done well. For the second year in a row Y's Tales has brought honor to York by winning first place awards in both the National Scholastic Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association competitions. Meeting daily during seventh hour, the staff this year has produced the largest yearbook York has ever had.

"You missed that typographical error," says Cheryl Larsen to copy readers Farida Kasab, Lorna Donnelly, Shirley Swanson, Liz Singer, Jo Peters, Bob Yahr, Copy Editor; John Shupe, and Alex Harbuziuk.

Band Opens Midwest National Directors' Clinic

Student directors, Jim Plondke, Dan Martin, Bruce Jacobson, and Bill Klingelhoffer. Sue Von Arx, librarian.

Superior rating in the state contest this year as well as numerous solo and ensemble state honors represent some of this year's band achievements.

A performance opening the Midwest National Band Directors' Clinic in Chicago in December was an outstanding event for the York concert band this year. Selected on the basis of their previous musical achievements, top bands from various sections of the country were in attendance. Guest directors were Glen Cliffe Bainum, formerly of Northwestern University, and Mark H. Hindsley of the University of Illinois. New, dark green blazers were colorful additions to the winter and spring concerts which were other activities of this prize-winning band conducted by Mr. LaVerne R. Reimer.

Orchestra Displays Talents at Music College

The last vibrating treble of an E-string being tuned died away ... the musicians on the stage were silent as the director approached the podium ... the baton was raised and the York Community High School Orchestra, participating in the 1965 Christmas Program, displayed once again the fine musicianship traditional of this group. Hours of rehearsal culminated in many rewarding activities. Typical of these was the invitation to perform at the Vandercook Music College. Representing the orchestra were eight musicians chosen for the All-State Orchestra in Peoria and nine students selected for the District Orchestra to uphold the standards of the outstanding organization. For the duration of Mr. Leon J. Pondelick's year-long sabbatical, Mr. Robert Hallman assumed the responsibility as director of the orchestra. Upon Mr. Pondelick's return, Mr. Hallman will be director of music at the new Addison Trails High School.

Top honors for this group include superior rating in the state contest as well as many solo and ensemble state awards this year.

Senior Choir Earns State Superior Rating

The Senior Choir received superior ratings at the State Music Contest this year. This group attended a presentation of "Rigoletto" at the Chicago Opera House in preparation for its Spring Concert which featured a number of famous operatic works. After that performance the choir was not in the audience, but on the stage, either performing in their robes or competing in their newly-acquired blazers. Concert demands took the choir to the University of Illinois at Normal, Borg-Warner Building in Chicago, and at numerous locations in Elmhurst. Mr. Jack Witmer directs this choir and Junior Choir.

Thespian Troop 1933 Assists Major Productions

York's chapter of Thespians, Troop 1933, is part of a national high school honorary society for drama. Troop 1933 is concerned with furthering dramatics in school. Students can become members only if they are asked to join. In order to qualify to be asked, one must earn a certain number of points.

With Mrs. Yvonne Lundquist and Miss Sallie Mitchell as sponsors, the group helps with major productions and attends conferences. The members also participate in an annual banquet. Included in the productions for which the Thespians gave their assistance were "Thieves' Carnival" and an all-school Variety Show. The members attended a National Thespian Conference as well as regional conferences. In January, the organization initiated new members during their annual banquet.

THESPIAN OFFICERS. Lisa Kiser, Secretary; Sara Lewis, Vice-President; Noel Tetrev, Treasurer; Tom Keever, President.

Thespians consider all aspects of good dramatic productions in preparing for next play.

Varsity Debaters are (standing) Andy Pachner, Bob Boostrom, Joe Biancalana, and Mark Gulley, and (sitting) Vern Plummer, Tom Keeline, and Adrienne Winn.

Debate Club Members Sharpen Logical Reasoning

Debate Club members started their work early in the fall to improve their speech, sharpen logical reasoning, and conceive new methods of presentation. The members began to acquire information on a variety of challenging subjects and started their storehouse of facts which became thoroughly indexed for the stiff competition ahead with talented representatives of other schools.

This year, one of the topics for sharp controversy based on labor and management disputes formally stated was: Resolved: That the Federal Government should adopt a program of compulsory arbitration in labor management disputes in basic industries. Under the guidance of their sponsor, Mrs. G. Tampas, the Debate Club had a stimulating and exciting year.

French Club Heralds Spring with Daffodil Sale

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS. Karin Strand, President; Sandy Kett, Vice-President; Carole Seidensticker, Secretary; Sally Erickson, Treasurer.

One of the first signs that told Yorkites spring had arrived was the annual sale of daffodils by the French Club. This club, sponsored by Mr. James Berger, has as its main purpose the promotion of a greater interest in the study of the French language and customs. The club's biggest event of the year was the annual Mardi Gras banquet in February. All the members, dressed in festive costumes, were served a typical French dinner by the new members who later in the evening were initiated.

Among its programs for the year were a film and slides commemorating the 1200th anniversary of Mont St. Michel, a Christmas party, and a play presented by the students. The guest speakers during the year were Monsieur René Allewaert, the cultural attaché from the French Embassy; Madame Jacqueline Jacobs, a native Parisienne, and Madame Carmen Romanowski, a French-Canadian.

"We don't believe in Santa Claus!" proclaim French Club members in Christmas play.

Prize-Winning Float

Features Cuckoo Clock

Cuckoo heralds German Club prize-winning float and Homecoming victory over Arlington.

GERMAN CLUB OFFICERS. Helga Weise, President; Barbara Weigel, Secretary; Phil Schenk, Treasurer; Katy Schmidt, Vice-President.

Direct from the Black Forest came the idea for the victorious German Club Homecoming float. Many hours of planning and work went into the construction of the old German cuckoo clock. The red cardinal, replacing the cuckoo, helped carry out this year's general Homecoming theme.

"Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht ..." was heard ringing through Yorkshire Hall at the Club's annual "Weihnachtsfest" smorgasbord. Christmas carols and folkdancing set the pace for the evening's activities. A portion of the profits from the dinner went to charity and helped pay for the Club members' visit to an old German restaurant. In appreciation for all their assistance with the many club activities, the group presented the sponsors, Mrs. Aldona Smulkstys and Mrs. Margaret Pfaffle, with a plaque at the last meeting of the year.

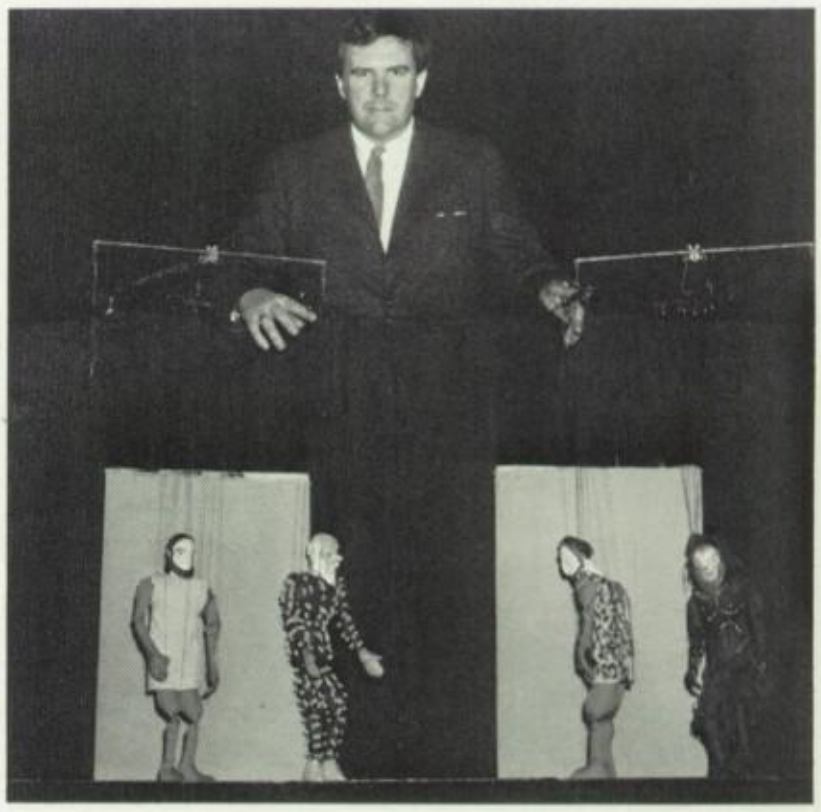
Providing entertainment for the annual German Club Weihnachtsfest, club members sing traditional German carols.

LATIN CLUB OFFICERS. Bill Carter, President; Pam Pratt, Secretary; Andrew Pachner, Treasurer; Bill Morton, Vice-President.

Saturnalia Party Follows Ancient Tradition

York's Latin Club had the honor of obtaining third place in the 1965 Homecoming float competition. This club, sponsored by Mrs. Lois Larson, seeks to foster interest and understanding in the Roman language and traditions. Extensive study of Latin may also help to create a sound understanding of other languages. In their study of ancient Rome Latin Club members held a Saturnalia party, an end-of-the-year celebration of the harvest originally given in honor of the god Saturn. Reports on Roman life given at various meetings were a further source of information about ancient days. Mr. Peter D. Arnott from the State University of Iowa presented The Cyclops as a marionette production in the fall. The Forty-fourth Roman Banquet was the highlight of the year. In attendance were slaves, water carriers, vestal virgins, and honored guests—all Latin Club members attired in Roman garb.

Latin Club offers an opportunity for hard-working Latin students to obtain honor by sending contestants to the Illinois Latin Tournament, and administering the Auxilium Latinium test.



A record crowd of Latin Club students and friends attended an evening performance of Mr. Peter D. Arnott's marionette presentation of The Cyclops in Yorkshire Hall.

The annual Christmas party complete with "pinata," a play Contigo Pan y Cebolla put on by third and fourth year Spanish students, and a fund-raising sock hop topped the program of the Spanish Club. During May a banquet was held at a Mexican restaurant in Chicago where pins and guards were awarded and the new officers were announced. Speakers and slides were featured in some meetings.

Spanish Club, organized in 1921, is one of the oldest clubs at York. This year it was co-sponsored by Mr. G. J. Damiani and Mr. Calvin Smith. It seeks to establish a better understanding of Spanish-speaking people and to provide a knowledge of their customs and ways of life. Members become better acquainted with Spanish culture and music while taking part in group activities.

MATH CLUB OFFICERS. Robert Lada, President; John Sonnenberg, Treasurer; Tom Brown, Vice-President; Carol Coffin, Secretary.

Math Club's plans for this year included lectures by several people prominent in the field of mathematics. Field trips were also planned. One such field trip was a visit to a corporation where mathematical computers were utilized. It was hoped that by these activities, the participants in Math Club gained a broader view of mathematics in our society. Each month the members received a set of problems to solve and a different phase of mathematics was covered. In this way the members' conception of mathematics was broadened.

This year Math Club's number of active members has almost doubled. Mr. Leon Benson, sponsor of the club, feels that this shows an ever-increasing interest on the part of York's student body in the field of mathematics.

First Yearbook Editor

Tells of York's History

Providing stimulating programs, Historical Society is open to all those who have an interest in history. Mrs. Dame, one of the first graduates of York and the first editor of Y's Tales, spoke at an opening meeting this year. She provided the members with a true picture of how York and Elmhurst looked 43 years ago. The main aim of the club this year was to deal with history ranging from the local to the international. Speakers, movies, discussion groups, and the field trip all provided a means by which the members developed their various interests. Under the supervision of Mr. Robert Hyde, members sold candy bars to raise funds for the club activities.

Karin Strand, co-editor-in-chief of 1966 Y's Tales, presents a recent yearbook to Mrs. Dame, first Y's Tales editor.

Experiencing the benefits of further learning by teaching, the Future Teachers of America members, along with other interested students at York, have started the second year of the new tutoring program. Last year the tutors were required to be members of FTA. Tutoring is now open to any student at York who has passed the course he wishes to teach with a grade of A or B.

The monthly FTA meetings included guest speakers whose topics of discussion covered the various fields of teaching. Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Kirby and Mr. Dan Kane, the club projects included sending apples to York teachers during National Teachers' Week and making Easter baskets for a senior citizens home.

FTA Continues Tutoring Program Second Year

Tutoring service and "Apple for the Teacher" project are activities that the FTA are discussing.

Former Yorkites now studying at Grant Hospital were guest speakers this year at meetings of the Future Nurses of America. Meeting monthly, this club, sponsored by Miss Lela Sutter, afforded opportunities to members to hear about the various programs available in the field of nursing. Included were the Baccalaureate degree, the hospital three-year program, and the Associate degree in nursing. Visiting speakers from schools, hospitals, and clinics advised students about the program.

Nursing is only one of the various health careers in which the club holds an interest. Opportunities to assist in the nurses' office and visits to hospitals on weekends are two of the endeavors of the club members.

On the second Thursday of December the annual Christmas Banquet was held. This year's project will be to make bedroom slippers for Hines Hospital.

HOME EC CLUB OFFICERS. Diane Blasius, President; Sharon Brumner, Treasurer; Linda Palmer, Vice-President; Julie Zeug, Secretary.

A change in Home Economics Club membership rules will go into effect next year according to its sponsors, Mrs. Helen O'Neill and Mrs. Roberta Lindgren. Any girl at York who has an interest in this area will be welcome as a member. Enrollment in a home economics course has been a prerequisite for membership, but this will not be required next year.

Guest speakers appeared at many of the programs. This year they included: "Christmas Foods" by Northern Illinois Gas Company, "Grooming and Cosmetics" by Merle Norman, and a demonstration on flower arranging.

Selling candy and working at game concession stands helped to raise money for club finances, and in January the club sponsored a "cake baking and decorating" contest for its members. Dinner at a foreign restaurant served as the final meeting of the year.

YBCC Acquaints Members with Business World

Representatives from the Moser Business School and the Illinois Bell Telephone Company were among the participants at the meetings of the York Business Careers Club. Together with an airline stewardess and a comptometer operator, these guest speakers helped acquaint students with various phases of the business world and provide a better understanding of opportunities. These are the fundamental purposes of the York Business Careers Club, sponsored by Miss Barbara Douthit and Mr. Larry Gilmer.

New to York this year is the Diversified Occupations Club, made up of students enrolled in the D O program. This program, part of the Industrial Arts Department, provides practical experience in industrial and technical occupations. Students alternate between school and their jobs on a half-day basis. One of the activities of this particular program is the D O Club. Activities consist of field trips, meetings with speakers, and panel discussions. In addition, the club takes in state regional meetings and state conferences. The D O coordinator is Mr. William Schneider.

Diversified Occupations participants review recently arrived pamphlets in their search for possible job opportunities.

Radio Enthusiasts Obtain Novice Licenses

York's Radio Club gives amateur radio enthusiasts the opportunity to further their knowledge of amateur radio operation. At frequent meetings club members contacted other operating stations on the club's own station, WA9IHK. So that Radio Club members were able to obtain their novice broadcasting licenses, optional theory and courses were given by the club. License tests were administered at York by Mr. Richard S. Davis, club sponsor, when the courses were completed.

York's service groups are well known organizations which perform endless tasks to aid the administration, faculty, and student body. These groups are comprised of enthusiastic, energetic students who have volunteered homeroom or study hall periods to serve. Chess Club Increases Mental Agility of Members

Chess Club strives to increase the mental agility of its members. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold Grote, the club emphasizes concentration, the development of analytical reasoning, and friendly competition among its own members and between its members and those of like groups from schools in the surrounding area. Tournaments among club participants strengthened the ability, cleverness, and prowess of the enthusiasts who played this "game of kings". These school meets served as a thorough background and preparation for the outside competitive tournaments held with nearby schools. All these meets gave the members experience in analyzing game situations under intense pressure.

Orchesis, the Greek word for modern dance, is the name of a club at York which stimulates creativity and gives members a chance to learn about rhythm, motion, and graceful movement. Girls may become members through GAA affiliation. "The Children's Hour" was the name of this year's annual modern dance show directed by Mrs. Louise Nettleton. This show consisted of capsule demonstrations of children's stories through dance.

Service and hospitality are the goals of the Green Key Club. The members of this service group accept many of the responsibilities of serving in school activities. Acting as guides for the P.T.A. open house and monitoring the school halls are among the valuable services they perform.

Also included in the club's list of projects is an annual Christmas Welfare Project. The final stages of this activity are incorporated into the club's Christmas work party providing a blend of giving and celebration fitting the season.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Myrna Magnuson the selected senior and junior girls of this club extend a hand of hospitality to those both new and familiar to the school on behalf of the student body.

"Silver Bells" Sets Mood for Holiday Season

Activities for Girls' Club started even before the beginning of school, as members told their freshman "little sisters" all about York. Primarily a service organization, Girls' Club plans its projects with this purpose in mind. This year the club sold school calendars and held a mixer for freshmen in the fall to acquaint the new students with social life at York. "Silver Bells" rang through the halls of York as Girls' Club presented its annual semi-formal girl-ask-boy dance. The traditional Bow Week was held in the spring to promote class loyalty.

Programs presented at the monthly meetings included a speaker on Project Hope, opportunities for women in advertising, a Christmas party, a beauty and charm consultant, careers for women in government, and a speaker on sororities and the Panhellenic system. The spring tea wrapped up the year as pins were awarded and the results of the officer and board elections were announced. Mrs. Mildred Topinka was assisted by Miss Margaret Hartnett and Mrs. Mary Jane Marriner in directing the club.

The decoration of a first place award Homecoming car, a Christmas party, the yearly father-daughter dinner, and a sports playday held at York were special events of the year's program for GAA. These were topped by a Mother-Daughter tea at which new officers were installed and awards were given.

York's Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss Margaret Lacey, is affiliated with a statewide organization and uses its point system. Meeting every Tuesday and Thursday, girls earn points by competing after school in sports and games such as basketball, tennis, bowling, softball, tumbling and apparatus, volley-ball, and archery. Rotation of sports each six weeks allows the girls to become familiar with several activities. Four types of awards, each requiring 75 points, are made at the end of the year.

The 1965 Girls' Varsity Tennis Team concluded the season with a 2—2—1 record. Led by an undefeated first doubles team, consisting of Sandy Nash and Marcia Watts, York finished third in the conference. Season highlights included a decisive win over Glenbard East early in the season and a first place at Lyons in a three-school meet.

Tennis is one of the few sports in which girls may participate interscholastically. Because of this fact and the desire for a competitive extramural program, more schools each year are organizing and developing a girls' tennis team. Seven schools in this area now compete interscholastically including York, Glenbard West, Naperville, Hinsdale, Lyons, Glenbard East, and Willowbrook.

The girls' tennis extramural program begins the first week of school in the fall. Girls chosen for the team from the previous spring try-outs meet and practice and any interested freshman or upperclass girls are given the opportunity to try out for the three or four positions left vacant from spring try-outs. The second week of school finds team members trying for various positions within the team and the coach, Miss Joyce Hardesty, ranking them according to ability. York's team consisted of 14 girls.

Pep Club's Many Activities Promote York Spirit

A powderpuff basketball game featuring spirited girls as players and York Dukes as cheerleaders was sponsored by Pep Club this year. This was provided to create a greater interest in athletic events and an enthusiastic display of sportsmanship. Pep Club also undertook other activities that strived to obtain these goals, such as Dad's Day during football and basketball seasons, the sale of sweatshirts in the fall, Block-Y, and the annual Pep Club Dance given in honor of the year's deserving athletes. Mr. and Miss Pep were announced at this dance in recognition of their school spirit and dedicated support of the athletic teams. Lettermen Supervise

Athletic Activities

Members of Lettermen's Club provided valuable assistance to York this year, selling programs at football and basketball games, acting as cafeteria monitors, and maintaining order at athletic events. The club also buys a plaque exhibited near the gym whenever a track and field record is broken. To be eligible for membership in the club, a boy must receive a letter in varsity athletics and remain active in at least one sport a year.

Meetings are held once a month, and initiation is conducted at the club picnic held in May. Mr. Joe Newton is the club sponsor.

Pom Pon Squad Promotes School Enthusiasm

To promote school enthusiasm was the main objective of the twenty-seven girls on York's Pom Pon Squad. Under the guidance of Mrs. Roberta Sejnost, this year's sponsor, the girls spent many hours of long hard practice in preparation for the performances at the Homecoming game, pep rallies, and basketball games. These girls also served refreshments at athletic events and presented a sock hop following a basketball game.

This squad is composed of junior and senior girls chosen through tryouts for their poise and coordination as well as their cheerful smiles. This combination is directed to generate enthusiasm and to spur York on to many victories.

Good Sportsmanship Goal of Cheerleaders

Promoting school enthusiasm and class spirit throughout the year is the main responsibility of York's Varsity and Frosh-Soph cheerleaders. The girls were unusually busy this year participating in two successful pep rallies and at all football and basketball games. Also, for the first time, they attended all cross-country and track meets.

Boundless energy and enthusiasm are the result of much practice and hard work by York's cheerleaders. The girls practice every Tuesday and Thursday for a full hour. Spreading good sportsmanship throughout the West Suburban Conference, York's cheerleaders and their sponsor, Miss Karen Ellis, try hard to fulfill their responsibilities to the student body.

Cindermen Take Both WSC Titles

Ray Menzel is off on first leg of 880 yard relay.

Paced by co-captains George McGregor, fourth in the state meet and York record holder at 4:23.5 in the mile, Ray Menzel, state semi-finalist in the 220 yard dash and WSC first place finisher, Mr. Newton's cindermen returned from dominating the first WSC indoor championship to win the outdoor title for the first time since 1956. The Dukes regained the Palatine Relays trophy after a four year drought, captured the Rockford title for the sixth straight season, and took a close second at the Naperville Relays.

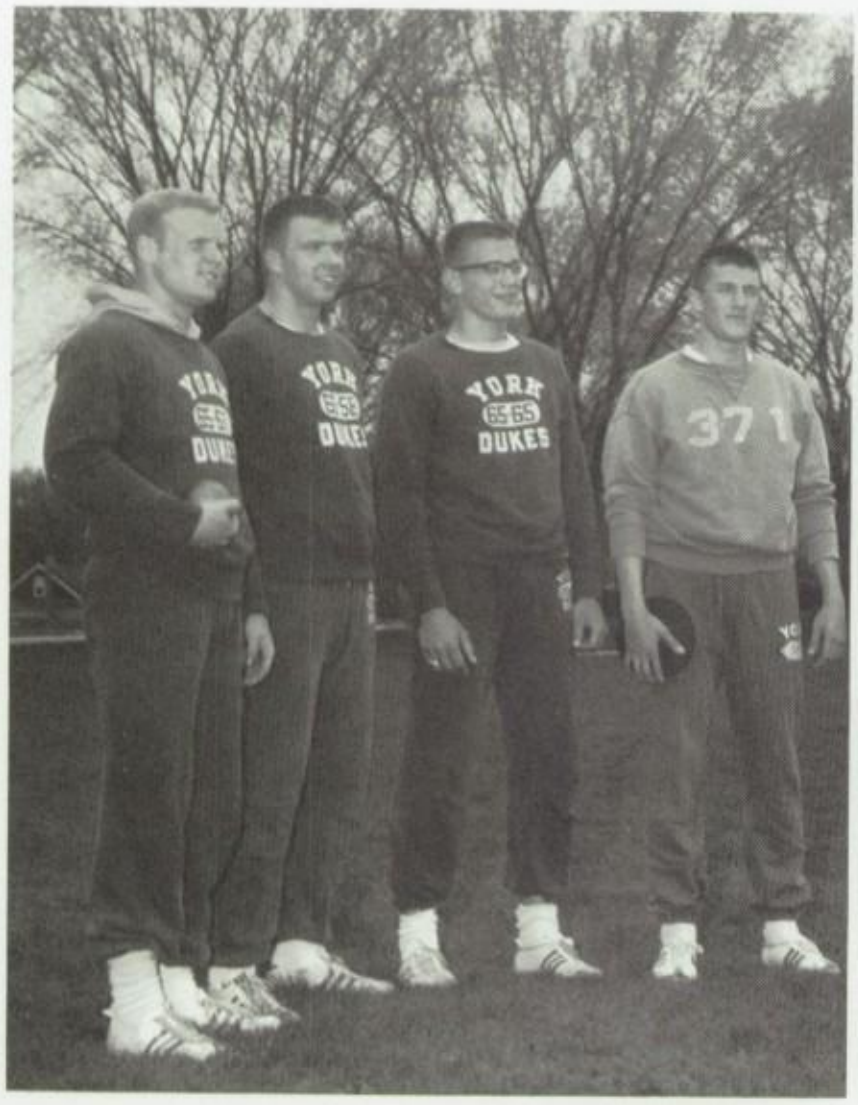
Twenty-six varsity records were established during the season that saw Al Janulis crack the 440 mark with a 49.7 second sprint at the WSC meet and Ray Menzel break the 220 record with a blistering 21.7 second dash. Shot-putter Carl Liecker and the mile relay team also bolstered the green and white by taking firsts in the WSC outdoor meet.

York's sophs imitated the varsity's nine win and two loss dual meet record and followed the Dukes lead by taking both WSC titles. Ken Van De Venter paced the Barons by taking firsts in the broad jump and 440 at the WSC meet. Bob Booth captured second in the 100 and 220 in the WSC meet and led the thinclads to first at the Glenbard Soph Invitational and seconds at the Proviso West Invitational and West Suburban Meet.

York's five top varsity dashmen, John Fiumefreddo, Al Janulis, Jeff White, Phil Pompei, and Ray Menzel wait for the starter's command at a cold weather practice session.

York's distance sextet scored in every meet for the cindermen: Steve Goss, Bruce Coleman, John Woods, George McGregor, Don DeMent, and Bill Igoe.

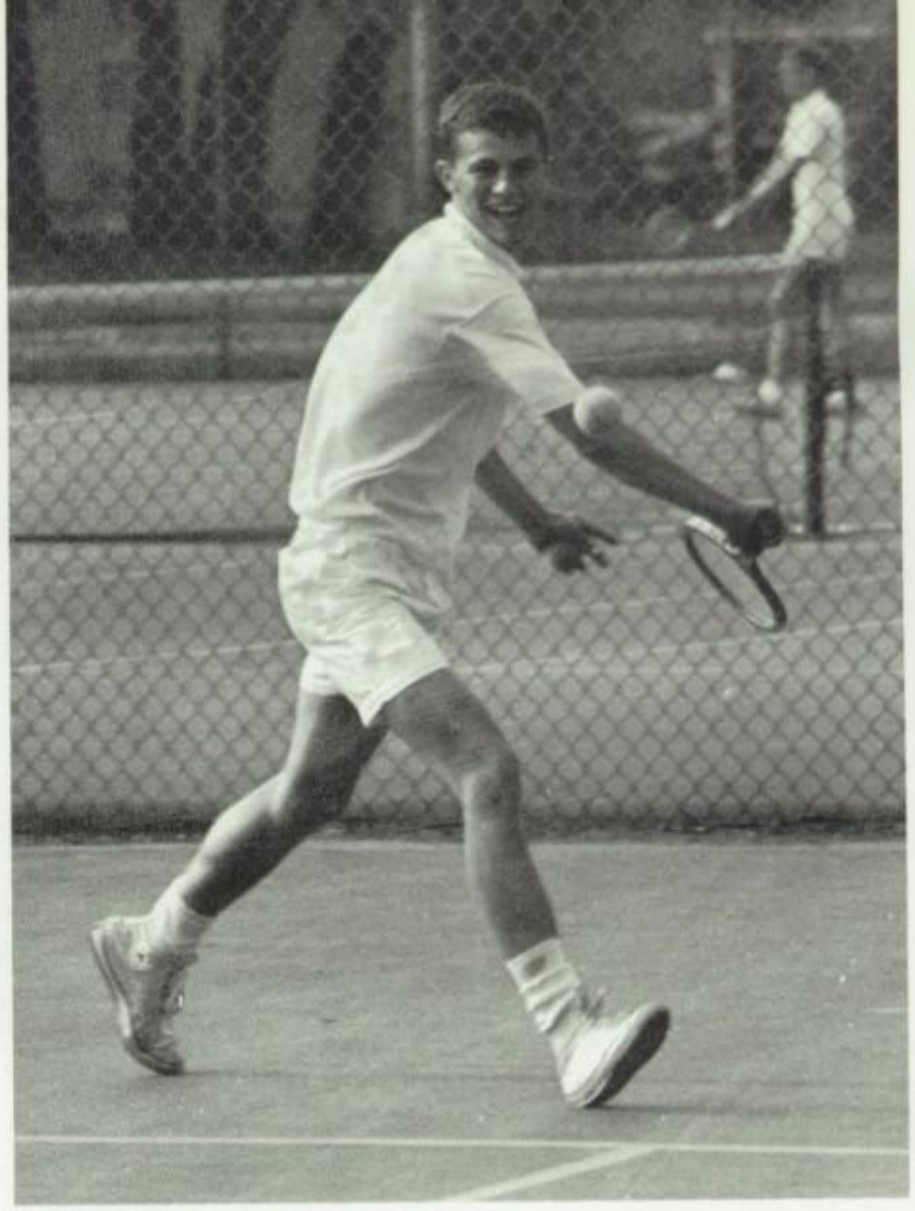
Al Jager, Lou Drinka, Carl Liecker, and John Mauzey, 10th in the state discus, paced Coach Naidenovich's weightmen in the shot-put and the discus.



Dan Cross, leading the way over the hurdles, helped the Dukes cop 1st in the shuttle relays at Palatine.

With victories opposite Proviso East, Lake Park, Forest View, and Willowbrook, Coach Paddock's net-men finished their non-conference season with a 5 and 0 record. The tennismen compiled a 2 win and 5 loss mark in the WSC with late triumphs against Downers Grove and Maine East as Bill Koenig and Ed Rozboril battled to 7 and 5 singles records. Dave Sparks and Scott Van Gelder led the doubles teams with 7 wins and 5 defeats while Doug Broker and the Jim Ferry, Rick Harlan duo were 5 and 7. In the WSC meet Koenig scored the Dukes' only point which, when coupled with York's dual meet mark, landed the netmen in sixth.

Walt Koenig paced the sophs to an 8—4 record, good for a sixth place conference finish, by taking 8 out of 10 decisions. Andy Pachner, who qualified for the WSC quarter finals, boasted an 8 and 4 mark, and John Strain went 6 and 6 in singles play. John Doolittle and Roger Peterson were 6 and 2 in doubles competition.



Bill Koenig, Coach Paddock's number one singles player, uses a perfect backhand to blast his way to victory.

Linksters Cop 4th in State

The 1965 Varsity Golf team capped a brilliant season by winning the District Tournament and representing the WSC in the State Tournament. Mr. Nelson's Dukes shot 662 to finish fourth in the state. In the WSC tournament the linksters shot a school record low of 309 to finish 2nd, but had a 3—4 dual meet record and ended with a fourth in the conference.

Rick Carlson was second low individual scorer in the district and third in the conference. Others on the championship district team were John Kreutz, Ron McBride, Dave Bereiter, and George Rosenhagen.

The Frosh-Soph golfers, led by low-average man Tom Marquardt, ran up a fine 10—2 won-lost record, including a 6—1 record in conference play. The Barons captured second in the conference tourney and finished second in the WSC for the season.

Compiling a 9—5 WSC record, York's 1965 Varsity baseball team copped a 2nd place tie in conference play. Coach Erl Ellingson's Dukes streaked to a 9—2 mark in early season competition. After dropping a doubleheader to a tough Lyons squad, the Green and White rebounded to finish 12—7 overall.

Captain Guy Homoly pounded out 16 hits to lead the team in batting with a .340 average, while Most Improved John Sonnenberg batted .333. Paul Suckow, voted MVP, was tops on the pitching staff with a 0.71 ERA and Rich Paullin garnered 5 victories against one loss while compiling a 1.69 ERA. Suckow and third baseman Homoly copped All-WSC honors to round out a successful season.

Coach Lee Wachenheim's Barons captured 1st place in the WSC for York's 1st Sophomore Championship. The Barons were 11—3 in WSC competition and 12—4 overall. Bill Schwass sparked York's batting attack with a .381 average and Skip Long led the moundstaff with a 4—1 record and a 1.23 ERA. Voted MVP for the Barons was Captain Randy Meyer.

Dukes Tie for 5th; Barons Cop 2nd

The Dukes of York opened the 1965 season with signs of a spectacular year. Coach Alex Naidenovich's varsity gridders were victorious in four out of their first five games as they vied with Lyons and Hinsdale for the West Suburban Conference lead. After trouncing both Willowbrook, 39—14, and Maine East, 25—7, the Dukes' winning streak was broken by Downers Grove before they continued along the victory path and defeated Arlington, 13—6, and Riverside-Brookfield, 21—0. The Green-and-White then went into a tailspin, which found them succumbing to Lyons, Hinsdale, and Glenbard West. By losing their final three games, The Dukes finished with a 4—4 season mark and a 3—4 WSC record which put them in fifth place.

All-state tackle Lou Drinka and fullback Pete Mastro received All-WSC honors. Drinka, along with Russ Standlee, was a defensive standout throughout the season. Mastro led the team in rushing by gaining 830 yards for a 6.4 yards-per-carry average while Ted Mosier was the leading pass receiver with a 15.4 yards-per-catch average. Mastro and Mosier each ran for four touchdowns. Quarterback George Dean, however, was the team scoring leader this year with a total of 58 points on nine touchdowns and four extra-point plays. Co-captains for the Dukes were Drinka and Bill Poe. Drinka was also voted Most Valuable and Ted Hope was named Most Improved.

After grinding out five consecutive victories, the 1965 Barons dropped two of their last three games to finish in second place in the WSC with a 5—2 record. Coach Layne's sophomores ripped opposing defenses for 156 points while surrendering but 94. Fullback Steve Mather led the team in rushing, hammering out 655 yards for a 5.8 yard-per-carry average. Pete Costigan and Tom Guenther led the Baron's stubborn defense which held opponents to 10.7 points per game. Jack Derning was elected captain of the squad, while MVP was Steve Mather, and Andy Werner was voted Most Improved. Coach Stinson's frosh mimicked the Barons' final standing by placing second in the WSC with a 6—1 record. Joe Sparagna paced the offense by scoring 37 points.

Coleman and Dement Lead

Dukes to State Crown

Coach Newton's 1965 Harriers rode the crest of a perfect 10—0 dual meet record to an easy triumph in the State cross-country finals on November 6. Don DeMent paced the Dukes 61 point victory by capturing 5th place, the highest individual Duke finish in history. John Schafer, 13th, Jim Hammond, 15th, Roger Connelly, 18th, and John Gisburne, 37th, completed the Green and White's scoring.

Gisburne led the initial state effort by copping first place in the Ridgewood District Meet on October 30. The long green line placed six runners in the top fifteen for a team total of 27 points and York's second straight District crown.

After scoring seven successive victories over WSC foes early in the season the thinclads dominated the Conference meet to win the WSC cross country title for the 4th straight year. Bruce Coleman, team captain, and Most Valuable runner, placed 2nd, DeMent was 3rd, Schafer was 4th, Hammond was 7th, and Connelly was 8th in the Dukes' romp to victory. The first DuPage County team title fell to the harriers and the individual county champ was Coleman.

The Barons won the WSC, DuPage, York Soph Invitational, and St. Charles titles during their perfect season. Walt Koenig, who moved up to the varsity for the final meets, was undefeated on the soph level and Gary Goss finished a steady second throughout the year.

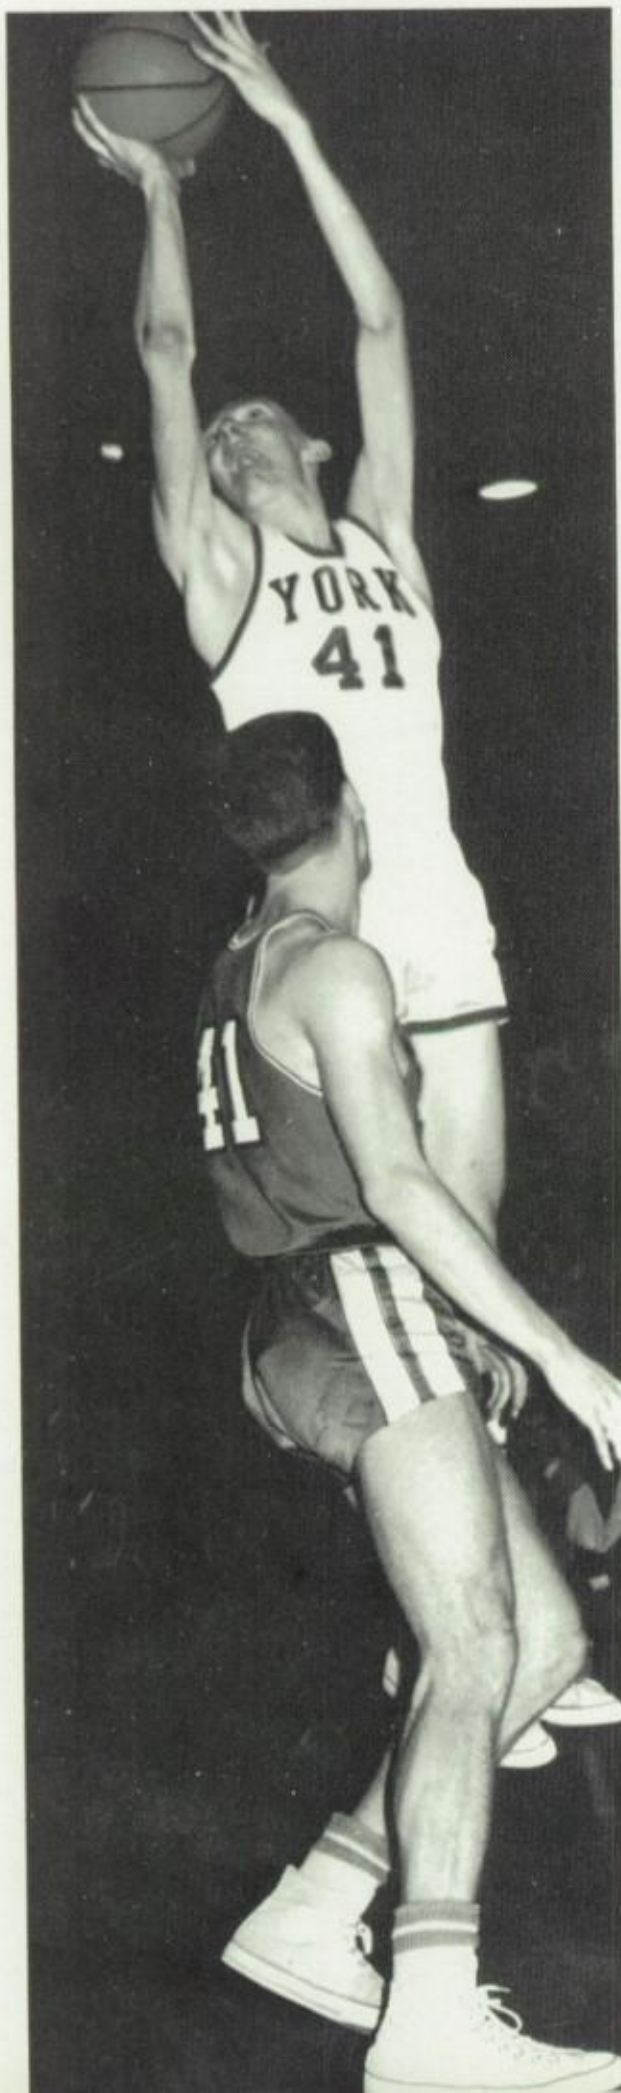
State Champion Dukes are off and running to another dual meet victory.

Dukes' 24—1 Mark Caps WSC, DeKalb Titles

Center Larry Saunders' height helps him add two points to the Dukes' total.

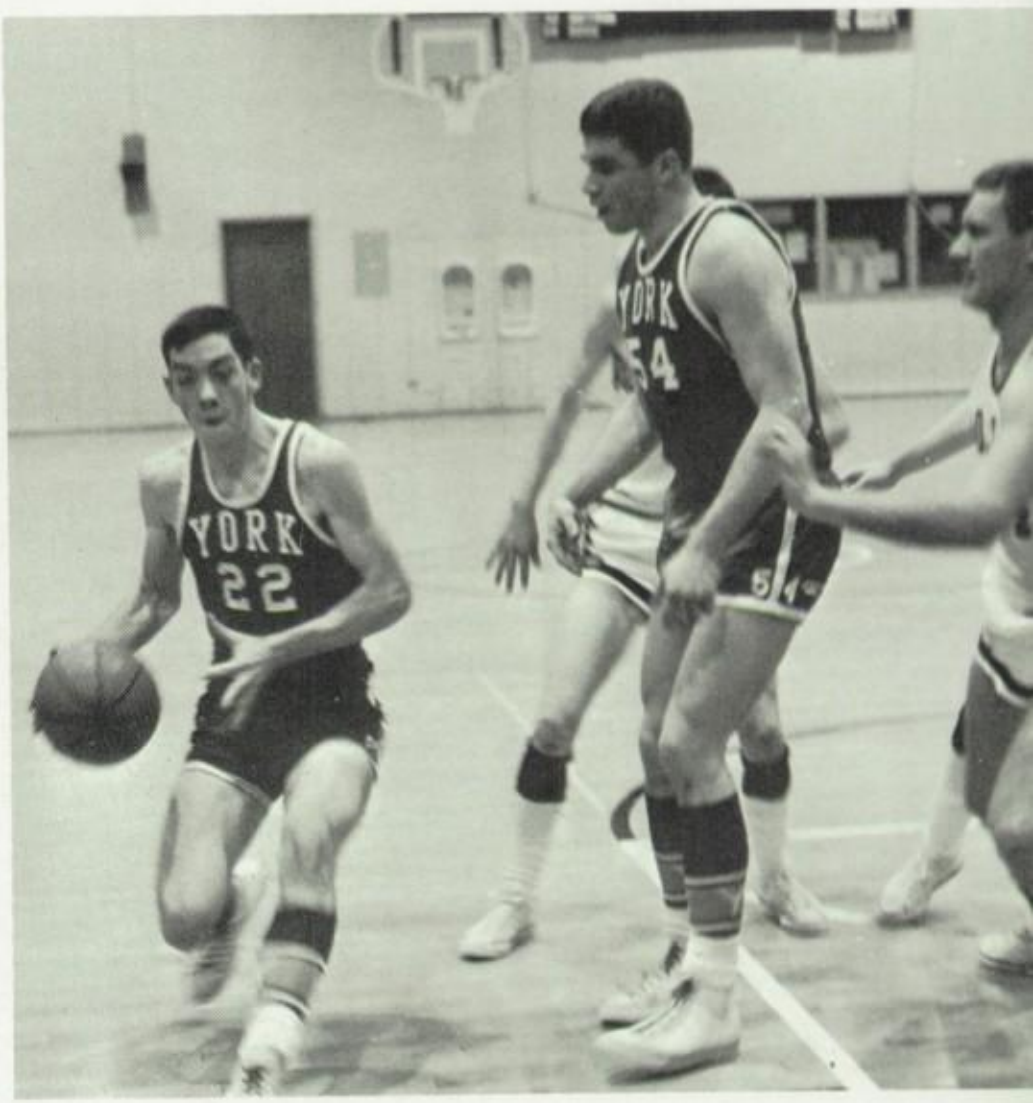


The York Dukes swept through the 1965-66 season by going undefeated in regular season competition and capturing the WSC title by five games over runner-up Arlington. Winning by comfortable margins every time, the highly touted Dukes cinched first place with four WSC contests left to play. The Green and White also romped to the DeKalb tourney title, defeating Freeport by seven in the title tilt.

The first real test for the York cagers came January 7th at LaGrange. The Dukes responded by stomping last year's conference champions by the score of 91—70. With a 73—61 conquest of Hinsdale on the Red Devils' Court, the Dukes presented Coach Campbell with his 100th win as varsity coach.

Center Larry Saunders led the Dukes' onslaught this year by finishing 2nd by one point in the WSC scoring race and copping all-WSC, all-area, and all-state honors. Saunders' 467 points, 423 rebounds, and .676 field goal percentage made him York's 2nd all-state cager in history. Captain Ned Reese was credited with 155 assists, breaking Jim Dawson's old mark of 131. Forward Scott Fiene was 2nd in scoring, also taking all-WSC honors along with Reese and Saunders. Guard Derrick Grove's outside shooting and sophomore Chris Schweer's second-half surge helped vault the Dukes to a 2nd place rating in the state cage polls.

Although the Dukes' unbeaten string was snapped at 24 in the regional championship contest, Mr. Campbell's words sum up every Yorkite's sentiments: "One game will not erase the greatness achieved through 24 games over 4 1/2 months of play."



All-conference guard Ned Reese utilizes Cam Ramsay's pick to drive for two points in victory over Downers.

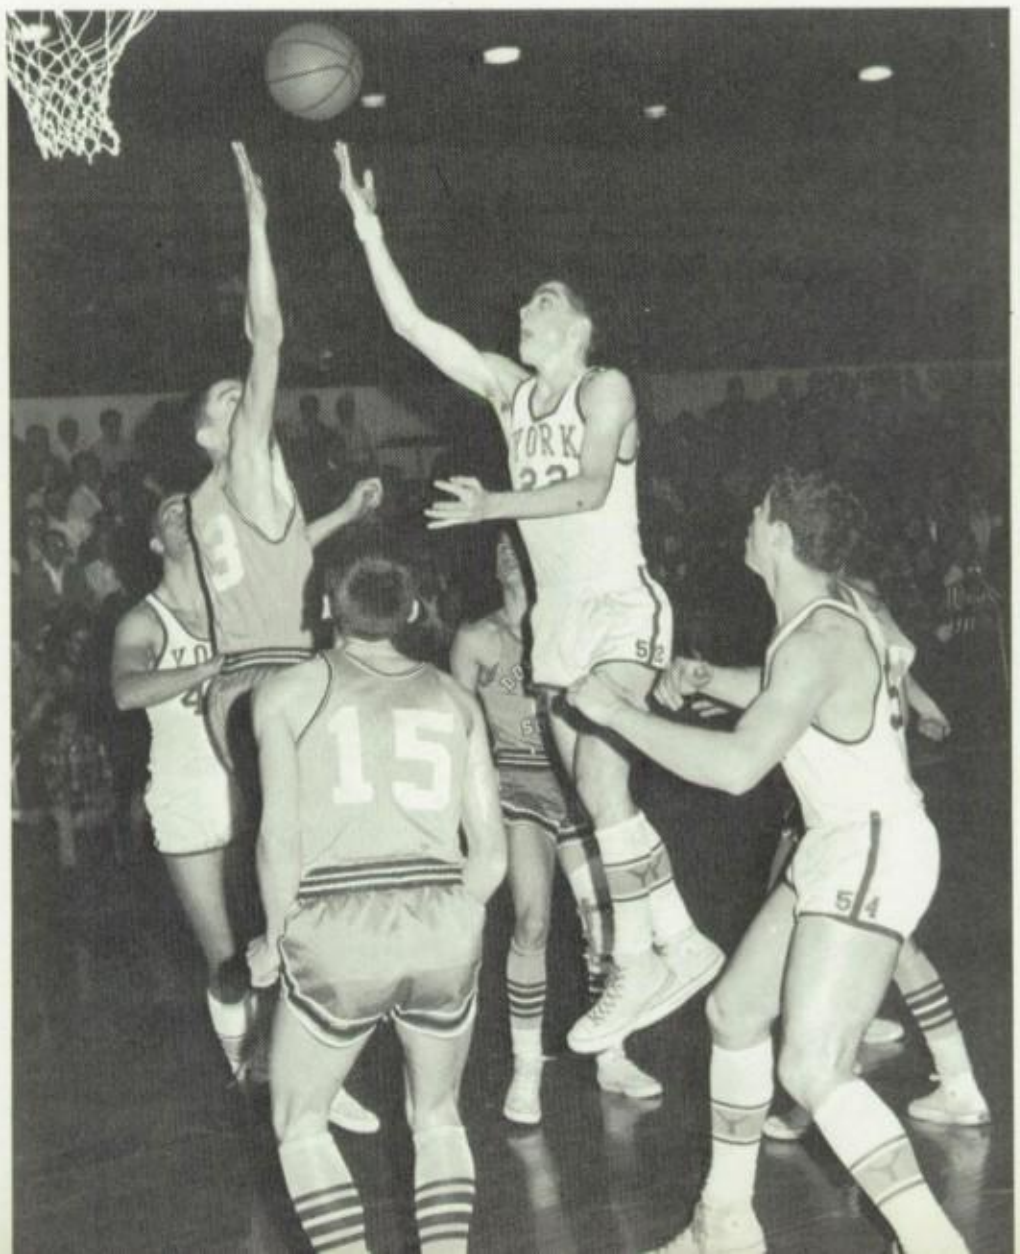
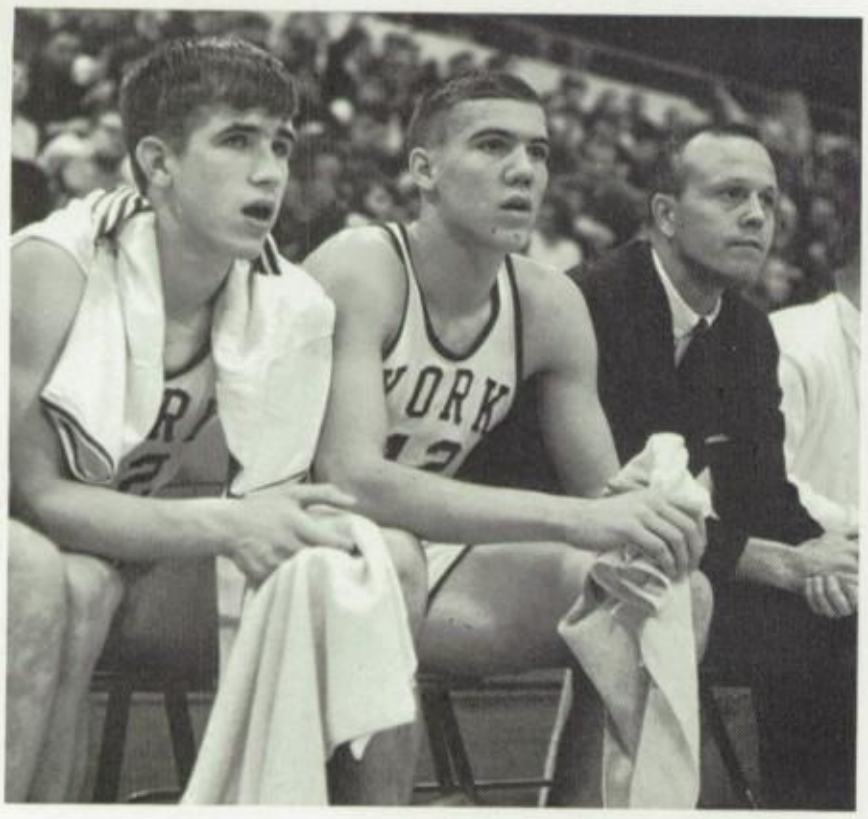
Captain Ned Reese lays one up and in as Dukes romp to 23rd victory in a row.



Soph Cagers Capture 3rd in WSC



Guard Rick Burns, Most Valuable Jack Derning, and Coach Stinson watch Barons take the lead in conference victory over Arlington.

Third place in conference play and a first place in the Glenbrook Tourney highlighted a record-setting year for the Barons. Coach Stinson's frosh-soph cagers won their first eleven games for a string of twenty-eight in a row over a two-year period. Most Valuable Jack Derning set all-time soph records of 343 rebounds and 322 points for high average of 16 points per game.

Led by Captain Chuck Purdom's record 137 assists, the Barons poured through an average of 55.9 points per game. Purdom and Derning paced the sophs from the field with .640 and .560 percentages respectively. Bob Reinke and Mike Clancy combined for 347 points while Bob Heck was voted Most Improved.

Senior Ken Fontana executes a German on the high bar.

Led by all-around man Wayne Lessner, the 1965-66 Duke gymnasts captured third place in the WSC final standings. In the conference meet, Dean Hill and Ron Quimby paced the musclemen by taking firsts on the side horse and in tumbling. Lessner took third in all-around competition, while Jim Rodemaker and Tom Ryan took third and fourth on the trampoline. The Dukes copped 3rd place in the District Meet behind Proviso East and Willowbrook, first and second place finishers in the state. Ten of Coach Mahood's gymnasts qualified for the state finals, but Lessner scored the Dukes' only points by tying for fourth in all-around.

The frosh-soph gymnasts rolled through the season by going undefeated in dual meets and copping first in the WSC meet. Most Valuable Jim Gilbert took firsts on the high bar, still rings, and all-around. Captain Craig Berg copped firsts on the trampoline and in tumbling. Most Improved Tony Wynne was second on still rings and fourth in all-around for Coach Fischer's Barons.

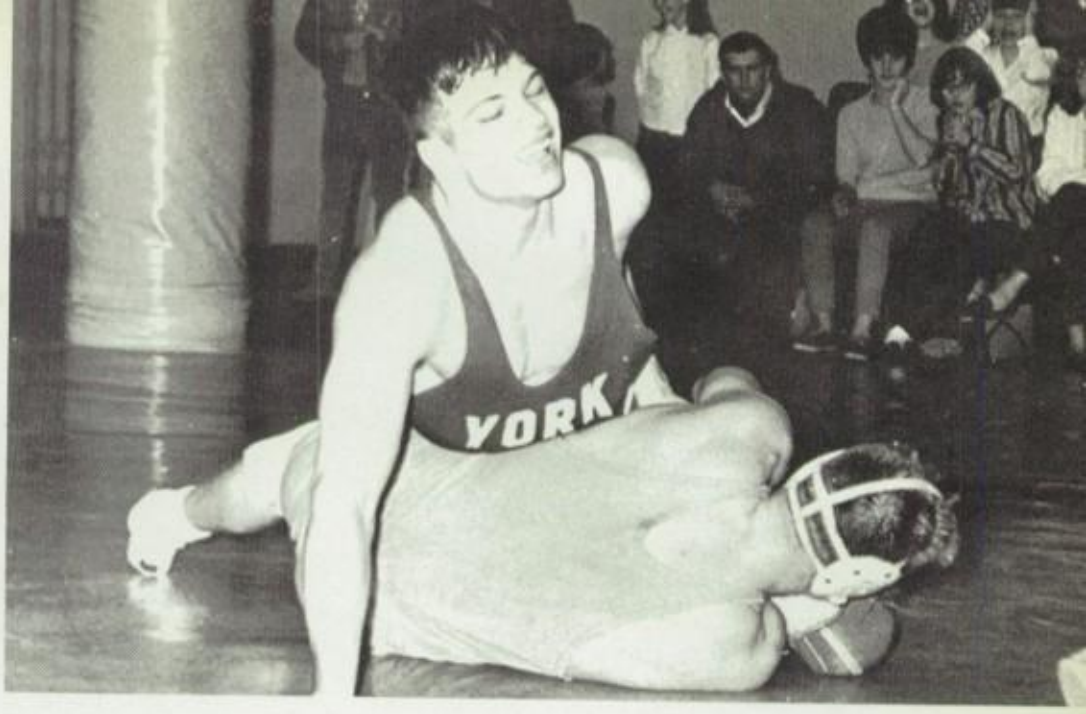
All-WSC Russ Rapier counters takedown attempt by District foe.



Jerry Horn, 9—6—2, works toward advantage over Willowbrook opponent.

Bien Takes 3rd in State; Dukes 2nd in Sectional

Defending State Champion Bob Bien captured 3rd in the 120-pound class this year and Rich Bobus copped 5th in the 133-pound division in the State Tournament. Bien's only loss of the year to McQueen of North Chicago, the eventual State Champion, forced him to settle for 3rd. Four of Coach Lee Wachenheim's grapplers captured District berths, enabling them to advance to the Sectionals where they combined for a 2nd place finish for the Dukes. Co-captains Bien and Russ Rapier and junior Rich Bobus each fought their way to a 1st in the Sectionals and qualified for the State Finals.

The Varsity matmen ended with a 2—5 WSC record, but compiled a 7—6 overall mark. The team voted Bien, 26—1, as Most Valuable for the third consecutive year. Bien, Rapier, and Bobus were named to the All-WSC squad.

Coach Donald Layne's Barons finished 3rd in WSC contests with a 4—3 conference mark. Most Valuable Dick Miller, 13—0—1, and co-captains Larry Pekoe, 11—2, and Mark Swenson, 10—2, led the soph wrestlers to a 7—7 season record.

Bob Bien approaches one of his 26 victims this year. As a varsity wrestler, Bien compiled an outstanding 72—12 record.

Scorer's table and subs during a Meixner victory over Henning's Hellcats.

Schiefer's Shifty Shooters won the Senior Intramural Championship by trouncing Meixner's Mustangs 60 to 36 in the final season game. Schiefer's team finished with a 9—3 record while Meixner's squad ended second with an 8—4 showing. McCracken's Mongolian Horde compiled a 7—5 mark and Henning's team had an 0—12 record. According to Mr. Larson, sponsor, senior intramurals provided tough competition this year with many close games, some of which were played in overtime. John Sonnenberg topped all scorers as he poured through 269 points for a 22.6 average. Jon Benecke was second with a 14.3 average and Jeff McCracken had a 13.2 average.

Pete Smith's team captured the Junior Championship while Jim Young, Joel Caplan, and Wally Brandt led in the scoring race. Hayman's and Snyder's sophomore teams tied for first while Mark Paullin's team finished first among freshmen. Jim Hayman took scoring honors for sophomores while Ken Rude did the same among the freshmen.

Dr. R. Bruce Allingham, Superintendent of the three large District 88 high schools—York Community, Willowbrook, and Addison Trails.

There is something fascinating about a school. There is a character about it that derives from the lives that are molded and shaped in the crucible of day-to-day living and unfolding within its walls.

A school comes to reflect in a friendly sort of way the low murmuring of recitations and discussions behind classroom doors, the bright bursts of youthful laughter or teenage jargon, and exhorting both the eager and the reluctant scholars to delve into the learning which lies there for the taking.

York is a happy, bustling, wholesome, well-managed school-day "home" for many hundreds of boys and girls and their teachers. Many-faceted, it means something a little different to each one who enters its doors each day, and it will provide memories that will remain with each boy and each girl for a lifetime.

District 88 Administrators Uphold Highest Standards for York, Willowbrook, Addison Trails

Around the Conference Table: Mr. Walter A. Knudson, Administrative Assistant for District Personnel; Dr. W. P. Treloar, Administrative Assistant for Adult Education and Informative Services; Mr. Robert Bond, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Mr. Jack Monts, Administrative Assistant for Business Affairs; Dr. Allingham, Superintendent.

DISTRICT 88 BOARD OF EDUCATION: Mr. Milton F. Darr, Jr., Dr. Leonard Haverkamp, Mr. Vernon Jon Benz, Mr. John Holbrook, Secretary; Mr. William A. Kroeplin, Mr. Louis A. Ackerman, and Dr. Melvin H. Mueller, President.

Mr. V. A. Jones, Principal, York Community High School.

The faces of York in 1965-66 have been as varied as the moods and activities of the students who made up the student body. We have observed anxiety and confusion as the freshmen followed the routines of their high school registration week. There were faces of York that registered elation when the student's eyes spotted an "A" on a major test paper. Happiness lighted the faces of York at the realization of victory near the close of an interscholastic contest. Serious concentration has been registered innumerable times as students grappled with problems ranging from decorations for a dance to a semester examination. We have also seen sadness and disappointment on the faces of York.

Since 1918, York students through high achievement have contributed to the highly respected image of York High. Individual accomplishments throughout the years have produced the composite face of York as seen today. Over the years the face of York has not fallen. As we review the events of the past year, I feel confident that the present faces of York reflect the high level of individual accomplishment that will continue to uphold the superior image of York.

York's thinker . . . wonder what he's concentrating on?

Did I step on it?

Though the weather's cold and windy, York's loyal fans brave it all to cheer their team on.

Freshmen try again!

Hmmm . . .?

Y's Tales 68

Many new ideas and a lot of thought, work, and effort have been combined to produce the 1966 edition of Y's Tales. We feel that the Faces of York, presented between these covers, offers a unique portrayal of our years at York. Our efforts have included many errors, but please disregard these and enjoy the rest.

Special thanks are here expressed to the following people for their help and contributions: Mr. E. C. Hackleman, representative of the printers of Y's Tales, American Yearbook Company; Mr. Leander Hagerty and Mr. Sam Becker, Gibson Studios; Mrs. Patricia Alstrin, Art Staff Director; Mrs. Lucile Albert, Y's Tales Director; York Administration and Faculty; Mrs. Thor Holter; the Y's Tales Staff, and the entire student body of York who made this book possible.

Tom,
Now Algebra isn't that bad. Nice being with you in this class
Ron Thomas

Tom -
It's been nice
knowing ya this year!
Tell, now you're a sophomore! Good luck!
Expect it!
Tom-

To a kid who is UNCORDINATED
IN EVERYTHING EXCEPT what COUNTS to him. SEX.
You darn Fiend. But that's all right, I'm all the way with you. Good-Luck next year, and the years to come.
Stay out of closets Tom.
Your true Friend

HICKSVILLE JUMP DOWN YOUR THROAT. (OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT)
BOB PECH

Tom,
To a kid who has irritated Mr
Johnson more than any other.
Good Luck,
Dave Atwood

To a good kid
(from a better one.)
Rick Elliott

Tom-
Don't let your current
grade get you down
Stick in there
You've been through
a lot of tough times
and I hope you
succeed in the future
Jack Carolan

Tom-
Don't let your current
grade get you down
Stick in there
You've been through
a lot of tough times
and I hope you
succeed in the future
Jack Carolan

Tom-
Oh my, what can I say?
How 'bout see ya next
year!
Love ya (not really)
Sleazy Joe

Tom-

It's been ages
noan't it? Well
there's only a few days left. Hope you have a nice summer. Good luck
Always
